NATIONAL INSURANCE.

NATIONAL HEALTH INSURANCE.

The National Health Insurance (Transfer of Deposit Contributors) Order, 1914, dated April 27, 1914, made by the Insurance Commissioners under section 78 of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (1 & 2 Geo. V, c. 55).

Whereas this Order is intended to be supplemental (i.) to the National Health Insurance (Transfer of Deposit Contributors) Order, 1913, whereby it was provided that where during the period of twelve months from the 15th day of July, 1912, any deposit contributor became a member of an approved society, there should be transferred in respect of him from the Deposit Contributors Fund (therein referred to as the "Post Office Fund") to the society the amount (if any) standing to his credit in the Deposit Contributors Fund, after a deduction therefrom of any sums, which, if he had been a member of an approved society, would have been retained for the purpose of discharging the liabilities of the Insurance Commissioners in respect of reserve values, and that he should for the purposes of section 55 of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (therein and in this Order referred to as "the Act") be deemed to have become a member of the society as from the date of his entry in insurance, and (ii.) to the National Health Insurance (Transfer of Deposit Contributors) Order, 1913 (No.

2) whereby it was provided that where no account had been opened in the Deposit Contributors Fund (therein referred to as the "Post Office Fund") in the name of any person who had become or was deemed to have become a deposit contributor, that person might, if he joined an approved society before the 15th day of July, 1913, be treated in all respects and for all purposes as a member of the society as from the date on which he would but for that Order have become or be deemed to have become a deposit contributor:

And whereas for the reasons more particularly set forth in the second of the above-mentioned Orders a difficulty has arisen in regard to deposit contributors becoming members of approved societies, and with a view of facilitating the necessary transfers and adjustments in respect of persons who have become members after the 15th day of July, 1913, it is expedient for the purpose of bringing into operation Part I of the Act that the provisions of those Orders should be made applicable to those persons:

Now, therefore, the Insurance Commissioners, in pursuance of the powers conferred on them by section 78 of the Act and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, with the consent of the Treasury, hereby order as follows:—

1.—(1) The National Health Insurance (Transfer of Deposit Contributors) Order, 1913, shall be read and have effect as if for the period of twelve months from the 15th day of July, 1912, therein mentioned there were substituted the period from the 15th day of July, 1912, to the date of this Order, and any deposit contributor who has become a member of a society within the above-mentioned period shall for the purpose of reckoning his arrears be deemed to have been a member of the society from the date of his entry into insurance.

(2) The National Health Insurance (Transfer of Deposit Contributors) Order, 1913 (No. 2) shall be read and have effect as if for the 15th day of July, 1913, there were substituted the date of this Order.

2. The National Health Insurance (Transfer of Deposit Contributors) Order, 1913 (No. 2) as amended by this Order shall apply and shall be deemed always to have applied in the case of every seaman, marine, or soldier as if the Navy and Army Insurance Fund were an approved society.

3. This Order may be cited as the National Health Insurance (Transfer of Deposit Contributors) Order, 1914, and shall be read as one with the two Orders above mentioned, and those Orders and this Order may together be cited as the National Health Insurance (Transfer of Depositor Contributors) Orders, 1913 and 1914.

Given under the Seal of Office of the aforesaid Insurance Commissioners this 27th day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and fourteen.

(L. S.)

John Anderson,

Secretary to the Insurance Commissioners.

We consent to this Order.

Henry Webb,
William Jones,

Two of the Lords Commissioners of
His Majesty's Treasury.
