Provided that nothing herein shall be held to abridge or take away the jurisdiction of the Court to determine whether any particular individual is or is not a subject or citizen of such Sovereign or Government, or under or claimed as being under his or their protection.

PART III.—ADMINISTRATION.

7. There shall be a High Commissioner for the Zanzibar Protectorate, and appointments to the said office shall be made by Commission under His Majesty's Sign Manual and Signet. Such High Commissioner shall act in His Majesty's name and on His behalf and represent His Majesty's Crown and authority in matters occurring within the Zanzibar Protectorate, and further shall take all such measures and do all such matters and things as in the interest of His Majesty's service he may think expedient, subject to such instructions as he may from time to time receive from His Majesty or through the Secretary of State.

8. During a vacancy in the office of the High Commissioner or in case of his absence or incapacity by reason of illness or otherwise, the powers of the High Commissioner shall be vested in such person as His Majesty may appoint under His Sign Manual and Signet or through the Secretary of State.

Where the person appointed to the office of High Commissioner is also the Governor of one of His Majesty's Colonies or Protectorates he shall not be deemed to be absent within the meaning of this Article so long as he is within the limits of the said Colony or Protectorate or is travelling between such Colony or Protectorate and Zanzibar.

9. The High Commissioner shall have an official Seal bearing the style of his office and such device as the Secretary of State approves, for sealing all things whatsoever that shall pass the said Seal.

10. There shall be an officer in the Protectorate styled "British Resident in Zanzibar" who shall be appointed by Commission under His Majesty's Sign Manual and Signet. Such officer shall be under the control and authority of the High Commissioner and shall do and execute during His Majesty's pleasure all things that belong to his office according to such instructions as he may from time to time receive from His Majesty or from the Secretary of State or from the High Commissioner.

11. Whenever and for so long as the office of British Resident is vacant or the British Resident is absent from the Protectorate or is from any cause prevented from performing the duties of his office, the person for the time being discharging the functions of Chief Secretary to Government or some other officer whom the High Commissioner may designate shall act provisionally as British Resident.

12. The British Resident shall have an official Seal bearing the style of his office and such device as the Secretary of State approves, for sealing all things whatsoever that shall pass the said Seal, and until such Seal has been provided the Seal formerly used by His Majesty's Agent and Consul-General for Zanzibar may be so used.

13. The Secretary of State or the High Commissioner, subject to the directions of the Secretary of State, may appoint or authorize the appointment of such public officers for the administration of the Protectorate under such designations as he may think fit, and may prescribe their duties.

14.—(1) The High Commissioner may, upon sufficient cause to him appearing, dismiss any public officer not appointed by virtue of a Warrant from His Majesty whose annual pensionable emoluments do not exceed fifteen hundred rupees, or one hundred pounds sterling, according as the said emoluments are fixed with reference to rupees or to pounds sterling, as the case may be, provided that in every such case the grounds of intended dismissal are definitely stated in writing and communicated to the officer in order that he may have full opportunity of exculpating himself, and that the matter is investigated by the British Resident with the aid of the head for the time being of the department in which the officer is serving.

(2) The High Commissioner or the British Resident may, upon sufficient cause to him appearing, suspend from the exercise of his office any person holding any office within the Protectorate, whether appointed by virtue of any Commission or Warrant from His Majesty or in His Majesty's name, or by any other mode of appointment. Such suspension shall continue and have effect only until His Majesty's pleasure therein shall be signified to the High Commissioner or the British Resident. If the suspension is confirmed by the Secretary of State, the High Commissioner or British Resident shall forthwith cause the officer to be so informed, and thereupon his office shall become vacant. In proceeding to any such suspension the High Commissioner or British Resident is strictly to observe the directions in that behalf given to him by any instructions from His Majesty or signified through the Secretary of State.

15. When any crime or offence has been committed in Zanzibar, in respect of which the Court for Zanzibar has jurisdiction, the British Resident may, as he shall see occasion, in His Majesty's name and on His Majesty's behalf, grant a pardon to any person subject to this Order who was an accomplice in such crime or offence and who shall give such information as shall lead to the conviction of the principal offender, or of any one of such offenders, if more than one; and further may grant to any offender convicted in the Court for Zanzibar or any Court established under this Order a pardon, either free or subject to lawful conditions, or any remission of the sentence passed on such offender, or any respite of the execution of such sentence, for such period as the British Resident shall think fit, and may remit any fines, penalties, or forfeitures due or accrued to His Majesty.

17. During a vacancy in the office of Judge, or in case of the illness or incapacity of the Judge, or of his absence from Zanzibar, the Secretary of State may appoint a fit person to act as Judge, but unless or until such appointment is made, the Assistant Judge, or if there is more than one Assistant Judge in Zanzibar, the senior Assistant Judge, shall act as Judge.

18. An Acting Judge shall, during the continuance of his appointment, have all the power and authority of the Judge.

19. During a vacancy or temporary vacancy in the office of an Assistant Judge or Magistrate, or in case of the absence, or illness, or other incapacity of an Assistant Judge or Magistrate, the High Commissioner may appoint any fit person to act as an Assistant Judge or Magistrate (as the case may be) for the time therein mentioned or during the vacancy, as the case may be; but every such appointment shall be revocable, at pleasure, by the High Commissioner.

The person so appointed shall during the continuance of his appointment have all the power and authority of an Assistant Judge or Magistrate, as the case may be.

20. The Court shall have a seal bearing the style of the Court and a device approved by the Secretary of State, and the seal in use at the commencement of this Order shall continue to be used until a new seal is provided.

Any Registrar of the Court, and any other officer of the Court designated in this behalf by the Judge, may administer oaths, and take affidavits, declarations, and affirmations.

22.—(1) The High Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary of State, may appoint subordinate Courts to be held at places in Zanzibar, and may appoint a competent person to hold any such Court, under such designation and with such remuneration as he may direct, and may assign to any such Court such jurisdiction as he may think fit, and may assign the district in and for which each such Court shall act, and may determine the description and number of the officers to be attached to any such Court and the mode of their appointment and removal, and their duties and remuneration, and any matters incident to any of the above mentioned purposes.

(2) Any person appointed under the provisions of this Article shall be removable by the High Commissioner.

(3) The Court for Zanzibar shall have within the district of any such subordinate Court an original jurisdiction concurrent with the jurisdiction thereof, and shall also have such appellate jurisdiction therefrom as may be assigned to it by the High Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary of State.

(4) During the absence, illness, or other incapacity of a person appointed to hold a subordinate Court the High Commissioner or British Resident may appoint any fit person as a substitute; but every such appointment shall be revocable at pleasure by the High Commissioner.

PART V.—GENERAL LAW.

23. Subject to the other provisions of this Order, and to any Treaties for the time being in force relating to Zanzibar, the Court shall apply to all persons subject to this Order the Decrees of the Sultan of Zanzibar, provided that they have been countersigned by the British Resident.

24. Subject to the other provisions of this Order, His Majesty's civil and criminal jurisdiction in Zanzibar shall, so far as circumstances admit, be exercised in conformity with

Provided always that the said common law doctrines of equity and statutes of general application shall be in force in Zanzibar so far only as the circumstances of the Protectorate and its inhabitants and the limits of His Majesty's jurisdiction permit, and subject to such qualifications as local circumstances render necessary.

25. The enactments described in the First Schedule to "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890," shall extend to Zanzibar as if Zanzibar were a British Colony or possession, but subject to the provisions of this Order and to the exceptions, adaptations, and modifications following, that is to say:—

(a) So much of the 4th and 5th sections of the said Act as relates to sending a report of the issue of a warrant, together with the information, or a copy thereof, or to the sending of a certificate of committal and report of a case, or to the information to be given by a Magistrate to a fugitive, shall be excepted, and in lieu of such information the person acting as the Magistrate shall inform the fugitive that in the British possession or Protectorate to which he may be conveyed he has the right to apply for a writ of habeas corpus or other like process.

(b) So much of the 6th section of the said Act as requires the expiration of fifteen days before issue of a warrant shall be excepted.

(c) The British Resident shall not be bound to return a fugitive offender to a British possession unless satisfied that the proceedings to obtain his return are taken with the consent of the Governor of that possession.

(d) For the purposes of Part II of the said Act, Zanzibar, the East Africa and Uganda Protectorates, British India, Aden, Mauritius, and all British possessions and Protectorates in Africa south of the equator shall be deemed to be one group of British possessions.

(e) When a warrant or order of arrest is issued by a competent judicial authority in the East Africa Protectorate or in the Uganda Protectorate for the apprehension of a person who is accused of crime committed in that Protectorate, and who is, or is supposed to be, within Zanzibar, and that warrant or order is produced to any Court acting under this Order, the Court may back the warrant or order, and the same, when so backed, shall be sufficient authority to any person to whom it was originally directed, and also to any constable or officer of the Court by whom it is backed, and to any person named on the back of the warrant or order, to apprehend the accused person at any place within the limits of this Order and to carry him to and deliver him up within the jurisdiction of the authority issuing the warrant or order.

26.—(1) In cases of murder or culpable homicide, if either the death or the criminal act which wholly or partly caused the death happened in Zanzibar, a Court acting under this Order shall have the like jurisdiction over any person subject to this Order who is charged either as a principal offender or as an abettor, as if both the criminal act and the death had happened in Zanzibar.

(3) In cases tried under this Article no different sentence can be passed from the sentence which could be passed in England if the offence were tried there.

(4) The foregoing provisions shall be deemed to be adaptations for the purposes of this Order and of the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890, of the following enactments, that is to say:—

The Admiralty Offences (Colonial) Act, 1849.

The Admiralty Offences (Colonial) Act, 1860.

(3) The Court shall have such appellate jurisdiction from the Criminal Courts of the Sultan of Zanzibar as may be assigned to it by decree of the Sultan, countersigned by the British Resident.

(4) The Magistrate may exercise such jurisdiction over persons subject to this Order, subject to such rights of appeal to or revision or confirmation by the Judge or one or more of the Assistant Judges of the Court, as may from time to time be provided by Decree of the Sultan, countersigned by the British Resident.

29.—(1) Subject to the provisions of Article 28 (2) of this Order, an appeal shall lie to His Majesty's Court of Appeal for Eastern Africa (in this Order referred to as "the Court of Appeal") from any finding, sentence or order recorded or passed by the Court for Zanzibar in the exercise of its original criminal jurisdiction, provided that such finding, sentence or order is appealable under the Indian Code of Criminal Procedure as applied to the Protectorate or any other law of Criminal Procedure in force in the Protectorate or any law of Criminal Procedure hereafter substituted for such code or such other law.

(2) The Court of Appeal shall not have any power of revision or appeal over or from any finding, sentence or order recorded or passed by the Court for Zanzibar in the exercise of its criminal jurisdiction other than that provided by sub-article (1) of this article, except in cases in which the Court for Zanzibar has convicted on an appeal from an acquittal.

30. Where a person entitled to appeal to the Court of Appeal from any finding, sentence or order recorded or passed in the exercise of criminal jurisdiction under this Order desires so to appeal, he shall present his Petition of appeal to the Court for Zanzibar, and the Petition shall with all practicable speed be transmitted by the Court for Zanzibar to the Court of Appeal, with certified copies of the charge (if any) and proceedings, of all documentary evidence admitted or tendered, of the depositions, of the notes of the oral testimony, and of the finding, sentence or order, and any argument on the Petition of appeal that the appellant desires to submit to the Court of Appeal.

31. The Court for Zanzibar shall postpone the execution of the sentence pending the appeal, and shall, if necessary, commit the person convicted to prison for safe custody, or detain him in prison for safe custody, or shall admit him to bail, and may take security, by recognizance, deposit of money, or otherwise, for his payment of any fine.

32.—(1) If a person subject to this Order, having appeared as prosecutor or witness at a preliminary examination, refuses to enter into a recognizance to appear at the trial to prosecute or give evidence, the Court may send him to prison, there to remain until after the trial, unless in the meantime he enters into a recognizance.

(2) But if afterwards, from want of sufficient evidence or other cause, the accused is discharged, the Court shall order that the person imprisoned for so refusing be also discharged.

33. The Court may, if it thinks fit, by general order, prescribe the manner in which and the places in Zanzibar at which sentences of imprisonment are to be carried into execution.

34.—(1) Where an offender convicted before the Court is sentenced to imprisonment, and the Court considers it expedient that the sentence shall be carried into effect elsewhere than in Zanzibar, the place shall be a place in the East Africa Protectorate, or a place in some part of His Majesty's dominions out of the United Kingdom, or in one of His Majesty's Protectorates, provided that the Government thereof consents that offenders may be sent thither under this article.

(2) The Court may, by warrant under the hand of a Judge and the seal of the Court, cause the offender to be sent to such place as aforesaid, in order that the sentence may be there carried into effect accordingly.

(3) The warrant shall be sufficient authority to any person to whom it is directed to receive and detain the person therein named, and to carry him to and deliver him up at the place named according to the warrant.

35.—(1) Where it is proved that there is reasonable ground to apprehend that a person subject to this Order is about to commit a breach of the public peace—or that the acts or conduct of a person subject to this Order are or is likely to produce or excite to a breach of the public peace—the Court may, if it thinks fit, cause him to be brought before it, and require him to give security to the satisfaction of the Court, to keep the peace, or for his future good behaviour, as the case may require.

(2) Where a person subject to this Order is convicted of an offence before the Court, the Court may, if it thinks fit, in addition to or in lieu of any other sentence, require him to give security to the satisfaction of the Court for his future good behaviour, and for that purpose may (if need be) cause him to be brought before the Court.

(3) In either of the foregoing cases, if the person required to give security fails to do so, the Court may order that he be deported from Zanzibar to such place and for such period as the Court directs.

36. Where it is shown by evidence on oath, to the satisfaction of the British Resident, that any person subject to this Order is conducting himself so as to be dangerous to peace and good order in Zanzibar, or is endeavouring to excite enmity between the Sultan or people of Zanzibar and His Majesty, or is intriguing against His Majesty's power and authority in Zanzibar or against the authority of the Sultan of Zanzibar, the British Resident, with the consent of the High Commissioner, may by order under his hand and official Seal order that person to be deported from the Protectorate to such place and for such period as he shall direct.

Provided that where such person is a foreigner no such Order shall be made by the British Resident without the concurrence in writing of the Consul of the State to which such foreigner belongs.

37.—(1) In any case of deportation under this Order, the place to which the person is ordered to be deported shall be a place in some part (if any) of His Majesty's dominions to which the person belongs, or the Government of which consents to the reception of persons deported under this Order, or a place under the protection of His Majesty, or in the country out of His Majesty's dominions to which the person belongs.

(2) An appeal shall not lie against an order of deportation made under this Order.

(3) The person to be deported shall be detained in custody until a fit opportunity for his deportation occurs.

(4) He shall, as soon as is practicable, and in the case of a person convicted, either after execution of the sentence or while it is in course of execution, be embarked in custody under the warrant of the British Resident or of the Court on board one of His Majesty's vessels of war, or, if there is no such vessel available, then on board any British or other fit vessel bound to the place of deportation.

(5) The warrant shall be sufficient authority to the commander or master of the vessel to receive and detain the person therein named, and to carry him to and deliver him up at the place named according to the warrant.

(6) If any master of a British ship, after a reasonable remuneration for the conveyance of a deported person has been tendered or paid to him, refuses or fails to carry such person to the place named, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding 750 rupees.

(7) The expenses of deportation shall be defrayed in such manner as the Secretary of State may direct: Provided that where an order of deportation is made by the Court, the Court may order the person to be deported to pay all or any part of the expenses of his deportation.

(8) An order of deportation made, either by the British Resident or the Court, shall be reported to the Secretary of State forthwith, together with a statement of the grounds on which it has been made; and if made by the Court, shall be reported in like manner to the British Resident.

(9) If any person deported under this or any former Order returns to Zanzibar without permission in writing of the Secretary of State (which permission the Secretary of State may give), he shall be guilty of an offence against this Order, punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two months, or with fine which may extend to 1,000 rupees, or to both; and he shall also be liable to be forthwith again deported.

38. Any person convicted of an offence against any Decree, Law, Order, or Regulation in force in Zanzibar, for the breach of which no penalty is provided, shall be liable to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months, or to a fine not exceeding 500 rupees, or to both.

PART VII.—CIVIL MATTERS.

39. The Court for Zanzibar shall have full civil jurisdiction over all persons subject to this Order.

40. The Court for Zanzibar shall hear and determine all civil questions, claims, or disputes arising between any Zanzibar subject and any person subject to this Order, whether the former is either plaintiff or defendant.

41. Unless otherwise expressly provided by any law for the time being in force in Zanzibar, an appeal shall lie from the Decrees or any part of the Decrees and from the Orders of the Court for Zanzibar to the Court of Appeal.

42. Where any person entitled to appeal to the Court of Appeal from any Decree or Order made by the Court for Zanzibar in the exercise of civil jurisdiction under this Order desires so to appeal, he shall give security to the satisfaction of the Court, and to such amount as the Court thinks reasonable, for prosecution of the appeal, and for payment of any costs that may be ordered by the Court of Appeal on the appeal to be paid by the appellant, and shall comply with such terms and conditions and take such steps as shall be prescribed by Rules of Court.

43.—(1) The Court shall endeavour to obtain, as early as may be, notice of the death of every person subject to this Order dying and leaving property to be administered, and all such information as may serve to guide the Court with respect to the securing and administration of his property.

(2) On receiving notice of the death of such a person, the Court shall put up a Notice thereof at the Court-house, and shall keep the same there until probate or administration is granted, or, where it appears to the Court that probate or administration will not be applied for, or cannot be granted, for such time as the Court thinks fit.

(3) The Court shall, where the circumstances of the case appear so to require, as soon as may be, take possession of the property in Zanzibar of the deceased, or put it under the seal of the Court (in either case, if the nature of the property or other circumstances so require, making an inventory), and so keep it until it can be dealt with according to law.

(4) All expenses incurred by the Court in so doing shall be the first charge on the property of the deceased, and the Court shall, by sale of the property or part thereof, or otherwise, provide for the discharge of these expenses.

44. When a person subject to this Order dies intestate, his property shall, until administration is granted, vest in the Judge.

45. If any person named executor in a will takes possession of, and administers or otherwise deals with, any part of the property of the deceased, and does not obtain probate within one month after the death or after the termination of any proceeding respecting probate or administration, he shall be liable to pay double the amount of the fee chargeable on obtaining probate, and he shall also be liable to a fine not exceeding 1,000 rupees.

46. The production of a grant of probate or of letters of administration shall, in all cases, be necessary to establish the right to recover any part of the estate or effects of any deceased person subject to this Order situate in Zanzibar.

47. If any person other than the person named executor, or the administrator, or an officer of the Court, takes possession of and administers, or otherwise deals with, any part of the property of the deceased, he shall, as soon as practicable, notify the fact and the circumstances to the Court, and shall furnish to the Court all such information as the Court requires, and shall conform to any directions of the Court in relation to the custody, disposal, or transmission of the property, or the proceeds thereof, and, in case of any contravention of this Article, he shall be liable to pay double the amount of the fee chargeable on obtaining probate or letters of administration, and shall also be liable to a fine not exceeding 1,000 rupees.

48.—(1) When the peculiar circumstances of the case appear to the Court so to require, for reasons recorded in its proceedings, the Court may, if it thinks fit, of its own motion, or otherwise, grant letters of administration to an officer or practitioner of the Court or to such other person as it may think fit.

(2) The person so appointed shall act under the direction of the Court, and shall be indemnified thereby; and if he is a practitioner shall not act otherwise than as administrator in relation to the estate.

(3) He shall publish such notices, if any, as the Court thinks fit, in Zanzibar or elsewhere.

(4) The Court shall require and compel him to file, in the proper office of the Court, his accounts of his administration, at intervals, not exceeding three months.

(5) The accounts shall be audited under the direction of the Court.

(6) All expenses incurred in behalf of the Court in execution of this Article shall be the first charge on the estate of the deceased in Zanzibar; and the Court shall, by the sale of the estate, or otherwise, provide for the discharge of those expenses.

49. All real or immovable property situate in Zanzibar, and belonging at the time of his death to any person subject to this Order, dying after the commencement of this Order, shall be deemed to be personal estate, and the devolution thereof, in case of intestacy, shall be regulated according to the law of the person's domicile for the time being relating to personal estate or movable property.

50.—(1) Where a Court of Probate in the United Kingdom, or in any British possession to which "The Colonial Probates Act, 1892," for the time being extends, has granted probate or letters of administration or confirmation in respect of the estate of a deceased person, the probate, letters or confirmation so granted may, on being produced to, and a copy thereof deposited with, the Court, be sealed with the seal of the Court, and thereupon shall be of the like force and effect, and have the same operation as if granted by the Court.

(2) Provided that the Court shall, before sealing any probate, letters or confirmation under this section, be satisfied either that all probate or estate duty has been paid in respect of so much of the estate situate in Zanzibar as is liable to such duty, or that security has been given in a sum sufficient to cover the property (if any) in Zanzibar, and may require such evidence (if any) as it thinks fit as to the domicile of the deceased person.

(3) The Court may also, if it thinks fit, on the application of any creditor, require, before sealing, that adequate security be given for the payment of debts due from the estate to creditors residing in Zanzibar.

(4) For the purposes of this Article, a duplicate of any probate, letters of administration or confirmation, sealed with the seal of the Court granting the same, or a copy thereof certified as correct by or under the authority of the Court granting the same, shall have the same effect as the original.

51. Where it appears to the Court that the value of the property or estate of a deceased person does not exceed £50, the Court may, notwithstanding anything contained in this Order, without any probate or letters of administration, or other formal proceeding, pay thereout any debts or charges, and pay, remit, or deliver any surplus to such persons, subject to such conditions (if any) as the Court thinks proper, and shall not be liable to any action, suit or proceedings in respect of anything done under this Article. Every proceeding of the Court under this Article shall be recorded in the Minutes.

PART VIII.—MISCELLANEOUS.

52.—(1) Where it is proved that the attendance of any person subject to this Order to give evidence, or for any other purpose connected with the administration of justice, is required before a Court of the Sultan of Zanzibar, the Court for Zanzibar may, if it thinks fit, in a case and in circumstances in which the Court for Zanzibar would require the attendance of that person before the Court, order that he do attend as required. The order may be made subject to conditions as to payment or tender of expenses or otherwise.

(2) If the person ordered to attend, having reasonable notice of the time and place at which he is required to attend, fails to attend accordingly, and does not excuse his failure to the satisfaction of the Court for Zanzibar, or if, when so attending to give evidence, he wilfully gives false evidence, or refuses to be sworn or to give evidence, he shall, independently of any other liability, be liable to be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two months, or with fine which may extend to 1,000 rupees, or with both.

53. If a person subject to this Order—

(1) Wilfully obstructs, by act or threat, any Court of the Sultan of Zanzibar in the performance of its duty; or

(2) Within or close to the room or place where such a Court is sitting, wilfully misbehaves in a violent, threatening or disrespectful manner, to the disturbance of the Court or to the intimidation of suitors or others resorting to the Court; or

(3) Wilfully insults any member or officer of such a Court in his going to, or returning from, any place of sitting or office of the Court;

He shall, on conviction before the Court for Zanzibar, be liable to be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two months, or with fine which may extend to 1,000 rupees, or with both.

54.—(1) Every agreement for reference to arbitration between a person subject to this Order, on the one hand, and a person not subject to this Order, on the other hand, may, on the application of any party, be filed for execution in the proper office of the Court.

(2) The Court shall thereupon have authority to enforce the agreement and the Award made thereunder, and to control and regulate the proceedings before and after the Award, in such manner and on such terms as the Court may think fit.

(3) If a person subject to this Order wilfully gives false evidence in an arbitration, he shall on conviction before the Court for Zanzibar be liable to the same punishment as if he were convicted of giving false evidence in a proceeding in that Court.

55.—(1) A non-testamentary instrument to which a person subject to this Order is a party, executed after the 28th day of November, 1893, and purporting or operating to create, declare, assign, limit, or extinguish, whether in present or in future, any right, title, or interest, whether vested or contingent to, in, or over immovable property situate in Zanzibar, shall not affect any immovable property comprised therein, or be received as evidence of any transaction affecting that property, unless—

(a) If the instrument was executed before the fourth day of November, 1908, it has been registered at the registration office of the Zanzibar Government, or at His Majesty's Consulate, or at some other Consulate in accordance with the rules, if any, applicable to the registration of such instruments;

(b) If the instrument was executed after the fourth day of November, 1908, it has been registered in accordance with the Decrees of the Sultan of Zanzibar in force for the time being.

(2) Provided that nothing in this Article shall make any instrument inadmissible in evidence in any criminal proceeding.

56. The Judge may make Rules of Court—

(a) For regulating the pleading, practice and procedure in the Courts established under this Order with respect to all matters within the jurisdiction of the respective Courts;

(b) For regulating the practice where any party wishes to appeal;

(c) For regulating the means by which particular facts may be proved in the said Courts;

(d) For prescribing any forms to be used;

(e) For prescribing or regulating the duties of the officers of the said Courts;

(f) For prescribing scales of costs and regulating any matters in connection therewith;

(g) For prescribing and enforcing the fees to be taken in respect of any proceedings under this Order;

(h) For prescribing the allowances to be made in criminal cases to complainants, witnesses, jurors, assessors, interpreters, medical practitioners, and other persons employed in the administration of justice, and the conditions upon which an Order may be made by the Court for such allowances;

(i) For taking and transmitting depositions of witnesses for use at trials in a British possession or in the United Kingdom;

(k) For regulating the mode in which legal practitioners are to be admitted to practice as such, and for withdrawing or suspending the right to practise on grounds of misconduct, subject to a right of appeal to the Court of Appeal.

Where under any Act of Parliament which is applicable to Zanzibar Rules may or are required to be made in England by the Lord

Chancellor or any Judicial authority, the powers of this Article shall include a power to make such Rules for the purposes of that Act so far as applicable.

Rules framed under this Article shall not have effect until approved by the Secretary of State; but in case of urgency declared in any such Rules, with the approval of the British Resident, the same shall have effect unless and until they are disapproved by the Secretary of State, and notification of such disapproval is recorded and published by the Judge.

Until such Rules have been made, or in relation to matters to which they do not extend, the Court may follow and employ any Rules practice or forms heretofore in use in the Court and in force immediately before the commencement of this Order, with any modifications or adaptations which may be necessary.

57. The Court may, in any case, if it thinks fit, on account of the poverty of a party, or for any other reason, to be recorded in the Minutes, dispense with or remit the payment of any fee in whole or in part.

58.—(1) Payment of fees payable under any Rules to be made in pursuance of this Order, and of costs and of charges and expenses of witnesses, prosecutions, punishments, and deportations, and of other charges and expenses, and of fines respectively payable under this Order, may be enforced under order of the Court by seizure and sale of goods, and, in default of sufficient goods, by imprisonment as a civil prisoner for a term not exceeding one month, but such imprisonment shall not operate as a satisfaction or extinguishment of the liability.

(2) Any bill of sale or mortgage, or transfer of property made with a view of avoiding seizure or sale of goods or ship under any provision of this Order, shall not be effectual to defeat the provisions of this Order.

59.—(1) The British Resident may countersign any Decrees made by the Sultan of Zanzibar in the exercise of his authority over his dominions, and such Decrees shall thereupon become binding on all persons subject to this Order.

(2) The British Resident shall observe any general or special instructions of the Secretary of State with reference to the submission of any Decrees issued or proposed to be issued by the Sultan to the Secretary of State before so countersigning them; but nothing in this provision shall affect the validity of a Decree when countersigned by the British Resident.

(3) The British Resident shall, at the first available opportunity, transmit to the Secretary of State an authenticated copy of any Decree of the Sultan countersigned by him.

(4) The British Resident may at any time publish a notice that his counter-signature to any Decree published by the Sultan is revoked, and such Decree shall then cease to be binding on all persons subject to this Order accordingly.

60. Subject to the other provisions of this Order, all expenses of removal of prisoners and others, and the expenses of deportation and of the sending of any person to any part of His Majesty's dominions or Protectorates, including expenses of maintenance, shall be defrayed in such manner as the Secretary of State directs.

61.—(1) If an officer of the Court employed to execute an order loses, by neglect or omission, the opportunity of executing it, then, on complaint of the person aggrieved and proof of the fact alleged, the Court may, if it thinks fit, order the officer to pay the damages sustained by the person complaining, or part thereof.

(2) The order may be enforced as an order directing payment of money.

62.—(1) If a clerk or officer of the Court, acting under pretence of the process of authority of the Court, is charged with extortion, or with not paying over money duly levied, or with other misconduct, the Court may, if it thinks fit, inquire into the charge in a summary way, and may for that purpose summon and enforce the attendance of all necessary persons as in an action, and may make such order for the repayment of any money extorted, or for the payment over of any money levied, and for the payment of such damages and costs, as the Court thinks fit.

(2) The Court may also, if it thinks fit, on the same inquiry, impose on the clerk or officer a fine not exceeding 50 rupees for each offence.

(3) A clerk or officer punished under this Article, shall not, without the leave of the Court, be liable to an action in respect of the same matter; and any such action, if already or afterwards begun, may be stayed by the Court in such manner and on such terms as the Court thinks fit.

(4) Nothing in this Article shall be deemed to prevent any person from being prosecuted under any other law for any act or omission punishable under this Article, or from being liable under that other law to any higher punishment or penalty than that provided by this Article. Provided that no person shall be punished twice for the same offence.

PART IX.—REPEAL AND TRANSITORY PROVISIONS.

63. On the commencement of this Order, the following Orders in Council shall be repealed, that is to say—

(2) Every appointment of a Judge or other officer and every Court established and existing at the commencement of this Order, shall, until other provision is made, continue to be as if this Order had not been passed.

(3) All legal proceedings begun under the

(4) All regulations and rules made under the said repealed Orders shall remain in force until otherwise provided by Decree of the Sultan, countersigned by the British Resident.

64.—(1) Until other provision is made by Decree of the Sultan of Zanzibar, countersigned by the British Resident, and subject to the other provisions of this Order, the Code of Criminal Procedure and the other enactments relating to the administration of criminal justice in India applicable to Zanzibar, shall have effect as if Zanzibar were a District and an Assistant Judge the Magistrate of the District, and the Judge the Sessions Judge; the Court of Appeal shall be deemed to be the High Court; and the powers both of the Governor-General in Council and of the Local Government under those enactments shall be exercisable by the Secretary of State, or, with his previous or subsequent assent, by the High Commissioner.

(2) Provided, however, that no sentence of death passed by the Court for Zanzibar shall require confirmation by the Court of Appeal.

65. Until other provision is made by Decree of the Sultan of Zanzibar, countersigned by the British Resident, and subject to the other provisions of this Order, the Code of Civil Procedure, the Indian Succession Act, and the other enactments relating to the administration of civil justice in India applicable to Zanzibar, shall have effect as if Zanzibar were a District, and the Judge the District Judge, and the Assistant Judge the Joint District Judge of the District, and the Court for Zanzibar the District Court or Principal Civil Court of Original Jurisdiction in the District; the Court of Appeal shall be deemed to be the highest Civil Court of Appeal for the District, and the Court authorized to hear appeals from and to revise the decisions of the District Court; and the powers, both of the Governor-General in Council and the Local Government, under those enactments, shall be exercisable by the Secretary of State, or, with his previous or subsequent assent, by the High Commissioner.

66.—(1) This Order shall commence and have effect on such day as may be fixed by notification by the Secretary of State published in the London Gazette.

(2) A notice shall be published at Zanzibar by the British Resident, specifying the date on which the Secretary of State has appointed that the said Order shall commence.

(3) From and after the issue of such notice the Judge of the Court of Zanzibar shall, on receipt of a copy of the said Order, affix the same in a conspicuous place in the public office of the said Court, and keep the same exhibited for such a period as the British Resident shall direct.

(4) Proof shall not in any proceeding or matter be required that the provisions of paragraphs (2) and (3) of this Article have been complied with, nor shall any act or proceeding be invalidated by any failure to comply with any of such provisions.

And the Right Honourable Lewis Harcourt, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein.

(2) Every judgment decree, rule or order of the former Court which shall have been duly perfected at any time before the commencement of this Order may be executed and enforced and, if necessary, amended or discharged by the Court of Appeal in the same manner as if it had been a judgment decree, rule or order of the said Court of Appeal:

(3) All Appeals, matters and proceedings whatsoever, whether civil or criminal, which shall be pending in the former Court at the commencement of this Order shall be continued and concluded before the Court of Appeal according to the form and manner of procedure of the said Court of Appeal.

6. This Order shall commence and have effect on such day as may be fixed by notification by the Secretary of State, published in the London Gazette.

1. And whereas it is expedient (1) in order that the County Borough of Southend-on-Sea may by itself constitute a separate Sub-district of Rochford Registration District, that (a) the part of that County Borough and Civil Parish, which prior to the 9th November last, the date when the Southend-on-Sea Corporation Act, 1913, took effect, formed part of Eastwood Civil Parish, should be transferred from Rochford Sub-district of Rochford Registration District to Prittlewell Sub-district of the same Registration District; (b) the rural Civil Parishes of Sutton and Shopland should be transferred from Prittlewell Sub-district to Rochford Sub-district, and (2) that Prittlewell Sub-district as thus altered should be re-named Southend-on-Sea Sub-district;

2. Now, therefore, I, Bernard Mallet, C.B., Registrar-General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages in England, in exercise of the powers given me by the above mentioned Act, and with the sanction of the Local Government Board, do hereby order and declare that the foregoing alteration shall take effect accordingly.
