As a passenger train, travelling about seven miles an hour, was entering Pontypool Road Railway Station, on the 13th May, 1913, a boy of fifteen fell from the platform on to the rails, when the train was only twenty yards away. Jones, who was waiting on the platform, at once jumped down, and, as there was not time to lift the boy on to the platform, lay down between the rails and the platform and held the boy on his breast until the train had passed. Neither was injured, but it is evident that the boy owes his life to the courage and presence of mind displayed by Jones.

NATIONAL INSURANCE.NATIONAL HEALTH INSURANCE.

The National Health Insurance (Preliminary Expenses) Order (Wales), 1914, dated 19th February, 1914, made by the Welsh Insurance Commissioners under Sections 78 and 82 of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (1 & 2 Geo. V, c. 55.)

Whereas by Section 78 read with Section 82 of the National Insurance Act, 1911, in this Order called "the Act," it is amongst other things provided that if any difficulty arises with respect to bringing into operation in Wales Part I of the Act, the Welsh Insurance Commissioners may, with the consent of the Treasury, by Order, do anything which appears to them necessary or expedient for bringing that part of the Act into operation in Wales, and any such Order may modify the provisions of the Act so far as may appear necessary or expedient for carrying the Order into effect:—

And whereas it is provided by the Act that the funds for defraying the expenses of administration of benefits shall be derived in certain proportions in the Act more particularly set forth from contributions from employed contributors and their employers and from monies provided by Parliament:

And whereas by sub-section (2) of Section 35 of the Act which relates to the accounts to be kept by Approved Societies and branches it is provided that Regulations made under that Section shall provide for a separate account being kept showing the amount expended on administration and for limiting the amount which may be carried to that account out of the contributions under Part I of the Act:

And whereas it is necessary, in order to bring Part I of the Act into operation in Wales, that Approved Societies and branches should be established, and for that purpose that expenses should be incurred in getting up and obtaining approval for those Societies and in forming branches thereof, and doubts have arisen as to whether it will be open to an Approved Society or branch when established to defray any expenses incurred by or on behalf of the Society or branch before approval has been obtained, or, in the case of a branch before the establishment thereof, and a difficulty has thereby arisen within the meaning of Section 78 aforesaid:

Now, therefore, the Welsh Insurance Commissioners, in pursuance of Section 78 read with Section 82 of the Act, and every other power enabling them in that behalf, with the consent of the Treasury, hereby order as follows:—

1. Any expenses reasonably incurred by an Approved Society for the purpose of becoming approved under the Act, or in repaying to any person expenses reasonably incurred by him in getting up or obtaining approval for the Society, and any expenses reasonably incurred by a branch of an Approved Society (being a branch which administers benefits under the Act) for the purpose of forming the branch or in repaying to any person the expenses of forming the branch may, if the Society or branch thinks fit, be treated as though they were expenses incurred by the Society or branch in the administration of the benefits conferred by the Act.

2.—(1) This Order may be cited as the National Health Insurance (Preliminary Expenses) Order (Wales), 1914.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

(3) The National Health Insurance (Wales) (Preliminary Expenses) Order, 1912, is hereby revoked.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Welsh Insurance Commissioners this 19th day of February, in the year one thousand nine hundred and fourteen.

Secretary to the Welsh Insurance Commissioners.

We consent to this Order,

NATIONAL INSURANCE.

NATIONAL HEALTH INSURANCE.

The National Health Insurance (Employment under Local and Public Authorities) Order (Wales), 1914, dated February 20th, 1914, made by the Welsh Insurance Commissioners under Sections 78 and 82 of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (1 & 2 Geo. V, c. 55).

Whereas by Section 78 read with Section 82 of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (in this Order called "the principal Act"), it is amongst other things provided that if any difficulty arises with respect to bringing into operation in Wales Part I of the Act, the Welsh Insurance Commissioners, with the consent of the Treasury, may, by Order, do anything which appears to them necessary or expedient for bringing that part of the Act into operation in Wales, and that any such Order may modify the provisions of the Act so far as may appear necessary or expedient for carrying the Order into effect:

And whereas by Section 6 of the National Insurance Act, 1913 (in this Order called "the amending Act"), it is provided that employment under any local or other public authority except such as may be excluded by a Special Order shall be employment within the meaning of Part I of the principal Act:

And whereas Section 6 of the amending Act came into operation on the 1st day of October, 1913:

And whereas under the National Health Insurance (Employment under Local and Public Authorities) Exclusion Order, 1913, certain classes of employment were excluded from being employment within the meaning of Part I of the principal Act:

And whereas before the 1st day of October, 1913, contributions had been paid by or in respect of persons who under the provisions of the recited Section of the amending Act have since that date been employed contributors, but doubts have arisen whether before that date such persons were employed within the meaning of Part I of the principal Act, and whether contributions were properly payable by or in respect of them:

And whereas by reason of the premises a difficulty has arisen within the meaning of Section 78 of the principal Act:

Now, therefore, the Welsh Insurance Commissioners, in pursuance of the powers conferred on them by the National Insurance Acts, 1911 to 1913, and all other powers enabling them in that behalf, with the consent of the Treasury, hereby order as follows:—

1. Where before the 1st day of October, 1913, any contributions were paid by or in respect of a person employed under any local or other public authority in any employment other than the employments excluded by the National Health Insurance (Employment under Local and Public Authorities) Exclusion Order, 1913, who, by virtue of Section 6 of the amending Act, was on or after that date an employed contributor, that person shall be deemed to have been an employed contributor within the meaning of the principal Act during any period prior to that date in which contributions were so paid by or in respect of him, and all contributions so paid shall be deemed to have been properly paid:

Provided that nothing in this Order shall impose any liability upon any local or other public authority in respect of any contributions payable before the 1st day of October, 1913, to which that authority would not have been subject if this Order had not been made.

2. This Order may be cited as the National Health Insurance (Employment under Local and Public Authorities) Order (Wales), 1914.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Welsh Insurance Commissioners this 20th day of February, in the year one thousand nine hundred and fourteen.

Secretary to the Welsh Insurance Commissioners.

We consent to this Order.
