

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 16th day of July, 1914.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish of Egmonton, in the county of Nottingham, ten days' previous notice of their intention in that behalf, have, under the provisions of the Burial Act, 1853, made a Representation to His Majesty in Council that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in the Civil Parish of Egmonton aforesaid, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, and that burials should be discontinued therein, as follows, viz. :—

EGMANTON.—Forthwith and entirely in the Church of Saint Mary the Virgin, in the parish of Egmonton, in the county of Nottingham, and in the old churchyard adjoining the same.

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such Representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council, on the 20th day of August next.

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such Representation one month before the said 20th day of August.

Almeric FitzRoy.

The following STATUTE made by the Governing Body of Christ Church, in the University of Oxford, on the 27th day of June, 1912, and on the 31st day of May, 1913, has been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions of "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877."

A STATUTE to be substituted for the Existing Statute XVII of Christ Church, in the University of Oxford, dated the 16th day of June, 1881, duly made at stated Meetings of the Governing Body specially summoned for that purpose on the 27th of June, 1912, and on the 31st of May, 1913, and passed at such Meetings by the Votes of two-thirds of the number of Persons present and voting, and submitted to His Majesty the King in Council.

A Statute for Christ Church, made by the House under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877.

STATUTE XVII.

1. There shall be paid to the holders for the time being of the Lee's Professorship of Anatomy, and the Lee's Professorship of Chemistry, within the University, as and when such Professorships shall respectively be constituted, the yearly sum of £900 each. There shall also be paid to the holder for the time being of the Lee's Professorship of Experimental Philosophy within the University, as and when such Professorship shall be constituted, such a yearly sum as, together with the emoluments derived from the benefaction of Nathaniel Lord Crewe and assigned to his Professorship and the emoluments by the Statutes of Wadham College appropriated to his Professorship, shall amount to the yearly sum of £900.

2. The election or appointment to the Lee's Professorships of Anatomy and Chemistry shall be made in each case by a Board of seven persons, of whom one shall be the Dean and one other shall be nominated to hold office for a period of five years by the Governing Body. The election or appointment to the Lee's Professorship of Experimental Philosophy shall be made in accordance with the Statute made for the University concerning the Professor of Experimental Philosophy as amended by the University. Upon the occurrence of any vacancy in any of the Lee's Professorships, it shall be determined by the University, in agreement with the House, what part or parts of the science concerned shall be assigned to the Professorship so falling vacant during the tenure of office of the person next elected thereto.

3. The sums payable to the Lee's Professors shall be paid out of the general revenues of the House if and so far as the funds available for them from the income of the lands and tenements held under the will of Dr. Matthew Lee shall be found insufficient.

4. Subject to the provisions of these Statutes, the Lee's Professors shall be eligible for election to Studentships, but they shall not be eligible for membership of the Governing Body.

5. From and after the occurrence of the next vacancy in the existing Professorship of Experimental Philosophy within the University there shall be paid out of the general revenues of the House to the holder for the time being of the said Professorship the yearly sum of £600. Such payment shall cease as and when the foregoing provisions of this Statute relating to the Lee's Professorship of Experimental Philosophy shall have come into operation.

6. All sums paid in any year under any of the preceding clauses of this Statute, whether out of the general revenues of the House or out of the income of the lands and tenements held under the will of Dr. Matthew Lee, to any of the Lee's Professors or to the holder for the time being of the existing Professorship of Experimental Philosophy within the University, shall be reckoned against the amount of the contribution due from the House in that year under the provisions of the Statute made for the University concerning College Contributions for University Purposes and any amendment thereof from time to time made; and the House shall be chargeable only with the excess (if any) of the amount of its con-
