

and eighty-three pounds or thereabouts, arising from tithe rent charge, glebe, fees, amounts payable by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England and by the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty, and from other sources, of which amount seventy-one pounds or thereabouts arises from tithe rent charge within the chapelry of Rudry.

"That it appears to me that under the provisions of the said Act of Parliament and of the Act of the second and third years of the same reign, chapter 49, the said chapelry of Rudry may be advantageously separated from the said parish of Bedwas and be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes and a perpetual curacy and benefice to be called 'the Perpetual Curacy of Rudry.'

"I, by virtue of my Bishopric, am the patron of the said benefice of Bedwas with Rudry, and the Reverend George Thomas is the present Incumbent thereof.

"That pursuant to the directions contained in the twenty-sixth section of the first-mentioned Act of Parliament I, the said Lord Bishop, have drawn up a Scheme in writing appended to this Representation describing the mode in which it appears to me the separation may best be effected, and how the changes consequent thereon in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, dues, rates and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested. And I do hereby submit the same to your Grace, together with the Consents thereto in writing of myself as such patron as aforesaid and of the said Incumbent of the said benefice to the intent that if your Grace shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with such Scheme, you may certify the same and such Consents as aforesaid to His Majesty in Council."

And whereas the said Scheme drawn up by the said Bishop and the Consents referred to in the said Representation are as follows:—

"SCHEME.

"It is proposed to separate the chapelry of Rudry from the rectory and parish church of Bedwas and to constitute the same a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes and a benefice by the name and style of 'the Perpetual Curacy of Rudry,' of which the said church or chapel in the said chapelry shall be the parish church.

"The said separate parish and benefice shall henceforth be subject to the same ecclesiastical jurisdiction as the said parish of Bedwas, and the Incumbent of the said separate parish and benefice shall have sole and exclusive cure of souls within the limits of the same.

"That the whole of the tithe rent charge belonging to or arising out of the chapelry of Rudry, and the glebe lands belonging to the same and all other endowments, profits, ecclesiastical dues, offerings, or emoluments whatsoever situate or arising within or in respect of the said chapelry shall henceforth belong to and be attached to the separate parish and perpetual curacy of Rudry for ever, and be held, received, and enjoyed by the Incumbent thereof for the time being.

"That there shall be charged upon the income of the benefice of Bedwas an annual sum or charge amounting to sixty pounds in favour of the benefice or perpetual curacy of Rudry, to be received and enjoyed by the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Rudry for ever, such annual sum or charge to be due and payable by the Incumbent for the time being of the benefice of Bedwas on the first day of January and the first day of July in every year, and that the Incumbent for the time being of the benefice or perpetual curacy of Rudry shall, for recovering the sum or charge so proposed to be made annually payable to him as such Incumbent, have as against the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Bedwas all such remedies and powers as may by the law then in force be had for the recovery of a debt.

"That baptisms, churchings, marriages and burials shall as heretofore be performed in the church of the benefice so to be constituted, and that the fees for all such offices performed within the limits of the said benefice and all ecclesiastical dues, offerings and other emoluments arising from or in respect of the said benefice and usually payable to the Incumbent of a benefice shall belong to the Incumbent for the time being of the said intended benefice or perpetual curacy of Rudry.

"That two churchwardens shall be appointed in the usual way for the said separate parish of Rudry.

"That the inhabitants of the said separate parish of Rudry shall not be entitled to any accommodation in the said church of Bedwas (except nevertheless any person or persons possessing a legal right by Faculty or otherwise, and who may not be willing to relinquish the same), nor shall the inhabitants of the said parish of Bedwas be entitled to any accommodation in the said church or chapel of Rudry, and the inhabitants of the said separate parish of Rudry shall be exonerated from all liability to repair the church of Bedwas, but shall be entitled to accommodation in the parish church of the said separate parish of Rudry, and shall be liable, subject to the provisions of the Compulsory Rates Abolition Act, 1868, to the repairs of the same.

"That the patronage or right of nomination of or to the said proposed separate benefice of Rudry shall belong to and be vested in the Lord Bishop of Llandaff and his successors for ever."

"CONSENTS.

"We, Joshua Pritchard, Lord Bishop of Llandaff, by virtue of our Bishopric being the patron or person entitled to present to the benefice of Bedwas with Rudry (in case the same were now vacant), and the Reverend George Thomas, the Incumbent of the same benefice, do hereby signify to your Grace our respective Consents to the Scheme above proposed and set forth, and to every matter and thing therein contained.

"In testimony whereof we have hereunto set our hands this thirtieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen.

"J. P. LLANDAFF.

"GEORGE THOMAS."

And whereas the said Scheme hath been transmitted by the said Bishop to the said Archbishop for his consideration.

And whereas the said Archbishop, being satisfied with the said Scheme, hath certified the same and the Consents aforesaid to His Majesty in Council by his report dated the
