

And whereas, on the 26th day of March, 1914, the said Archbishop certified to His Majesty in Council as follows:—

“We, the undersigned, Randall Thomas, Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, Primate of all England and Metropolitan, do hereby certify to Your Majesty in Council:—

“That the Right Reverend Bertram, Lord Bishop of Norwich, in which Diocese is situate the United Benefice consisting of the Rectory of Litcham and the Rectory of East Lexham, in the County of Norfolk, having represented unto us that the disunion of the said United Benefice by the separation of the Rectory of Litcham from the Rectory of East Lexham may be made with advantage to the interests of religion, we inquired into the circumstances of the case.

“That on such Inquiry it appeared to us that such union might usefully be dissolved and that Augustus Leverton Jessopp, being the Patron or person entitled to present to the said United Benefice of Litcham and East Lexham (if the same were now vacant), consents to the proposed disunion.

“That six weeks and upwards before certifying such Inquiry and Consent to Your Majesty in Council we caused a copy in writing of the aforesaid Representation to be affixed to the principal outer doors of each of the Parish Churches of Litcham and East Lexham, with notice to any person or persons interested that he, she, or they might, within such six weeks, show cause in writing under his, her, or their hand or hands to us, the said Archbishop, against such disunion, but no such cause has been shown.

“The Representation of the said Lord Bishop of Norwich, Our Inquiry into the circumstances of the case, the Statement of Circumstances in reply thereto, the Consent in writing of the said Patron of the said United Benefice, and the copies of the Representation and Notices before-mentioned are hereunto annexed.

“And we do hereby certify the Inquiry aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council, to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may, in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do, make and issue an Order for the disunion of the said United Benefice by the separation of the Rectory of Litcham from the Rectory of East Lexham so as to constitute each of them a separate Benefice, with Cure of Souls for ecclesiastical purposes only, and in accordance with the Statement of Circumstances above referred to we recommend that immediately the separation of the Rectory of Litcham from the Rectory of East Lexham takes effect and it becomes a separate Benefice under the provisions of the Act 1 and 2 Victoria, cap. 106, in pursuance of the twenty-third Section of the said Act there shall be transferred from the endowment of the said Rectory of East Lexham to the said Rectory of Litcham the sum of £106 15s. 6d. apportioned Tithe Rent Charge (the particulars of which are given in the Schedule annexed to the aforesaid Statement of Circumstances), and that the same shall be annexed to and belong to the separated Rectory of Litcham until the next avoidance thereof, and then the said sum of £106 15s. 6d. shall revert and again form part of the endowment of East Lexham aforesaid, and all other the endowments and emoluments belonging or arising within the limits of each of the said Benefices shall remain attached thereto respectively.”

“RANDALL, CANTUAR.”

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said United Benefice consisting of the Rectory of Litcham and the Rectory of East Lexham, situate in the County of Norfolk, and Diocese of Norwich, shall be disunited by separating the said Rectory of Litcham from the said Rectory of East Lexham.

And His Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of His said Council, is further pleased, on the recommendation of the said Archbishop, with the consent of the Patron, to order that all the endowments and emoluments arising within the limits of each of the said Benefices shall be attached thereto respectively with the exception following, namely, two sums of apportioned Tithe Rent Charge of £18 8s. 6d. and £88 7s., making together £106 15s. 6d., subject to all outgoings payable in respect thereof, shall be transferred from the endowment of the said Rectory of East Lexham to the said Rectory of Litcham, and shall be annexed and belong to the separated Rectory of Litcham until the next avoidance thereof, and then the said sum of £106 15s. 6d. apportioned Tithe Rent Charge shall, subject as aforesaid, revert and again form part of the endowment of the said Rectory of East Lexham.

And His Majesty in Council, by and with the advice aforesaid, is further pleased to direct that each of the said Benefices shall, subject as aforesaid, bear its own charges and outgoings.
