“ CHAPTER I.

“ Annual Officers.

“ 1. The Annual Officers of the College shall be the Vice-Provost, the Dean or Deans, the Bursars, the Librarian, and the holders of any other annual offices which may from time to time be created by the Annual Congregation.

2. The Vice-Provost shall be elected every year from among the Fellows who are members of the Governing Body. His duty shall be to attend, under the Provost, to the good government of the College, according to the Statutes thereof, to act as the Provost's Deputy in his absence, and to perform all such other acts as are prescribed by these Statutes or as may from time to time be prescribed by the Governing Body. During term he shall reside in College and shall not be absent therefrom, at the same time with the Provost, except for grave cause. In case of his absence at any time, or in case of a vacancy in the Office, the Senior Fellow in residence who is a Member of the Council shall exercise the powers and perform the duties of Vice-Provost.

3. Either one or two Deans, as the Annual Congregation shall from time to time determine, shall be elected every year from among the Fellows who are Members of the Governing Body. The duty of a Dean shall be to provide for the solemn and decorous performance of Divine Worship in the College Chapel, in conformity with such regulations as may from time to time be made by the Governing Body, to maintain discipline and good order among such members of the College as are in statu pupillari, and to perform such other acts as are prescribed by these statutes, or as may from time to time be prescribed by the Governing Body. The Dean, or, if there be two Deans, one at least of the Deans, shall reside in College during term, and at such other times as the Annual Congregation shall from time to time prescribe.

4. Either two or three Bursars, as the Annual Congregation shall from time to time determine, shall be elected every year. The Bursars shall have the care of the property of the College, receive all rents and moneys due to the College, and make such payments, under the orders of the Governing Body, as may be due from the same. They shall superintend the buildings, offices, courts and gardens of the College, and provide, under the orders of the Governing Body, for their maintenance and repair. The several departments of these duties shall be distributed among the Bursars according to such regulations as shall from time to time be made by the Annual Congregation. The moneys of the College which shall be received by the Bursars, and shall not be required for immediate College purposes, shall be kept by them in some bank or banks, or otherwise invested according to the orders of the Governing Body, and no loan or temporary or other investment shall be made by them unless in conformity with such orders. The Bursar who has the sole or principal charge of the internal arrangements of the College shall reside in College during term.

5. Any change in the number of Deans or Bursars shall be made only after due notice (as defined in Statute D II. 6) of the intention to propose such change.

6. The Librarian shall be elected every year. He shall have the care of the College Library, and shall exercise such powers and perform such duties in connexion therewith as may from time to time be conferred or imposed upon him by the Governing Body.

7. The Annual Congregation may, from time to time, create any new annual Offices which they may think necessary for the more efficient management of the affairs of the College, or for the better enforcement of its discipline; provided that such Offices may be abolished by the same authority, and that the duties of them may, from time to time, be varied by the Governing Body.”

AND WHEREAS it appears to us, the Provost and Scholars of the said College (being the Governing Body thereof) that it is expedient to alter the said Statute C, Chapter I, in manner hereinafter appearing:

Now, therefore, we, the Provost and Scholars of the said College, do hereby, in exercise of the powers given us by the 54th section of the said Act, alter and amend Chapter I of the said Statute C, hereinbefore set out, by substituting therefor the following (that is to say)
