

England, in pursuance of the Act of the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter 134; of the Act of the 2nd and 3rd years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter 49; and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, chapter 55, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated Church of Saint Michael, Golder's Green, situate in the parish of Hendon, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a District Chapelry should be assigned to the said Church of Saint Michael, Golder's Green, situate as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Arthur Foley, Bishop of London, (testified by his having signed and sealed this Representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Hendon, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a District Chapelry to the said Church of Saint Michael, Golder's Green, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Michael, Golder's Green.'

"And with the like consent of the said Arthur Foley, Bishop of London, (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed at the said Church of Saint Michael, Golder's Green, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the Minister of the same Church for the time being: Provided always that, so long as the Reverend Samuel Edward Chettoe, Clerk in Holy Orders, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Hendon, shall continue to be such vicar or incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of such publication, solemnization, or performance at the said Church of Saint Michael, Golder's Green, situate as aforesaid, shall be paid over by the Minister thereof to the said Samuel Edward Chettoe: and Provided also that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal Wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Michael, Golder's Green, being:—All that part of the parish of Hendon, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, which is bounded upon the west by the new parish of Saint John,

West Hendon, upon the south-west by the new parish of Saint Peter, Cricklewood, upon the south-east by the new parish of All Saints, Child's Hill, Hendon, upon the north-east by the District Chapelry of Saint Jude, Hampstead Garden Suburb, all in the said County and Diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the north and upon the north-west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said District Chapelry of Saint Jude, Hampstead Garden Suburb, from the said parish of Hendon, at the junction of Temple Fortune Lane with Finchley Road, and extending thence southward along the middle of Finchley Road for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts to its junction with Saint George's Road, and extending thence westward along the middle of Saint George's Road for a distance of nineteen chains or thereabouts to the point where such road turns south-eastward, and extending thence south-westward in a straight line for a distance of two chains and a half or thereabouts to the north-eastern end of the fence forming the south-eastern boundary of the house and premises known as Number 9, Brookside Road, and extending thence south-westward along the said fence for a distance of one chain and a half or thereabouts to its south-western end on the north-eastern side of Brookside Road, and extending thence first south-westward to, and then north-westward along, the middle of Brookside Road for a distance of two chains or thereabouts, to its junction with the road called Russell Gardens, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of Russell Gardens for a distance of twelve chains or thereabouts to its junction with Golder's Green Road, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of Golder's Green Road for a distance of one chain or thereabouts to its junction with the road called Beverley Gardens, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of Beverley Gardens for a distance of ten chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with the road called The Drive, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of The Drive for a distance of two chains or thereabouts to its junction with Woodville Road, and extending thence first south-westward and then westward along the middle of Woodville Road for a distance of seventeen chains or thereabouts to its junction with Hamilton Road and Woodville Gardens, and extending thence westward along the middle of Woodville Gardens for a distance of four chains or thereabouts to its junction with the roadway leading into Renter's Lane, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said roadway for a distance of sixteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with Renter's Lane, and extending thence first north-eastward and then north-westward along the middle of Renter's Lane for a distance of two chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries such lane across the River Brent, and extending thence generally south-westward along the middle of the River Brent for a distance of twenty-nine chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of Hendon from the said new parish of Saint John, West Hendon."

And whereas the said Representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased
