

present insufficiently endowed, and that the said benefice of Saint Andrew, Great Grimsby, has endowments of such an amount as that after the apportionment hereinafter recommended and proposed shall have been carried out, the said benefice of Saint Andrew, Great Grimsby, will still be sufficiently endowed.

"And whereas the said benefice of Saint Andrew, Great Grimsby, is now full of a clerk, the Incumbent thereof being the Reverend Charles Henry Lenton, Clerk in Holy Orders.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of The Right Honourable and Most Reverend Randall Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury, acting as Archbishop of the Province within which each of the said two benefices is situate, and with the consent of The Right Reverend Edward Lee, now Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln, acting as such bishop and also as the patron in right of his See of each of the said two benefices as aforesaid (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed this Scheme and sealed the same with their several episcopal seals), and also with the consent of the said Charles Henry Lenton, as the Incumbent of the said benefice of Saint Andrew, Great Grimsby (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that as from the day of the date on which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall have been published in the London Gazette and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this Scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, the said clear annual sum or yearly rent charge of eighty pounds now charged or chargeable as aforesaid on all the tithe rent charges, glebe lands and all (if any) other the endowments now or hereafter belonging to the said benefice of Algar-kirk in favour of the Incumbent of the said benefice of Saint Andrew, Great Grimsby, and his successors, shall cease to be payable to the Incumbent of the said benefice of Saint Andrew, Great Grimsby, and shall be transferred to and be for ever thereafter payable to the Incumbent of the said benefice of Saint Luke, Grimsby, and his successors in the same manner as is set forth and prescribed by the aforesaid Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the thirteenth day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lincoln.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 10th day of June, 1913, in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas by section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an officer, seaman, or marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas by Your Majesty's Order in Council of the 11th day of October, 1912, accountant officers of Your Majesty's Fleet employed as secretaries to Vice-Admirals commanding squadrons are given status and pay inferior to that of a secretary to a Commander-in-Chief:

"And whereas We are of opinion that accountant officers employed as secretaries to Vice-Admirals commanding squadrons of the First Fleet should receive the status of a secretary to a Commander-in-Chief while retaining the pay authorized for a secretary to a Vice-Admiral commanding a squadron:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction the improvement in status of such officers accordingly, with effect from the eleventh day of October, 1912, as regards counting time in the appointments.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
