At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 14th day of May, 1914.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirtieth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and fourteen, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property, in the parishes of Saint Mary, Lambeth, and Saint Giles, Camberwell, in the county of Surrey, now vested in us.

“ Whereas under and by virtue of the several indentures, particulars whereof are set forth in the schedule hereunder written, the lands, tenements, and hereditaments situate in the parishes of Saint Mary, Lambeth, and Saint Giles, Camberwell, aforesaid, and particularly described in the same indentures and schedule, became with their appurtenances and are now vested in us.

“ And whereas some portions of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, on account of their character or situation, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

“ And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

“ Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, so vested in us as aforesaid,
