At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 13th day of June, 1913.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Representation, bearing date the seventeenth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of All Saints, Farnworth, situate within the district parish of Farnworth and Kearsley, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester.

“Whereas at certain extremities of the said district parish of Farnworth and Kearsley and of the new parish (sometime consolidated chapelry) of Saint Thomas, Dixon Green, in the said county and diocese, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such district parish and new parish.

“And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said district parish of Farnworth and Kearsley, and of the said new parish of Saint Thomas, Dixon Green, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of All Saints, Farnworth, situate as aforesaid.

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edmund Arbuthnott, Bishop of Manchester, as such Bishop, and also as the patron in right of his See, of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Thomas, Dixon Green (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Representation), and with the consent of “the Trustees of the estates devised by William Hulme, Esquire,” as the patrons of the vicarage of the said district parish of

Farnworth and Kearsley (in testimony whereof they, the said Trustees, have hereunto affixed their common seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said district parish of Farnworth and Kearsley and of the said new parish of Saint Thomas, Dixon Green, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of All Saints, Farnworth, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘the consolidated chapelry of All Saints, Farnworth.’

“We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The consolidated chapelry of All Saints, Farnworth, comprising:—

“All those contiguous portions of the district parish of Farnworth and Kearsley and of the new parish (sometime consolidated chapelry) of Saint Thomas, Dixon Green, both in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester, which, taken together, are bounded upon the north by the new parish of Saint Michael, Great Lever, upon part of the east by the new parish of Saint Matthew, Little Lever, both in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the remaining part of the east, upon the south-east, upon the south-west and upon the west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Matthew, Little Lever, from the said district parish of Farnworth and Kearsley at a point on the northern bank of the River Croal opposite to the junction of the road leading from Hall-lane to Rock Hall with the footpath leading between two of the Crompton Lodges Reservoirs into Lower Rawson-street, and extending thence first southward to the middle of the said footpath (thereby crossing the said River Croal), and then first southward, then south-eastward, and then south-westward along the middle of such footpath (thereby crossing Fern-street) for a distance in all of thirty-five chains or thereabouts to its junction with Lower Rawson-street, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of Lower Rawson-street for a distance of four chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Trafford-street, and extending thence first north-westward and then south-westward along the middle of Trafford-street for a distance of seventeen chains or thereabouts to its junction with Bolton-road upon the boundary which divides the said district parish of Farnworth and Kearsley from the said new parish of Saint Thomas, Dixon Green, and extending thence north-westward along the last-mentioned boundary (thereby following the middle of Bolton-road) for a distance of twenty chains and a half or thereabouts to the junction of
