

the 8th day of February, 1855, it was ordered that burials should be discontinued in (amongst other places) the parish church and the churchyard of Wotton-under-Edge, in the county of Gloucester, as in the said Order mentioned:

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the churchwardens of the said parish of Wotton-under-Edge ten days' previous notice of their intention in that behalf have made a representation that so much of the said Order in Council of the 8th day of February, 1855, as relates to burials in the parish church and the churchyard of Wotton-under-Edge aforesaid, should be varied by substituting for the directions therein contained with regard to the said church and churchyard the following directions, viz.:—

That, except as hereinafter provided, burials shall be discontinued forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Saint Mary, Wotton-under-Edge, and in that portion of the churchyard which was in existence prior to the year 1855: Provided that in any vault or walled grave now existing in the said portion of the churchyard and situate not less than fifty feet from the house known as Lisle House, burial may be allowed, subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

And whereas His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the 14th day of October, 1913, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council, on the 20th day of November, 1913, and that the said Order should be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and that copies thereof should be affixed in the manner required by the Burial Act, 1853:

And whereas copies of the said Order have been so affixed accordingly:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that so much of the said Order in Council of the 8th day of February, 1855, as relates to burials in the parish church and the churchyard of Wotton-under-Edge, in the county of Gloucester, be varied by substituting for the directions therein contained with regard to the said church and churchyard the following directions, viz.:—

That, except as hereinafter provided, burials shall be discontinued forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Saint Mary, Wotton-under-Edge, and in that portion of the churchyard which was in existence prior to the year 1855: Provided that in any vault or walled grave now existing in the said portion of the churchyard and situate not less than fifty feet from the house known as Lisle House, burial may be allowed, subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.
