

parish of Wootton Wawen and the Incumbent of the said separate parish and benefice shall have sole and exclusive cure of souls within the limits of the same.

"The fees for marriages, churchings and all other ecclesiastical dues arising from the said parish shall belong to the Incumbent of the same.

"The right of nominating a Minister or Incumbent to the church of such perpetual curacy and benefice shall be for ever vested in and be exercised by the High Bailiff for the time being of the township of Henley-in-Arden aforesaid.

"The glebe lands, situate in the parishes of Ullenhall and Beaudesert, in the said county of Warwick, and acquired for the endowment of the said chapelry and township by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor clergy, part of such glebe lands being numbered 175, 179, and 180 on the Ordnance Map (2nd Edition, 1905) for the said parish of Ullenhall, and the remainder being numbered 139, 140, and 151 on the Ordnance Map (same Edition) for the said parish of Beaudesert, and having a total acreage of twenty-one acres three roods and thirty-six perches or thereabouts, shall be assigned to and vested in the Incumbent of the said separate parish of Henley-in-Arden.

"All endowments and other emoluments at present belonging to or enjoyed by the Incumbent of the said chapel shall henceforth be vested in and belong to the Incumbent of the said separate parish of Henley-in-Arden.

"The inhabitants of the said separate parish shall not be entitled to any accommodation in the parish church of Wootton Wawen (except nevertheless any person or persons possessing a legal right by faculty or otherwise to any pew or sitting within the said church, and who may not be willing to relinquish the same) and shall be exonerated from all liability to repair the same, but shall be entitled to accommodation in the parish church of the said separate parish, and shall be liable, subject to the provisions of the Compulsory Church Rates Abolition Act, 1868, to the repairs of the said church.

"The inhabitants of the said separate parish shall retain such rights of burial as they now possess in the graveyard attached to the parish church of Wootton Wawen until such time as a graveyard or burial ground shall be provided for the said separate parish, after which they shall not be entitled to any right of burial in the said graveyard of Wootton Wawen (except nevertheless any person or persons possessing a legal right of burial therein by faculty).

" CONSENTS.

"We, the Provost and Scholars of the King's College of Our Lady and St. Nicholas, in Cambridge, being the patrons or body corporate entitled to present to the benefice of Wootton Wawen in case the same were now vacant, and the Reverend Francis Thomas Bramston, the Incumbent of the same benefice, do hereby respectively signify to your Grace our respective consents to the scheme above proposed, and set forth, and to every matter and thing therein contained.

"In testimony whereof we have hereunto set our hands, this thirty-first day of December, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen.

(L. S.)

CHARLES E. GRANT, Bursar, Patrons of Wootton Wawen.

F. T. BRAMSTON, Incumbent of Wootton Wawen."

And whereas the said Scheme hath been transmitted by the said Bishop to the said Archbishop for his consideration:

And whereas the said Archbishop, being satisfied with the said Scheme, hath certified the same and the Consents aforesaid to His Majesty in Council by his Report, dated the 3rd day of February, 1914, which said Report is in the words and figures following:—

"We, the undersigned, Randall Thomas, Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, do hereby report to Your Majesty in Council.

"That the Right Reverend Huyshe, by Divine permission Lord Bishop of Worcester, has represented unto us amongst other things.

"That there is in the county of Warwick and his diocese of Worcester the vicarage of Wootton Wawen, the parish whereof comprises (amongst other places) the chapelry and township of Henley-in-Arden, and that the said chapelry and township contains a consecrated church or chapel long since erected and dedicated to Saint John the Baptist, distant from the parish church of Wootton Wawen two miles or thereabouts.

"That it appears to the said Lord Bishop that the said chapelry and township may, under the provisions of the Act of Parliament of the first and second years of the reign of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, cap. 106, and of the Act of the second and third years of the same reign, cap. 49, be advantageously separated from the said parish of Wootton Wawen and be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes, and a perpetual curacy and benefice to be called 'The Perpetual Curacy of Henley-in-Arden.'

"That pursuant to the directions contained in the twenty-sixth section of the said first-mentioned Act of Parliament the said Lord Bishop has drawn up a Scheme in writing describing the mode in which it appears to him the alterations above proposed may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alterations in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithe rentcharges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews may be made with justice to all parties interested, which Scheme, together with the consents thereto in writing of the Provost and Scholars of the King's College of Our Lady and St. Nicholas, in Cambridge, the patrons or body corporate entitled to present to the said benefice of Wootton Wawen in case the same were now vacant, and of the Reverend Francis Thomas Bramston, the Incumbent of the same benefice, has been transmitted to us for our consideration.

"The Representation and Scheme of the said Lord Bishop and the Consents above referred to are hereunto annexed.

"And we, the said Archbishop, being on full consideration and inquiry satisfied with the said Scheme, do hereby, pursuant to the Pluralities Act, 1838, certify the same and such Consents as aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in
