

(2) In this Order, for the purpose of calculating the proper proportion of the sums payable for the purposes specified in paragraph (e) of section 42 of the Act in respect of a deposit contributor to whom this Order applies, no account shall be taken of such part of those sums as is payable out of moneys provided by Parliament.

10.—(1) This Order may be cited as the National Health Insurance (Deposit Contributors Benefits) Order, 1913.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Insurance Commissioners, this 18th day of December, in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen.

(L. S.)

John Anderson,

Secretary to the Insurance Commissioners.

We consent to this Order.

Henry Webb,

Wedgwood Benn,

Two of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

Whereas the benefice of the Bedford Chapel, Exeter, in the county of Devon and diocese of Exeter, was avoided on the first day of December instant by the resignation of the Reverend John Morgan (hereinafter called the retired Incumbent), now we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in accordance with our Regulations dated the thirtieth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and seven, relating to grants in aid of pensions to retired Incumbents (hereinafter called the said Regulations), do hereby grant out of our common fund to the retired Incumbent the yearly sum of fifty pounds during the life of the retired Incumbent subject as hereinafter mentioned, such yearly sum to commence and be computed from the said first day of December instant, and to be paid by equal quarterly payments on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in every year; subject nevertheless to cesser, determination, withdrawal, suspension or reduction as a grant made in accordance with the said Regulations and to all other the provisions and conditions contained in the said Regulations and applicable to a grant made in accordance therewith.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eighteenth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen.

Whereas the benefice of Gretton, in the county of Northampton and diocese of Peterborough, was avoided on the seventh day of November last past by the retirement under the provisions of the Incumbents' Resignation Acts, 1871 and 1887, of the Reverend Leonard

Addison (hereinafter called the retired Incumbent), and there was assigned to the retired Incumbent a yearly pension under the said Resignation Acts of one hundred and twenty pounds, now we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in accordance with our Regulations dated the thirtieth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and seven, relating to grants in aid of pensions to retired Incumbents (hereinafter called the said Regulations), do hereby grant out of our common fund to the retired Incumbent the yearly sum of twenty pounds during the life of the retired Incumbent subject as hereinafter mentioned, such yearly sum to commence and be computed from the said seventh day of November last past, and to be paid by equal quarterly payments on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in every year, subject nevertheless to cesser, determination, withdrawal, suspension, or reduction as a grant made in accordance with the said Regulations and to all other the provisions and conditions contained in the said Regulations and applicable to a grant made in accordance therewith.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eighteenth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen.

(L. S.)

Whereas the benefice of Terrington Saint John, in the county of Norfolk and diocese of Norwich (hereinafter called the said benefice) was avoided on the fourteenth day of December instant by the retirement under the provisions of the Incumbents' Resignation Acts, 1871 and 1887, of the Reverend William John Spriggs-Smith (hereinafter called the retired Incumbent), and there was assigned to the retired Incumbent a yearly pension under the said Resignation Acts of sixty-nine pounds (hereinafter called the said pension), now we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in accordance with our Regulations dated the 30th day of May, 1907, relating to grants in aid of pensions to retired Incumbents (hereinafter called the said Regulations), do hereby grant out of our common fund first to the Incumbent of the said benefice and his successors Incumbents thereof the yearly sum of twenty pounds, and secondly to the retired Incumbent the yearly sum of thirty pounds, each of the said yearly sums so granted to continue payable so long only as the said pension shall continue payable out of the revenues of the said benefice, and to be subject as hereinafter mentioned and to commence and be computed from the said fourteenth day of December instant, and to be paid by equal quarterly payments on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in every year, subject nevertheless to cesser, determination, withdrawal, suspension or reduction as a grant made in accordance with the said Regulations and to all other the provisions and conditions contained in the said Regulations and applicable to a grant made in accordance therewith.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eighteenth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen.
