

(hereinafter called "the said Dean and Chapter") and their successors.

"And whereas the said Dean and Chapter are willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such their willingness have executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Handley Carr Glyn, now Bishop of Durham, as Bishop of the diocese in which the said benefice is situate, is consenting to this scheme, and in token of such his consent, which is required by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Saint Giles, Durham, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Saint Giles, Durham.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the said Lord Londonderry, being the person whose consent as patron is required by the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts and of the Act of the first and second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and six (in testimony of which consent he has signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said Handley Carr Glyn, Bishop of Durham (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), and with the consent of the said Dean and Chapter (in testimony whereof they have caused their common or capitular seal to be affixed to this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Giles, Durham, now vested in him, the said Lord Londonderry as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Dean and Chapter, and their successors, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Dean and Chapter and their successors for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council.

Now therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Durham.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 19th day of December, 1913.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for assigning the patronage of the district of Saint Jerome, Ardwick, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas an Order of Your Majesty in Council, dated the sixteenth day of December, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, and published in the London Gazette on the following day, which constituted the said district of Saint Jerome, Ardwick, and purported to assign the whole patronage of the same district to the following seven persons commonly known as the Patronage Trustees of the Church Pastoral Aid Society, namely, John Henry Buxton, of Easeneye, Ware, in the county of Hertford, Esquire, Sir Edward Hildred Carlile, of Ponsbourne Park, in the county of Hertford, Knight, M.P., the Reverend James Hardy Honeyburne, an Honorary Canon of the Cathedral Church of Liverpool, the Reverend Edward Grose Hodge, of Number 52, Sussex Gardens, London, W., Clerk in Holy Orders, and a Prebendary of the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul, in London, the Reverend Robert Charles Joynt, of the Vicarage, Gipsy Hill, in the county of Surrey, Clerk in Holy Orders, and an Honorary Canon of the Cathedral Church of Southwark, the Reverend Hamner William Webb Peplow, of Number 25, Onslow Gardens, London, S.W., Clerk in Holy Orders, and a Prebendary of the said Cathedral Church of Saint Paul, in London, and Granville Ronald Francis Smith, C.V.O., C.B., a Colonel in Your Majesty's Army, contains a recital to the effect that the contributors of a sum of over three thousand pounds towards the cost of providing a permanent church within and for the said district of Saint Jerome, Ardwick, had nominated the said seven persons as the persons to whom they desired that the whole right of patronage of the said district should be assigned.

"And whereas the said James Hardy Honeyburne died on the twenty-sixth day of December last.

"And whereas it has been pointed out to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, that the names of two of the said Patronage Trustees of the Church Pastoral Aid Society, namely, the said James Hardy Honeyburne and the said Granville Ronald Francis Smith, were erroneously included in the said recital of the
