NATIONAL INSURANCE.

NATIONAL HEALTH INSURANCE.

The National Health Insurance (Wales) (Transfer of Deposit Contributors) Order (No. 2), 1914, dated 21st August, 1914, made by the Welsh Insurance Commissioners under section 78 of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (1 & 2 Geo. V., c. 55).

Whereas this Order is intended to be supplemental (i) to the National Health Insurance (Wales) (Transfer of Deposit Contributors) Order, 1913, whereby it was provided that where during the period of twelve months from the 15th day of July, 1912, any deposit contributor became a member of an approved society, there should be transferred in respect of him from the Deposit Contributors Fund (therein referred to as the "Post Office Fund") to the society the amount (if any) standing to his credit in the Deposit Contributors Fund, after a deduction therefrom of any sums, which, if he had been a member of an approved society, would have been retained for the purpose of discharging the liabilities of the Welsh Insurance Commissioners in respect of reserve values, and that he should for the purposes of section 55 of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (therein and in this Order referred to as "the Act") be deemed to have become a member of the society as from the date of his entry into insurance; (ii) to the National Health Insurance (Transfer of Deposit Contributors) (Wales) Order, 1913 (No. 2) whereby it was provided that where no account had been opened in the Deposit Contributors Fund (therein referred to as the "Post Office Fund") in the name of any person who had become or was deemed to have become a deposit contributor, that person might, if he joined an approved society before the 15th day of July, 1913, be treated in all respects and for all purposes as a member of the society as from the date on which he would but for that Order have become or be deemed to have become a deposit contributor; and (iii) to the National Health Insurance (Wales) (Transfer of Deposit Contributors) Order, 1914, whereby the provisions of the two above-mentioned Orders were extended so as to include persons who became members of approved societies at any time up to the 27th day of April, 1914, being the date on which the Order was made:

And whereas for the reasons more particularly set forth in the recitals to the above mentioned Orders difficulties have arisen in regard to deposit contributors becoming members of approved societies, and with a view of facilitating the necessary transfers and adjustments in respect of persons who have become members on or after the 27th day of April, 1914, and before the 3rd day of August, 1914, it is expedient for the purpose of bringing into operation Part I of the Act that the provisions of those Orders should be further extended so as to become applicable to those persons:

And whereas for the purpose of enabling deposit contributors who become members of societies under this Order to pay arrears upon the same conditions as other members of societies it is necessary to modify the provisions of the National Health Insurance (Arrears) Regulations (No. 2), 1914 (which are in this Order referred to as "the Regulations"), in the manner hereinafter appearing:

Now, therefore, the Welsh Insurance Commissioners, in pursuance of the powers conferred on them by sections 78 and 82 of the Act and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, with the consent of the Treasury, hereby order as follows:—

1.—(1) The National Health Insurance (Wales) (Transfer of Deposit Contributors) Order, 1913, as amended by the National Health Insurance (Wales) (Transfer of Deposit Contributors) Order, 1914, shall be read and have effect as if for the period from the 15th day of July, 1912, to the date of the latter Order there were substituted the period from the 15th day of July, 1912, to the 3rd day of August, 1914, and any deposit contributor who has become a member of a society within the above mentioned period shall, for the purpose of reckoning his arrears, be deemed to have been a member of the society from the date of his entry into insurance.

(2) The National Health Insurance (Transfer of Deposit Contributors) (Wales) Order, 1913 (No. 2), as amended by the National Health Insurance (Wales) (Transfer of Deposit Contributors) Order, 1914, shall be read and have effect as if for the date of the latter Order there were substituted the 3rd day of August, 1914.

2.—(1) In the case of a deposit contributor who becomes a member of an approved society before the 3rd day of August, 1914, and is at the date when he becomes a member an employed contributor, such part of Article 9 of the Regulations as requires the Society to give notice to a member of his arrears within six weeks after the end of each contribution year, shall not apply to the contribution year ending on the 5th day of July, 1914, but the Society shall give the required notice within a period of six weeks after the end of that contribu-
