

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday July 10. to Thursday July 13. 1693.

Turin, June 29.

Our Army continues encamped near Pignerol, and is daily reinforced. The Troops of the Milan are on their march thither. Casal is closely blockt up, and we hear that the Spaniards have taken the Castle of St. George, which was defended by 300 men, most of whom were put to the Sword. We have Advice from the Valley of Barcelonnette, That the Sieur de la Roche, who Commands our Troops quartered on that side, had laid an Ambush for the Enemy, and cut off 400 of them. Prince Eugene of Savoy arrived here on Monday last from Vienna. Venice, July 3. The Doge arrived on the 13th of the last month at Corfu. The Popes Gallies are joyned with those of Malta, and have taken their Course towards the Levant.

Vienna, July 4. The Letters from the Imperial Camp near Mohatz of the 29th past, tell us, That on the 26th 5 Regiments of Foot marched under the Command of General Archinto to Verismarton, and pass'd the Dambe in Boats; The rest of the Imperial Infantry was to pass the same River on the 29th and 30th, and two Bridges were laying over it for the passage of the Horse, which would be finished in two days. We have Letters from Adrianople of the 7th of the last month, which give an account, That on the 24th of March, my Lord Paget, and the two Dutch Ambassadors, had a publick Audience of the Grand Visier, at which the Mufti, the Caimacan, and the other principal Officers of the Port were likewise present. On the 27th the Visier was Deposed; The Caimacan was advanced to that Station, and his Chyaya, a Candior, was made Caimacan; The Aga of the Janisaries was sent Passa to Damascus, and a new Aga, and a new Treterdar, or Treasurer, were called from Constantinople. On the 4th of April my Lord Paget had Audience of the New Visier, by whom he was received with great Respect, and his Excellency was expecting in few days an Answer to the Proposals he had given him in Writing. In the mean time the Turks went on but slowly with their Preparations for the Campaign; The Jannisar Aga, when these Letters came away was still at Adrianople, but propos'd to be going to the Camp in Ten days; About a Week after the Grand Visier would follow, and about a Fortnight after that, the Forces would begin their march, which were not then above 6000 strong, but in their march they will be joyned by the Atiaticks and Tartars, and the Troops from Bosnia, Serua, &c. and will be the latter end of July at soonest before their Army can reach Belgrade; so that the Imperialists are like to have time enough to attempt something considerable before the Enemy can be in a posture to oppose them. 'Tis generally believed that the design is upon Belgrade.

Hallbron, July 11. Prince Lewis of Baden is still encamped at Wimpfen on the Neckar. Three Imperial Regiments are on their march from the Black Forest to joyn him; as are also 3000 Men from Bavaria, and the Regiment of Wurtemberg consisting of 2000 Men. This day the Margrave of Bareith was detached with 4 Regiments; and we have just now Advice, That Prince Lewis has ordered the whole Army to pass the Neckar with a Resolution to march towards the Enemy.

Francfort, July 12. On the 10th instant the French attackt the Pass of Zwingenberg, and were twice repulsed by 3 or 400 Saxons who were posted there, but receiving fresh and strong Reinforcements, in the third Assault they made themselves Masters of it; after which the Marschal de Lorge marched with the French Army towards Darmstadt. The Troops of Saxony and Hesse have posted themselves at Langen and Sprenglingen, about 2 or 3 Leagues from hence.

Cologne, July 14. The Letters from the Moselle say, That the Duuphin was come to Creutznach, and that his Troops had pass'd the River Nabe. The Brandenburg Forces, under General Fleming, arriv'd the 12th inst. near the Village Linburg in the Westerwalt; and several Regiments of Horse are detached out of the Neuburg Troops, who pass'd the Rhine at Bon on the 11th, with Orders to march after the Brandenburgers, and to joyn with them, and the other Confederate Forces about Meutz, or Francfort, as there may be occasion.

Paris, July 13. We have at present no News of the French Fleet but what comes by several Vessels from the Coast of Biscay and Lisbon, who confirm, That the Marschal de Tourville continued between Lagos and Cadix, expecting the Count d'Estree with the Thoulon Squadron from the Streights. The French Gallies are returned to Marseilles, but have not brought any Troops from Roses, as was Reported. The Count d'Estree, before he Sailed out of the Gulph of Roses, detached the Count de Blenac, with 2 Frigates, to Cruise in the Channel of Malta; and sent 4 other Men of War to Thoulon.

Brussels, July 15. On the 11 Instant, the Duke of Wirtemberg was detached from our Camp near Louvain, with 13 Battalions and 20 Squadrons; The 12th he came with the Cavalry to Ninove, and the 13th to Audenarde, where the Foot arriv'd Yesterday; Part of the Garrisons of Aech and Audenarde, are gone out to joyn him; and last Night he continued his March towards the Enemy's Lines, between the Lys and the Schelde.

From His Majesties Camp at Parke, July 16. Yesterday we had a Report of the Enemies marching to Leeuwe, a small place between this and Mastricht, where Colonel Trelawney is posted with a Detachment of about 1000 Men; and the Army was thereupon ordered to be in a readiness to march, but we had soon after notice to the contrary, and that our last Convoy to that place was safely arriv'd there. This Morning we had Advice, That the Marschal de Luxemburg march'd on the 14th with 50 Squadrons of Horse, 10 Battalions, and some Field pieces to Tongres, in order to fall upon part of the Garrisons of Liege and Mastricht, being 18 Squadrons and some Foot, who lay encamp't near that place, under the Command of Count Tilly; who having notice thereof, retir'd over the Saer, leaving only three Squadrons to secure his Retreat; The French sent against them the like number of Squadrons of the Household, who were beaten back to their main Body, and many of them killed, but fresh Squadrons coming on, ours, who behaved themselves in this occasion with great Bravery, were oblig'd to retire, with the loss of about 100 Men, and some of their Baggage, which fell into the Enemies Hands. The two Armies continue in the same Camps.

Hague.