PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1855, it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should or should not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council was made on the 27th day of January, 1885, directing the discontinuance of burials, with certain exceptions, in, among other places, the Parish Church and Churchyard of Llanstadwell, in the county of Pembroke:

And whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the said Order so far as it relates to the said Parish Churchyard be varied:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said Order of the 27th day of January, 1885, so far as it relates to the Parish Churchyard of Llanstadwell, in the county of Pembroke, be varied, so that, notwithstanding anything therein, it shall be lawful after the death of the Reverend Lacy H. Provided that the burials hereby authorized shall be subject to compliance with the requirement that no part of the coffin containing the body shall, in either case, be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.
