

thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called "the said benefice") of Winwick, partly in the county of Huntingdon and partly in the county of Northampton, and wholly in the diocese of Ely.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Winwick stands limited and settled to the use of the Right Honourable John Charles Montagu Douglas Scott (commonly and hereinafter called "the Earl of Dalkeith") during his life, and the said Earl of Dalkeith is therefore the patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice in case the same were now vacant.

"And whereas the said Earl of Dalkeith is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Winwick should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Reverend Frederic Henry, now Bishop of Ely, and his successors in the same bishoprick.

"And whereas the said Frederic Henry, Bishop of Ely, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness, and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore-mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, he, the said Frederic Henry, Bishop of Ely, has executed this Scheme as herein-after mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Winwick, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will, in our opinion, tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Winwick.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the said Earl of Dalkeith, being the person whose consent as patron is required by the provisions of the hereinbefore-mentioned Acts and of the Act of the first and second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and six (in testimony of which consent he has signed and sealed this Scheme), and with the consent of the said Frederic Henry, Bishop of Ely (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal).

"We, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Winwick, shall be transferred to the said Frederic Henry, Bishop of Ely, and his successors in the same bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Frederic Henry, Bishop of Ely, and his successors in the same bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ely.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme, bearing date the sixteenth day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken partly out of the parish of Penschaw, partly out of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Matthew, Newbottle, and partly out of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Herrington, all within the original limits of the parish of Houghton le Spring, in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham.

"Whereas we are satisfied that the said parish of Penschaw, the said new parish of Saint Matthew, Newbottle, and the said new
