NATIONAL INSURANCE.

NATIONAL HEALTH INSURANCE.

The National Health Insurance (Deposit Contributors Benefits) Order, 1913, dated December 18, 1913, made by the Insurance Commissioners under section 78 of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (1 & 2 Geo. 5, c. 55).

Whereas by section 78 of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (in this Order called "the Act"), it is amongst other things provided that if any difficulty arises with respect to bringing into operation Part I of the Act the Insurance Commissioners with the consent of the Treasury may by Order do anything which appears to them necessary or expedient for bringing that Part of the Act in operation, and that any such Order may modify the provisions of the Act so far as may appear necessary or expedient for carrying the Order into effect:

And whereas, by virtue of paragraph (e) of section 42 of the Act, if the amount standing to the credit of a deposit contributor at the commencement of the year is insufficient to provide the sums payable in respect of him for the purposes of medical benefit and sanatorium benefit, and towards the expenses of administration, that contributor is not, unless the Insurance Committee consents, and except subject to such conditions as the Committee may impose, entitled to any benefits during that year:

And whereas by section 3 of the National Insurance Act, 1913 (in this Order called "the amending Act"), it is enacted that Part I of the Act shall apply to persons who at the commencement of the Act were of the age of sixty-five and upwards and under the age of seventy, provided that a person who is of the age of sixty-five or upwards at the date of entry into insurance shall not be entitled to medical benefit after he attains the age of seventy, unless the number of weekly contributions paid by or in respect of him exceeds twenty-six:

And whereas it will not in all cases be possible at the commencement of the year 1914 to ascertain whether the amount standing to the credit of a deposit contributor in the Deposit Contributors Fund will be sufficient to provide the sums aforesaid or whether the number of weekly contributions paid by or in respect of him exceeds twenty-six:

And whereas, by reason of the premises deposit contributors will, unless this Order is made, as respects the year 1914, be deprived of benefits to which they might otherwise have been entitled, and accordingly a difficulty has arisen within the meaning of the said section 78:

Now, therefore, the Insurance Commissioners, in pursuance of the powers conferred on them by the Act and all other powers enabling them in that behalf, with the consent of the Treasury, hereby order as follows:—

1. For the purposes of paragraph (e) of section 42 and section 61 of the Act, the commencement of the year 1914 shall be deemed to be the 12th day of January.

2. Notwithstanding anything in paragraph
(e) of section 42 of the Act—

(1) (a) A deposit contributor who on the 13th day of October, 1913, had an amount standing to his credit in the Deposit Contributors Fund sufficient to provide the proper proportion of the sums payable for the purposes specified in paragraph (e) of section 42 of the Act in respect of the period from the 12th day of January, 1914, to the 11th day of April, 1914, and

(b) a deposit contributor by or in respect of whom any contributions were paid during the period from the 14th day of July, 1913, to the 12th day of October, 1913, shall be entitled to receive medical benefit and sanatorium benefit during the period from the 12th day of January, 1914, to the 11th day of April, 1914, both inclusive.

(2) A deposit contributor who entered into insurance before the 12th day of January, 1914, and by or in respect of whom no contributions were paid during the period from the 14th day of July, 1913, to the 12th day of October, 1913, and who, on the 13th day of October, 1913, had not an amount standing to his credit in the Deposit Contributors Fund sufficient to provide the proper proportion of the sums payable for the purposes specified in paragraph (e) of section 42 of the Act in respect of the period from the 12th day of January, 1914, to the 11th day of April, 1914, both inclusive, shall not in any event be entitled to receive medical benefit and sanatorium benefit during that period, but shall nevertheless, if the amount standing to his credit in the Deposit Contributors Fund on the 12th day of January, 1914, or on the 6th day of July, 1914, is sufficient to provide the proper proportion of the sums payable as aforesaid in respect of the period from the 12th day of April, 1914, to the 11th day of July, 1914, both inclusive, or from the 12th day of October, 1914, to the 31st day of December, 1914, both inclusive, as the case may be, be entitled to receive medical benefit and sanatorium benefit during that period.

3.—(1) This Order shall apply to a deposit contributor who attained the age of seventy before the 13th day of October, 1913, provided that such a deposit contributor shall not, unless he has on the 12th day of January, 1914, an amount standing to his credit in the Deposit Contributors Fund sufficient to provide the proper proportion of the sums payable in respect of the period from the 12th day of January, 1914, to the 11th day of April, 1914, be entitled to receive medical benefit and sanatorium benefit for that period.

(2) A deposit contributor who attains the age of seventy after the 13th day of October, 1913, shall, notwithstanding anything in section 3 of the amending Act, and subject to the provisions of this Order, be entitled to receive medical benefit and sanatorium benefit after he attains the age of seventy, if he entered into insurance more than twenty-six weeks before he attains that age.

4. There shall be deducted, at such times as the Insurance Commissioners may determine, from the amount standing to the credit of the deposit contributor in the Deposit Contributors Fund the proper proportion for the periods or period during which he is by virtue of the foregoing provisions of this Order entitled to benefit of the sums payable in respect of him for the purposes specified in paragraph (e) of section 42 of the Act for the year 1914:

Provided that if it appears at any time that the amount so standing to the credit of a deposit contributor who becomes entitled to benefit as aforesaid was not sufficient to provide for that deduction, the Insurance Commissioners may, if they think fit, deduct from any contributions paid by or in respect of him in respect of the year 1914, such sum as together with any sum so standing to his credit as aforesaid, will be equal to the proper proportion of the sums so payable in respect of him.

5.—(1) The Insurance Commissioners may, if they think fit, continue the right to benefit of any deposit contributor to whom the provisions of Article 2 of this Order apply for a succeeding or any subsequent period up to and including the 31st day of December, 1914, if there is standing to the credit of the deposit contributor in the Deposit Contributors Fund before the beginning of each such further period or periods, an amount equal to the proper proportion for such further period or periods of the sums payable in respect of him under paragraph (e) of section 42 of the Act for the year 1914, and there shall be deducted at such times as the Insurance Commissioners may determine from the amount so standing to his credit a sum equal to the proper proportion for such period or periods of the sums so payable as aforesaid.

(2) Where a deposit contributor who is entitled to receive medical benefit and sanatorium benefit before he attains the age of seventy entered into insurance within twenty-six weeks of his attaining that age, there shall be deducted from the amount standing to his credit in the Deposit Contributors Fund the proper proportion of the sums payable in respect of him under paragraph (e) of section 42 of the Act for the period or periods commencing on the 12th day of January, the 12th day of April, the 12th day of July, and the 12th day of October, 1914, as the case may be, during which he is entitled to receive medical and sanatorium benefit.

6. Where a deposit contributor is entitled to receive medical benefit and sanatorium benefit, but, at the date when he becomes so entitled, arrangements have not been made for providing those benefits, there shall, as soon as may be after those arrangements have been made, be deducted from the amount standing to his credit in the Deposit Contributors Fund, a sum equal to the proper proportion payable in respect of him, so, however, that the period or periods for which any such deduction is made, shall be a period or periods commencing on the 12th day of January, the 12th day of April, the 12th day of July, or the 12th day of October, whichever of the said dates is next before the date when the said arrangements were made.

7. During the period from the 13th day of October, 1913, to the 11th day of January, 1914, no payment on account of sickness benefit or maternity benefit shall, unless the Insurance Commissioners otherwise determine, be made to a deposit contributor of an amount greater than the excess (if any) of the balance standing to his credit in the Deposit Contributors Fund over the sums properly payable under paragraph (e) of section 42 of the Act for the year 1914.

8. The provisions of the National Health Insurance (Deposit Contributors Medical and Sanatorium Benefit) Order, 1913, shall continue to apply up to and including the 11th day of January, 1914.

9.—(1) Save as otherwise expressly provided, the expression "Deposit Contributor" means, for the purposes of Articles 2, 3, and 4 of this Order, a deposit contributor who, if the amount standing to his credit in the Deposit Contributors Fund were not insufficient for the purposes specified in paragraph (e) of section 42 of the Act, would be entitled to medical benefit and sanatorium benefit.

(2) In this Order, for the purpose of calculating the proper proportion of the sums payable for the purposes specified in paragraph (e) of section 42 of the Act in respect of a deposit contributor to whom this Order applies, no account shall be taken of such part of those sums as is payable out of moneys provided by Parliament.

10.—(1) This Order may be cited as the National Health Insurance (Deposit Contributors Benefits) Order, 1913.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

In the Matter of the UNITED ALKALI COMPANY Limited and Reduced, and in the Matter of the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Order of the High Court of Justice (Chancery Division) Companies (Winding-up), dated the 9th day of December, 1913, confirming the cancellation and reduction of the Ordinary share capital of the above named Company from £3,000,000 to £600,000, and the Minute approved by the Court, showing with respect to the share capital of the Company as altered the several particulars required by the above Act were registered by the Registrar of Companies on the 20th day of December, 1913. The reason for the reduction is that the amount by which the share capital of the Company is reduced is now unrepresented by available assets. The said Minute is in the words and figures following:—“The capital of the United Alkali Company Limited and Reduced is henceforth £3,600,000, divided into 300,000 Preference shares of £10 each and 600,000 Ordinary shares of £1 each, instead of the original capital of £6,000,000, divided into 300,000 Preference shares of £10 each and 300,000 Ordinary shares of £10 each. At the time of the registration of this Minute (a) 282,524 of the said 300,000 Preference shares, numbered 1 to 122,195 and 139,672 to 300,000 inclusive, are issued, and on each of such shares the sum of £10 has been or is to be deemed to be paid up, (b) 598,686 of the said 600,000 Ordinary shares of £1 each, numbered 1 to 598,686 inclusive, are issued, and on each of such shares the sum of £1 has been or is to be deemed to be paid up, (c) the remaining 17,476 Preference shares, numbered 122,196 to 139,671 inclusive, and the remaining 1,314 Ordinary shares, numbered 598,687 to 600,000 inclusive, are unissued, and nothing has been or is to be deemed to be paid up thereon."—Dated the 23rd day of December, 1913.

In the Matter of SCOTT BROTHERS Limited and Reduced, and in the Matter of the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition has been presented to His Majesty's High Court of Justice for confirming the Resolutions of the above Company for reducing its capital from £100,000, divided into 10,000 shares of £10 each to £60,000, divided into 60,000 shares of £1 each (such reduction to be effected by a return to the holders of 8,000 shares of £10 each capital in excess of the wants of the Company to the extent of £5 per share). By an affidavit of James Robert Gillespie, the Secretary of the above named Company, filed in the said matter, on the 20th day of December, 1913, it appears that, to the best of his knowledge, information and belief there were, on the 15th day of December, 1913 (the date fixed by the Order in this matter, dated the 7th day of November, 1913), no creditors or other persons whatsoever having claims upon or against the above named Company to whom any money had become due or payable, nor was there, to the best of his information and belief, any debt or claim which, if the said 15th day of December, 1913, had been the commencement of the winding-up of the said Company would be admissible in proof against the said Company other than claims which might arise through the nonfulfilment by the Company of current contracts which are not yet due for fulfilment. A list of the persons with whom such current contracts were, on the 15th day of December, 1913, pending, may be inspected at the offices of the Company, or at the office of Messrs. Leighton and Savory, Solicitors, 2, Clement's Inn, Strand, London, W.C., the Solicitors to the Company, at any time during the usual business hours on payment of the charge of one shilling.

Any person who claims to have been on the last-mentioned day and still to be a creditor of the Company, and who is not entered on the said list, and claims to be so entered, must, on or before the 14th day of January, 1914, send in his name and address, and the particulars of his claim, and the name and address of his Solicitor (if any), to the undersigned, at 2, Clement's Inn, Strand, London, W.C., or in default thereof he will be precluded from objecting to the proposed reduction of capital.—Dated this 23rd day of December, 1913.
