

of 19 at o'clock
in the noon on the hearing of an application on the part of C. D. of that notwithstanding the provisions of section 1, sub-section 1 (b) of the above-mentioned Act the applicant may be at liberty to exercise the following remedy for enforcing the payment or recovery of money or in default of such payment or recovery, that is to say

[may be at liberty to levy a distress for rent amounting to £ on property situate at ; or to take, resume, or enter into possession of property situate at ; or to forfeit a deposit of £ made on the occasion of (state nature of contract); or as the case may be].

NOTE.—The Courts (Emergency Powers) Act, 1914, provides that during its operation certain remedies for the payment or recovery of money (including the remedy above mentioned) are not to be taken or executed except on an application to the court and that the court may in its discretion defer the exercise of such remedies for such time and subject to such conditions as the court thinks fit, if of opinion that the inability to make payment is due to circumstances attributable directly or indirectly to the present war. If you desire to take advantage of the Act you should attend by yourself or your solicitor and satisfy the court that your inability to pay is due to the war.

FURTHER NOTE.—It will not be necessary for you to enter an appearance in the Central Office, but if you do not attend either in person or by your solicitor at the time and place above mentioned [or at the time mentioned in the endorsement hereon] such order will be made and proceedings taken as the judge may think just and expedient.
