

"CONSENTS.

"We, Edward Prince of Wales, Duke of Cornwall, patron of the rectory of Lydford, and I, the Reverend George Smith Thorpe, Clerk, rector of the said rectory, and we, Walter Plimpton, Henry William Hill, and Guilbert Edward Wyndham Malet, patrons of the said rectory of Mary Tavy, and I, Irvine Kempt Anderson, Clerk, rector of the said rectory of Mary Tavy, do hereby respectively signify to your Grace our consent to the scheme above proposed for separating the Mary Tavy lands from the parish of Mary Tavy, and annexing them for all ecclesiastical purposes to the parish of Lydford, and to every matter and thing therein contained.

"EDWARD P.
 "GEORGE SMITH THORPE.
 "IRVINE KEMPT ANDERSON.
 "WALTER PLIMPTON.
 "HENRY WM. HILL.
 "G. E. W. MALET."

And whereas the said Scheme hath been transmitted by the said Bishop to the Archbishop for his consideration;

And whereas the said Archbishop, being satisfied with the said Scheme, hath certified the same and the Consents aforesaid to His Majesty in Council by his report dated the 7th day of October, 1913, which said report is in the words and figures following:—

"We, the undersigned, Randall Thomas Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, do hereby represent to Your Majesty in Council.

"That the Right Reverend Archibald, Lord Bishop of Exeter, has represented unto us (amongst other things):

"That there is in the county of Devon and his diocese of Exeter the parish of Lydford.

"That there is also in the same county and diocese the parish of Mary Tavy.

"That the lands delineated on the plan annexed to the Scheme of the said Lord Bishop appended hereto and surrounded with a blue line constitute a portion of the said parish of Lydford, and the lands surrounded with a red line on the same plan form part of the parish of Mary Tavy, and are thereafter called 'the Mary Tavy lands.'

"That it appears to the said Lord Bishop that under the Pluralities Act, 1838, the 'Mary Tavy lands' may be advantageously separated from the parish of Mary Tavy and annexed for ecclesiastical purposes to the said parish of Lydford, to which they are contiguous.

"That pursuant to the directions contained in the said Act the said Lord Bishop has drawn up a Scheme in writing describing the mode in which it appears to him that the proposed alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent upon such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithe rent charges and other ecclesiastical dues, rates and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews may be made with justice to all parties interested, which Scheme, together with the Consents thereto in writing of His Royal Highness Edward Prince of Wales, Duke of Cornwall, the patron of the rectory of Lydford, the Reverend George Smith Thorpe, rector of the said rectory, Walter Plimpton, Henry William Hill, and Guilbert Edward Wyndham Malet, patrons of the said rectory of Mary Tavy, and Irvine Kempt Anderson, rector of the said rectory, has been transmitted to us for our consideration.

"The Representation and Scheme of the said Lord Bishop and the Consents above referred to are hereunto annexed.

"And we, the said Archbishop, being, on full consideration and inquiry, satisfied with the said Scheme, do hereby, pursuant to the said Pluralities Act, 1838, certify the same and such Consents as aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council, to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do, make and issue an Order for carrying the said Scheme into effect.

"RANDALL CANTUAR."

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said Scheme be carried into effect.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 14th day of May, 1914.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section 26 of the Pluralities Act, 1838, after reciting that "Whereas in some instances tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may, in some instances, with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That when with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop, that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place or district within the diocese of such Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church, and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes; and the said Archbishop, or Bishop, shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the said Archbishop for his consideration) describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the
