

shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas by His late Majesty's Order in Council, bearing date 13th May, 1901, we are empowered to award to an Officer of Your Majesty's Navy dismissed the Service by sentence of Court Martial a Compassionate Allowance not exceeding the lowest rate of half-pay of his rank, at our discretion:

"And whereas Commissioned Warrant and Warrant Officers of Your Majesty's Navy, not being eligible for half-pay, are debarred from receiving any benefit under the terms of the above-mentioned Order in Council, when dismissed the Service by sentence of Court Martial:

"We beg leave humbly to submit that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to authorise us, at our discretion, to award to Commissioned Warrant and Warrant Officers, in such circumstances, compassionate allowances at rates not exceeding the pension for which they would be eligible, in ordinary circumstances, at the date of their dismissal.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

At the Court at Windsor Castle, the 18th day of June, 1914.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 2nd day of June, 1914, in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an officer, seaman, or marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas by His late Majesty's Order in Council of the 11th August, 1903, sanctioning the creation of a Reserve of Medical Officers, the officers of this Reserve may only be called upon to serve in the event of war or emergency:

"And whereas we consider it desirable that these officers should have opportunities of keeping in touch with Your Majesty's Naval Service in time of peace:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to approve of officers of the Medical Reserve being re-employed or undergoing courses of instruction during peace, under the following conditions:—

I. To receive full pay at the rate of 17s. a day while re-employed or undergoing courses of instruction.

II. To be under the same conditions as regards pension, etc., in case of death or injury as would be applicable in the event of their being called upon to serve in time of war or emergency.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

At the Court at Windsor Castle, the 18th day of June, 1914.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by the Burial Act, 1900, it is enacted that, in case it appear to His Majesty in Council, upon the representation of the Local Government Board, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that no new burial ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require: Provided always that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please His Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered: Provided also that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and the Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas by the Burial Act, 1855, it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be
