

the end of six years from his election, except in the following cases:—

1. If he hold the Professorial Fellowship, he shall hold his Fellowship so long as he holds his Professorship, as required by Statute x.

2. If he hold the office of Tutor, Assistant Tutor or Lecturer in the College, he shall hold his Fellowship so long as he holds such office.

3. If he have held the office of Tutor, Assistant Tutor or Lecturer in the College, and if his tenure of any one or more of such offices, whether continuous or not, shall have amounted to twenty-five years, he shall continue to hold his Fellowship for life, provided that he shall have reached the age of fifty-five.

4. If he hold the office of Tutor, Assistant Tutor or Lecturer in the College and be in the opinion of the Governing Body incapable of fulfilling the work of his office in consequence of ill-health, the Governing Body may by a vote of two-thirds of the whole Body continue his Fellowship for a period or periods of not more than five years each, provided that in any case the whole period do not exceed the time for which he has served as Tutor, Assistant Tutor or Lecturer of the College.

5. If a member of the Governing Body, other than the Professorial Fellow, be elected to a Professorship, to the office of Public Orator in the University, or to a Readership, the Governing Body may, at a Meeting specially called for the purpose, continue his Fellowship for a period or periods not exceeding seven years each.

The Governing Body shall have power to grant leave of absence for a period not exceeding one year to a Fellow of the College, who has served not less than ten years as a Lecturer. During such absence he shall receive his stipend as Fellow but not count his period of absence towards his term of service.

No person shall be eligible for re-election to a Fellowship, except he have been elected under Statute XI; provided that the Governing Body may re-elect to a Fellowship a former Fellow who has been appointed Tutor, Assistant Tutor or Lecturer.

No Fellow shall vacate his Fellowship in passing from one educational office to another.

If a Fellow hold more than one educational office at the same time, his tenure of Fellowship after vacation of office shall be computed as if he had held not more than one office at the time.

Notwithstanding any previous provision of these Statutes, no Fellow shall retain his Fellowship after his admission to the office of President, or to a Fellowship or Headship in any other College, or for a period longer than one year after his institution to any benefice in the gift of the College the net annual income of which, after deducting all legal charges and the pension, if any, of a previous incumbent, exceeds four hundred pounds a year, or for a period longer than one year after the net annual income of such benefice shall exceed four hundred pounds a year by reason of the cesser of the pension of a previous incumbent.

If any question shall arise as to the fact of any Fellowship having become vacant, the same shall be determined by the Governing Body, subject to an appeal to the Visitor.

XXII. Of the Tutors, Assistant Tutors and Lecturers.

No Undergraduate member of the College, and no Bachelor, except a Fellow, shall be without a Tutor.

The number of Tutors, Assistant Tutors and Lecturers shall be from time to time determined by the Governing Body.

Each Tutor shall be nominated by the President, and any person so nominated shall be submitted to the Governing Body for election to the office of Tutor for a probationary period of two years, and on the expiration of such period the Governing Body shall have power to confirm the Tutor so elected in his office for a further period of eight years. He may be re-appointed for a further period or periods, not exceeding five years each, if the needs of the College seem to demand it. A Tutor shall vacate his office on reaching the age of sixty-five, and in no circumstances shall a Tutor hold office for more than twenty years. A Tutor may at any time be removed from his office by a vote of two-thirds of the Governing Body at a Meeting specially called for the purpose.

An Assistant Tutor shall be nominated by the President. Any person so nominated shall be submitted to the Governing Body for election, and shall hold office for such period as the Governing Body may determine.

The Lecturers shall be nominated by the President, shall be submitted to the Governing Body for election, and after a probationary period of two years shall hold office for such period or periods as the Governing Body may from time to time determine.

The President shall be eligible for any of the above-mentioned offices.
