

(2) Where an alien is ordered to be deported under this Order, he may, whilst awaiting the departure of his ship, and whilst being conveyed to the ship, and whilst on board the ship until the ship finally leaves the United Kingdom, be detained in such manner as the Secretary of State directs, and, whilst so detained, shall be deemed to be in legal custody.

Obligations on Masters of Vessels.

Obligations on masters of vessels.

13.—(1) The master of every vessel, whether British or foreign, arriving at or leaving a port in the United Kingdom shall, immediately on the arrival of the vessel at that port, or, as the case may be, not more than twenty-four hours before leaving that port, furnish to an aliens officer at that port, with respect to all persons on board the vessel, or intending to embark on the vessel, such particulars in such manner as the Secretary of State may direct, and shall otherwise take all reasonable steps in his power for securing the enforcement of this Order.

(2) The master of a vessel arriving at or leaving any port shall not permit any persons to land or to embark without the sanction of an aliens officer at the port.

(3) Where a person lands or embarks at any port in contravention of this Order, the master of the vessel from which he lands or on which he embarks shall, unless he proves the contrary, be deemed to have aided and abetted the offence.

Obligation to afford passage to aliens.

14. The master of a ship about to call at any port shall, if so required by a Secretary of State or an aliens officer, receive an alien and his dependants, if any, on board his ship and afford him or them a passage to that port, and proper accommodation and maintenance during the passage, and, if the ship is the same or belongs to the same owners as the ship in which the alien arrived in the United Kingdom, shall, if so required as aforesaid, afford such passage, accommodation, and maintenance free of charge.

Aliens Officers.

Aliens officers.

15.—(1) The following persons, that is to say—

(a) any immigration officers appointed under the Aliens Act, 1905; and

(b) any persons appointed for the purpose by a Secretary of State;

shall be aliens officers for the purposes of this Order at the various ports in the United Kingdom, and shall in the exercise of their powers act under general or special instructions from the Secretary of State, and, subject to such instructions, shall have power to enter on board any vessel, and to detain and examine all persons arriving at or leaving any port in the United Kingdom, and to require the production of any documents by such persons, and generally to take such steps as are sanctioned by this Order or as may be necessary for giving effect to this Order.

Offences in relation to aliens officers.

16. If any alien, master of a ship, or other person arriving at or leaving any port lands or embarks without the permission of an aliens officer, or refuses to answer any question reasonably put to him by an aliens officer, or makes any false return, false statement, or false representation to an aliens officer, or refuses to produce any document in his possession which he is required by an aliens officer to produce, or obstructs or impedes an aliens officer in the exercise of his powers or duties under the Order, he shall be deemed to have acted in contravention of this Order.

Exceptions.

Part I. not to apply in certain cases

17. This Part of the Order shall not apply—

(a) to prisoners of war; or

(b) to children appearing to an aliens officer to be under the age of fourteen.

PART II.

RESTRICTIONS ON ALIENS RESIDING IN THE UNITED KINGDOM.

Residence and Registration of Aliens.

Power to order aliens to reside in certain areas.

18. A Secretary of State may by order require any alien enemy to reside or continue to reside in any place or district specified in the order, and the alien shall comply with the order.

Prohibition on alien enemies residing in prohibited areas.

19. An alien enemy shall not reside or continue to reside either temporarily or permanently in any of the areas specified in the Second Schedule to this Order (in this Order referred to as prohibited areas) unless provided with a permit issued by the registration officer of the district, subject to the general or special instructions of a Secretary of State, and every alien enemy who at the time of the making of this Order is resident in a prohibited area shall within four days, unless in the meantime he obtains such a permit aforesaid, leave that area, having first reported his proposed residence to the registration officer of the registration district which he is leaving.

Registration of aliens.

20.—(1) An alien residing in a prohibited area, and an alien enemy wherever resident, shall comply with the following requirements as to registration:—

(a) he shall, immediately on the making of this Order and on any subsequent change of address, furnish to the registration officer of the registration district in which he is resident particulars as to the matters set out in the Third Schedule to this Order:

(b) he shall, if he is about to change his residence furnish to the registration officer of the registration district in which he is then resident particulars as to the date on which his residence is to be so changed, and as to his intended place of residence:

(c) he shall furnish to the registration officer of the registration district in which he is resident particulars of any circumstance affecting in any manner the ac-
