

"And we further represent, recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing, recommending or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

"The territory to be dissevered from the parish of Farlington, in the county of Southampton, and in the diocese of Winchester, and to be annexed to the new parish of Saint George, Waterlooville, in the same county and diocese, being:—

"All that portion of the said parish of Farlington which is bounded upon the north by the said new parish of Saint George, Waterlooville, upon the west by the parish of Southwick, in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the south-west and upon the south-east, by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said parish of Southwick from the said parish of Farlington crosses the middle of the footpath leading from the house and premises known as Plant Farm into the road which runs from Purbrook to Waterlooville, at a point opposite to the house and premises known as Wheatlane End, and extending thence eastward along the middle of the said footpath for a distance of eleven chains or thereabouts to its junction with the said road, leading from Purbrook to Waterlooville, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said road for a distance of two chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the north-western end of the fence which divides the close numbered 69 upon the Ordnance Map of the civil parish of Farlington, published in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, upon the scale of twenty-five inches to a mile, and also upon the map or plan which is annexed to this Scheme or Representation from the close numbered 70 upon the same maps, and extending thence first south-westward to and then first south-westward, and then in various directions along the fences which divide the said close numbered 69, and the closes numbered 71, 86, 81 and 78 upon the said maps from the said close numbered 70, and the closes numbered 62, 72, 85 and 74 upon the same maps for a distance of forty chains or thereabouts to the point where the fence which divides the said close numbered 78 from the said close numbered 74 meets the south-western side of Stakes Hill Road, and extending thence eastward diagonally across Stakes Hill Road for a distance of fifteen yards or thereabouts to the south-western end of the fence which divides the close numbered 77 upon the said maps from the close numbered 76 upon the same maps, and extending thence north-eastward along the fences which divide the said close numbered 77 and the closes numbered 55, 12, 11 and 8 upon the said maps from the said close numbered 76, and the closes numbered 57, 58, 10 and 9 upon the same maps for a distance of twenty-four chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of Farlington from the said new parish of Saint George, Waterlooville."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme or Representation have been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such Scheme or Representation, and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said Scheme or Representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme or Representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

At the Court at Windsor Castle, the 22nd day of November, 1913.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the sixteenth day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of All Saints, Woodlands, situate within the parish of Adwick le Street, in the county of York and in the diocese of York.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Adwick le Street, the parish of Brodsworth, and the parish of Doncaster, both in the said county and diocese, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said parish of Adwick le Street, the said parish of Brodsworth, and the said parish of Doncaster, should be formed
