

Your Majesty, in Your Royal Wisdom, shall seem meet."

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The district chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Winchmore Hill, being:—

"All that part of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Winchmore Hill, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, which is bounded upon the east partly by the parish of Edmonton and partly by the consolidated chapelry of Saint Aldhelm, Edmonton, upon the south-west partly by the last-named cure, partly by the new parish of Saint Michael at Bowes, Southgate, and partly by the new parish of Palmer's Green, all in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides—that is to say, upon the west and upon the north-west—by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Palmer's Green from the said new parish of Winchmore Hill at the centre of the bridge which carries Dog and Duck Lane across the Enfield Branch Line of the Great Northern Railway, and extending thence northward along the middle of such line of railway for a distance of forty-three chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries Compton Road across the said line of railway, and extending thence eastward along the middle of Compton Road for a distance of thirteen chains and a half or thereabouts to a point opposite to the southern end of the wall or fence forming the western boundary of the house and premises known as Number 26, Compton Road, and extending thence first north-eastward to and along the said wall or fence and then south-eastward along the wall or fence forming the northern boundary of the said house and premises for a distance in all of two chains and a half or thereabouts to the point where the last-mentioned wall or fence meets the wall or fence forming the western boundary of the house and premises known as Number 21, Station Road, and extending thence north-eastward along the last-mentioned wall or fence for a distance of one chain and three-quarters or thereabouts to its northern end on the southern side of Station Road, and extending thence first north-eastward to and then south-eastward along the middle of Station Road for a distance in all of eighteen yards or thereabouts to its junction with Radcliffe Road, and extending thence first northward and then eastward along the middle of Radcliffe Road for a distance of seven chains and a half or thereabouts to a point opposite to the southern end of the wall or fence forming the western boundary of the house and premises known as Number 21, Radcliffe Road, and extending thence north-eastward to and along such wall or fence for a distance of two chains and a quarter or thereabouts to its northern end, and extending thence north-eastward in a straight line for a distance of seven chains or thereabouts to the southern end of the wall or fence forming the western boundary of the house and premises known as Number 12, Pritchett Terrace, Vicar's Moor Lane, and extending thence northward along such wall or fence for a distance of one chain and three-quarters or thereabouts to its northern end on the southern side of Vicar's Moor Lane, and extending thence first northward to and then eastward along the middle of Vicar's Moor Lane for a distance in all of seven chains or thereabouts to its junction with Green Lanes, and extending thence first eastward and then north-eastward along the middle of Green Lanes for a distance of fifteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with Green Dragon Lane and with Ridge Avenue, upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Winchmore Hill from the said parish of Edmonton."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of May, 1913.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
Marquess of Lincolnshire.
Lord Chamberlain.
Lord Emmott.

WHEREAS by section 3 of the Seal Fisheries (North Pacific) Act, 1912, all persons were prohibited from using any port within the United Kingdom for purposes of pelagic sealing contrary to any Order in Council made under the Seal Fisheries (North Pacific) Acts, 1895 and 1912:

And whereas by section 4 of the Seal Fisheries (North Pacific) Act, 1912, the importation of the skins of seals captured in contravention of any such Order as last aforesaid was prohibited:

And whereas by section 5 (1) of the said Act it was enacted that His Majesty might by Order in Council extend the provisions of the two hereinbefore recited sections to any part of His Majesty's Dominions outside the United Kingdom subject to such modifications and adaptations as might appear to Him to be necessary provided that those provisions should not be so extended to a self-governing Dominion except with the consent of the Governor-General in Council or Governor in Council of the Dominion:

And whereas the Union of South Africa is a self-governing Dominion for the purposes of section 5 of the said Act:

And whereas the Governor-General in Council of the Union of South Africa has consented that the provisions of sections 3 and 4 of the said Act shall be extended to the Union of South Africa subject to the modifications and adaptations hereinafter contained:

Now therefore, His Majesty by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf by the
