NATIONAL INSURANCE.

NATIONAL HEALTH INSURANCE.

The National Health Insurance (Outstanding Reserve Values) Order, 1914, dated January 23, 1914, made by the National Health Insurance Joint Committee under section 78 of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (1 & 2 Geo. 5, c. 55).

Whereas by section 78 of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (in this Order called "the Act"), it is amongst other things provided that if any difficulty arises in bringing Part I of the Act into operation the Insurance Commissioners (in this Order called "the Commissioners"), with the consent of the Treasury, may by Order do anything which appears to them necessary or expedient for bringing Part I of the Act into operation, and any such Order may modify the provisions of the Act so far as may appear necessary or expedient for carrying the Order into effect:

And whereas by virtue of section 83 of the Act and the National Insurance (Joint Committee) Regulations, 1912 and 1913, the National Health Insurance Joint Committee (in this Order referred to as "the Joint Committee") are to exercise and perform, either alone or jointly with the several bodies of Commissioners, as the case may require, such of the powers and duties of those bodies under section 78 of the Act as may be necessary to enable the Joint Committee to exercise and perform the several powers and duties of the Joint Committee under the Act and those Regulations:

And whereas by sub-section (1) of section 43 of the Act it is amongst other things provided that if an insured person ceases to be a member of a Society and becomes a deposit contributor, his transfer value shall be carried to his credit in the Deposit Contributors Fund, provided that if a reserve value has been credited to the Society in respect of him, such part of that reserve value as is still outstanding (or if the amount so outstanding exceeds the transfer value such part of the reserve value as is equal to the transfer value) shall be cancelled :

And whereas by sub-section (2) of the said section it is amongst other things provided that if a deposit contributor subsequently becomes a member of a Society, there shall be transferred to the Society the amount standing to his credit in the Deposit Contributors Fund, provided that if that amount exceeds the value of the contributions paid by or in respect of him estimated on the assumption that he had been a member of a Society since his entry into insurance, the excess shall not be transferred to the Society, but shall be carried to the credit of the Deposit Contributors Fund :

And whereas in a large number of cases persons who are members of Societies have become deposit contributors, and persons who were deposit contributors have become members of Approved Societies, and it has not been possible to give effect to the said recited provisions of the Act by reason of the fact that Societies have not yet been able to complete their claims for reserve values, and the several bodies of Commissioners have, in consequence, been unable to ascertain what part of the sums retained by them under sub-section (3) of section 55 of the Act is, under sub-section (4) of the said section, required for interest on the reserve values, and what sums are in accordance with the last mentioned sub-section to be written off the amount of the reserve values, and a difficulty has thereby arisen within the meaning of the said section 78 :

And whereas for the purpose of bringing into operation section 43 of the Act, it is immediately necessary to estimate sums which shall be deemed to have been written off the amount of the reserve values, under sub-section (4) of section 55 of the Act, and the sums in this Order hereinafter mentioned have been calculated in accordance with such information relating to the number and classes of insured persons as is at the present time available to the Joint Committee :

Now, therefore, the Joint Committee, in pursuance of the powers conferred on them by section 78 of the Act and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, with the consent of the Treasury, hereby order as follows:—

1.—(1) For the purpose of ascertaining under section 43 of the Act the outstanding reserve value of a member of an Approved Society who becomes a deposit contributor, and the value of the contributions of a deposit contributor who becomes a member of a Society and, generally, for the purpose of bringing section 43 of the Act into operation, there shall be deemed to have been written off the amount of the reserve values under sub-section (4) of section 55 of the Act, a sum ascertained by multiplying, in the case of a man, one half of one per cent., or, in the case of a woman, one per cent., of the appropriate reserve value by the number of quarters terminating after the date of the entry into insurance of the insured person and before the date—

(a) of his transfer from a Society to deposit insurance, or

(b) of his transfer from deposit insurance to a Society, or

(c) of his ceasing to be a member of a Society, as the case may require.

(2) For the purposes of this Order, "quarter" means the time comprised in any period of currency of a contribution card issued under the Act where that period of currency does not exceed thirteen weeks, and, in any other case, the time comprised in the first thirteen weeks of a period of currency, or the time comprised in the remaining weeks of that period, as the case may require.

2. This Order may be cited as the National Health Insurance (Outstanding Reserve Values) Order, 1914.

Given under the Seal of Office of the National Health Insurance Joint Committee this 23rd day of January, in the year one thousand nine hundred and fourteen.

R. W. Harris,

(L. S.) Clerk to the National Health Insurance Joint Committee.

We consent to this Order.
