

the United Kingdom of Jams and Marmalades and of Condensed Milk, sweetened or not, established by His Majesty's Proclamation dated the 20th August, 1914:

Now, therefore, Their Lordships having taken the said recommendation into consideration, are pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the same be approved:

Whereof the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs and Excise, and all other persons whom it may concern, are to take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of September, 1914.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Bishopricks Act, 1878, and the Bishopricks of Sheffield, Chelmsford, and for the County of Suffolk Act, 1913, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 16th day of July, in the year 1914, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Bishopricks Act, 1878, and the Bishopricks of Sheffield, Chelmsford, and for the County of Suffolk Act, 1913, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme with respect to the Bishoprick of Sheffield, and for the re-arrangement of the boundaries of the Diocese of Sheffield, and of the contiguous Diocese of Wakefield.

"Whereas by the 7th section of the said Bishopricks Act, 1878, it is enacted that whenever the certificate therein referred to shall have been given to Your Majesty by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with respect to the endowment fund of any new Bishoprick mentioned in the schedule to the said Act, we shall lay before Your Majesty in Council a Scheme for all or any of the matters in relation to such new Bishoprick which in the same section are mentioned.

"And whereas by the 1st section of the said Bishopricks of Sheffield, Chelmsford, and for the County of Suffolk Act, 1913, it is enacted that, subject to the modifications set forth in the first schedule to the same Act, the said Bishopricks Act, 1878, including the repealed portions thereof, shall have effect for the purpose of the foundation of the new Bishopricks of Sheffield, Chelmsford, and Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich, as if the second schedule to the said Bishopricks of Sheffield, Chelmsford, and for the County of Suffolk Act, 1913, were substituted for the schedule to the said Bishopricks Act, 1878, and as if the last-mentioned Act had become law on the date on which the said Bishopricks of Sheffield, Chelmsford, and for the County of Suffolk Act, 1913, was passed.

"And whereas the Bishoprick of Sheffield is one of the Bishopricks mentioned in the said second schedule to the said Bishopricks of Sheffield, Chelmsford, and for the County of Suffolk Act, 1913, and the said certificate was given by us with respect to the endowment fund of the said Bishoprick of Sheffield on the 18th day of December, 1913, and thereupon, by an Order of Your Majesty in Council of the 21st day of January, 1914, made in pursuance of the said Acts and reciting that such certificate had been so given as aforesaid, which Order was published in the London Gazette on the 23rd day of the same month of January, and came into operation on the day of the date of such publication, (1) the Bishoprick of Sheffield was founded, (2) the Diocese of the said Bishoprick was declared to consist (subject to the provisions contained in the first schedule to the Bishopricks of Sheffield, Chelmsford, and for the County of Suffolk Act, 1913, as to re-arrangement of boundaries) of the Rural Deaneries of Sheffield, Doncaster, Ecclesfield, Rotherham, Wath, and Snaith, together with such portions of the Rural Deanery of Dronfield, otherwise known as the Rural Deanery of Eyam, in the Diocese of Southwell, as are now included in the City of Sheffield, (3) the Parish Church of Sheffield, in the County of York, (subject to the rights of the Patron and Incumbent thereof) was declared to be the Cathedral Church of the said Bishoprick, and (4) the Bishop of Sheffield was constituted a body corporate, and was invested with all such rights, privileges, and jurisdictions, as are possessed by any other Bishop in England, and was subjected to the metropolitan jurisdiction of the Archbishop of York.

"And whereas among the modifications of the said Bishopricks Act, 1878, contained in the said first schedule to the said Bishopricks of Sheffield, Chelmsford, and for the County of Suffolk Act, 1913, it is enacted that a Scheme made under section 7 of the said Bishopricks Act may provide for the re-arrangement of the boundaries of the new Diocese to which the same applies, and of any Diocese contiguous thereto, and that any application in connection with the new Bishoprick of Sheffield for any such re-arrangement affecting the Rural Deanery of Snaith or any part thereof, presented to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, within six months after the date of the hereinbefore-mentioned certificate as to the endowment fund of the said Bishoprick by any Incumbent or Churchwarden or any five Parishioners of a Parish situate within the said Rural Deanery of Snaith, shall be considered and determined by us.

"And whereas certain applications affecting Parishes in the said Rural Deanery of Snaith have been presented to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, in accordance with the provision last-hereinbefore recited of the said Bishopricks of Sheffield, Chelmsford, and for the County of Suffolk Act, 1913, and such applications have been considered by us, and we have determined that no re-arrangement of the boundaries of the said Diocese of Sheffield affecting the said Rural Deanery of Snaith or any Parish therein should be made.

"And whereas such portions of the Rural Deanery of Dronfield, otherwise known as the Rural Deanery of Eyam, in the Diocese of Southwell, as are included in the City of Sheffield, which portions of the said Rural Deanery have as aforesaid been included in the said Diocese of Sheffield, do comprise the two Parishes of Norton Woodseats and Saint Chad Norton Woodseats, and no other.

"And whereas the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Cosmo Gordon, Archbishop of
