

Church of Saint Matthew, Grandpont, Oxford, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being; Provided always that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal Wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Matthew, Grandpont, Oxford, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Saint Aldate, Oxford, partly in the county of Oxford and partly in the county of Berks, and wholly in the diocese of Oxford, which is bounded upon the north by the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Oxford, in the said county of Oxford and in the said diocese of Oxford, upon the north-west by the parish of Saint Thomas the Martyr (otherwise Saint Nicholas), Oxford, in the said county of Oxford and in the said diocese of Oxford, upon the south-west partly by the parish of North Hinksey and partly by the parish of South Hinksey, both in the said county of Berks and in the said diocese of Oxford, upon the south-east partly by the said parish of South Hinksey, and partly by the parish of Iffley in the said county of Oxford and in the said diocese of Oxford, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the north-east, by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said parish of Iffley from the said parish of Saint Aldate, Oxford, crosses the middle of the River Thames, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the River Thames for a distance of sixty chains or thereabouts to the point east of the island at Folly Bridge, where the branch of the river which flows past the southern side of the said island meets the main portion of the river, and extending thence first westward and then north-westward along the middle of the said branch of the river for a distance of eight chains or thereabouts to the point where it diverges from the main portion of the river, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said river for a distance of five chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Aldate, Oxford, from the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Oxford."

And whereas the said Representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Oxford.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 13th day of June, 1913.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the eighth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Peter, situate at Port Isaac, in the parish of Saint Endellion, in the county of Cornwall and in the diocese of Truro.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Peter, situate at Port Isaac, as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Winfrid Oldfield, Bishop of Truro (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Saint Endellion, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Peter, situate at Port Isaac, as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'the District Chapelry of Saint Peter, Port Isaac.'

"And with the like consent of the said Winfrid Oldfield, Bishop of Truro (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of
