

Council may, in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do, make and issue an Order for carrying the said Scheme into effect.

"And we recommend that the glebe lands situate in the parishes of Ullenhall and Beaudesert, in the said county of Warwick, and acquired for the endowment of the said chapelry and township by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the Poor Clergy, part of such glebe lands being numbered 175, 179, and 180 on the Ordnance Map (2nd Edition, 1905) for the said parish of Ullenhall, and the remainder being numbered 139, 140, and 151 on the Ordnance Map (same edition) for the said parish of Beaudesert, and having a total acreage of twenty-one acres three roods and thirty-six perches or thereabouts, shall be assigned to and be vested in the Incumbent of the said separate parish of Henley-in-Arden.

"RANDALL CANTUAR."

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said Scheme be carried into effect.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 14th day of May, 1914.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section 26 of the Pluralities Act, 1838, after reciting that "Whereas in some instances tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may, in some instances, with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That when with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop, that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place or district within the diocese of such Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church, and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes; and the said Archbishop, or Bishop, shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the said Archbishop for his consideration) describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof, as the said Archbishop may approve, and the said Archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to His Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

And whereas the Right Reverend Huyshe, Lord Bishop of Worcester, hath, pursuant to the enactment aforesaid, made a Representation in writing, dated the 29th day of January, 1914, to the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Randall Thomas, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, as follows:—

"I, Huyshe, by Divine permission Bishop of Worcester, do, in pursuance of the twenty-sixth section of an Act of Parliament of the first and second years of the reign of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, cap. 106, hereby represent to your Grace as follows:—

"1. There is in the county of Warwick and my diocese of Worcester the vicarage of Wootton Wawen, the parish whereof contains, according to the Census of one thousand nine hundred and eleven, a population of five hundred and thirty-four, exclusive of the chapelry and township of Henley-in-Arden at present being formed into a separate parish under the said Act of Parliament.

"2. The net annual value of the said benefice (exclusive of the said chapelry and township) arising from tithe rentcharge, glebe, fees and Easter dues is two hundred pounds or thereabouts.

"3. There is in the county and diocese aforesaid the vicarage of Ullenhall, the parish whereof contains, according to the Census of one thousand nine hundred and eleven, a population of four hundred and eighty.

"4. The net annual value of the said benefice arising from tithe dividends from the Ecclesiastical Commissioners and other sources is one hundred and sixty-five pounds or thereabouts.

"5. There is in the county and diocese aforesaid the rectory of Beaudesert (adjacent to the said parishes of Wootton Wawen and Ullenhall), the parish whereof contains, according to the Census of one thousand nine hundred and eleven, a population of one hundred and eighty-seven.

"6. The net annual value of the said benefice arising from tithe, ground rents and other sources is three hundred and sixteen pounds or thereabouts.

"7. It appears to me that a certain detached portion of the said parish of Wootton Wawen, situate near Buckley Green, and entirely surrounded by the said parish of Beaudesert, and also a certain district of the said parish of Wootton Wawen, situate in the north of the parish adjoining the said parish of Beaudesert, and lying at a distance from the parish church of Wootton Wawen, may be advantageously separated from the said parish of Wootton
