

Wawen, and united to the said parish of Beaudesert.

"8. It also appears to me that a certain district of the said parish of Ullenhall, being bounded on all sides except the western side thereof by the said parish of Beaudesert, may also, under the provisions of the said Acts, be advantageously separated from the said parish of Ullenhall and united to the said parish of Beaudesert.

"9. The Provost and Scholars of the King's College of our Lady and St. Nicholas in Cambridge are the patrons of the said benefice of Wootton Wawen, Hugh Goodwin Newton, of Barrells, near Henley-in-Arden aforesaid, Esquire, is the patron of the said benefice of Ullenhall, and the Right Honourable Richard Burdon Viscount Haldane of Cloan Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, on behalf of His Most Gracious Majesty the King, is the patron of the said benefice of Beaudesert.

"10. The Reverend Francis Thomas Bramston is the present Incumbent of the said benefice of Wootton Wawen, the Reverend William Frederick Pelton is the present Incumbent of the said benefice of Ullenhall, and the Reverend James Smith Turner is the present Incumbent of the said benefice of Beaudesert.

"11. Pursuant to the directions contained in the twenty-sixth section of the first-mentioned Act of Parliament, I, the said Bishop, have drawn up a Scheme in writing appended to this Representation describing the said respective districts of the said parishes of Wootton Wawen and Ullenhall, so as aforesaid proposed to be annexed to the said parish of Beaudesert, and the mode in which it appears to me the alterations may be best effected, and how the changes consequent thereon in respect of ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, dues, rates and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews may be made with justice to all parties interested. And I do hereby submit the same to your Grace, together with the consents in writing of the said Patrons and Incumbents, and in case you shall on full consideration and inquiry be satisfied therewith, I request that your Grace will be pleased to certify the same and such consents to His Majesty in Council."

And whereas the said Scheme drawn up by the said Bishop, and the Consents referred to in the said Representation, are as follows:—

"SCHEME.

"It is proposed to separate a district, being a detached portion of the said parish of Wootton Wawen, from that parish, and unite the same for ecclesiastical purposes to the adjoining ecclesiastical parish of Beaudesert aforesaid.

"Such district shall consist of all that detached portion of the said parish of Wootton Wawen which lies in that part of the said parish of Beaudesert known as Buckley Green, and is wholly surrounded by such last-mentioned parish, and such district is coloured green, and indicated by the letter 'A' on the said plan.

"It is further proposed to separate another district from the said parish of Wootton Wawen, and unite such district for ecclesiastical purposes to the adjoining parish of Beaudesert aforesaid.

"Such district shall consist of all that portion of the said parish of Wootton Wawen (other than the said chapelry and township) which lies to the north of the High Road leading from Preston Bagot to Henley-in-Arden, and which is bounded on the south by the said High Road on the west or north-west by the parish of Beaudesert, in the said county and diocese, and on the east by the parish of Preston Bagot, in the said county and diocese, and is coloured green, and indicated by the letter 'B' on the said plan.

"It is further proposed to separate a district from the ecclesiastical parish of Ullenhall, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and unite such district for ecclesiastical purposes to the adjoining ecclesiastical parish of Beaudesert aforesaid.

"Such district shall consist of all that part of the said parish of Ullenhall which lies to the east of an imaginary line starting from a point in the south-eastern boundary of the said parish at the south-western corner of the field numbered 212 on the Ordnance Map (Second Edition, 1905) for the said parish, and which runs in a northerly direction along the western boundary of the said field, and of the field numbered 203 on the said map, and continues thence in a north-easterly direction along the north-western boundaries of the fields numbered 204, 205, 190, 169 and 155 on the said map until it reaches the northern boundary of the said parish, and such district is coloured purple, and indicated by the letter 'C' on the said plan.

"The inhabitants of the said respective districts shall not, after this Scheme takes effect, be entitled to any accommodation in the respective churches of the parishes from which such districts have been separated (except, nevertheless, any person or persons possessing a legal right by faculty or otherwise to any pew or sitting within the said churches respectively, and who may not be willing to relinquish the same), and shall be exonerated from all liability to repair the churches of the parishes from which such districts shall respectively have been separated, but shall be entitled to accommodation in the parish church of Beaudesert, and shall be liable subject to the provisions of the Church Rates Abolition Act, 1868, to the repairs of the said church.

"The inhabitants of the said respective districts shall not be entitled to any right of burial in the respective graveyards or burial places of the parishes from which such districts have been separated (except, nevertheless, any person or persons possessing a legal right of burial therein by faculty).

"The Incumbent of the parish church of Beaudesert shall henceforth have the exclusive cure of souls within the said districts.

"The fees for marriages and churchings and all other ecclesiastical dues arising from the said districts, and due to the Incumbent thereof, shall henceforth belong to the Incumbent of the benefice of Beaudesert aforesaid.

"No alteration shall be made in the patronage or endowments of any of the aforesaid benefices.

"CONSENTS.
