

Street, in the City of London, Banker, John Francis William Deacon, of Number 20, Birchin Lane, in the said City of London, Banker, the Reverend Ernest Newton Sharpe, of the Holy Trinity Rectory, St. Marylebone, in the County of Middlesex, Clerk in Holy Orders, the Reverend Henry Lawe Corry Vully de Candole, of Clifton Vicarage, Bristol, Clerk in Holy Orders, and the Reverend Edward Grose Hodge, of the Vicarage, Paddington, in the said County of Middlesex, Clerk in Holy Orders and a Prebendary of the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul in London, as the Patrons of the Vicarage of the said New Parish of Christ Church, North End, Finchley, (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this Representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said New Parish of Christ Church, North End, Finchley, and of the said New Parish of Saint John, Whetstone, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one Consolidated Chapelry for the said Church of Saint Barnabas, Woodside Park, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Barnabas, Woodside Park.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal Wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Barnabas, Woodside Park, comprising:—

"I. All that portion of the New Parish (sometime Consolidated Chapelry) of Christ Church, North End, Finchley, in the County of Middlesex, and in the Diocese of London, which is bounded upon the south-west by the New Parish of Saint Paul, Long Lane, Finchley, in the said County and Diocese, upon the west partly by the Parish of Hendon, partly by the New Parish of Saint Paul, Mill Hill, both in the said County and Diocese, and partly by the Parish of Totteridge, in the County of Hertford, and in the Diocese of Saint Albans, upon the north and upon part of the east by the New Parish (sometime District Chapelry) of Saint John, Whetstone, in the said County of Middlesex, and in the said Diocese of London, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the remaining part of the east and upon the south-east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Saint John, Whetstone, from the said New Parish of Christ Church, North End, Finchley, at the junction of the road called Torrington Park with the great North Road, and extending thence southward along the middle of the Great North Road for a distance of seven chains and a quarter or thereabouts to its junction with Percy Road, and extending thence westward along the middle of Percy Road for a distance of nine chains and three-quarters or thereabouts to its junction with the road called Grange Avenue, and extending thence southward along the middle of Grange Avenue for a distance of four chains and a quarter or thereabouts to the fence forming the northern boundary of the house and premises known as Number 27, Grange Avenue, and continuing thence southward in the same direction and in a straight line across the premises attached to the said house for a distance of six yards or thereabouts to the fence forming the southern boundary of such premises, and extending thence westward along the last mentioned fence and along the fences forming the southern boundaries of the houses and premises situate on the southern side of Grange Avenue for a distance in all of seven chains and a half or thereabouts to a point on the south-eastern side of Netherfield Road, and extending thence first westward to and then south-westward along the middle of Netherfield Road for a distance of six chains and three-quarters or thereabouts to its junction with Nether Street, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of Nether Street (thereby crossing the High Barnet Branch Line of the Great Northern Railway) for a distance of 34 chains or thereabouts to the point where such road is crossed by the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Christ Church, North End, Finchley, from the said New Parish of Saint Paul, Long Lane, Finchley.

"II. And also all that contiguous portion of the said New Parish of Saint John, Whetstone, which is bounded upon the south by the above described portion of the said New Parish of Christ Church, North End, Finchley, upon the west by the said Parish of Totteridge, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the north, upon the north-east, and upon the east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said Parish of Totteridge from the said New Parish of Saint John, Whetstone, at the centre of the foot-bridge which carries the footpath leading from Totteridge Green to the northern end of Holden Road across Dollis Brook, and extending thence first south-eastward, then eastward, and then again south-eastward along the middle of the said footpath for a distance of eight chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Holden Road, and extending thence eastward along the middle of Holden Road for a distance of two chains and a quarter or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries Holden Road across the High Barnet Branch Line of the Great Northern Railway, and extending thence southward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of 11 chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the wall or fence forming the southern boundary of the premises attached to the house known as Woodside Grange, and extending thence eastward to and along the said wall or fence for a distance of three chains and a quarter or thereabouts to its eastern end on the western side of Woodside Grange Road, and extending thence first eastward to the middle of Woodside Grange Road, and then first north-eastward, then eastward, and then again north-eastward along the middle of such road for a distance in all of nine chains and a quarter or thereabouts to its junction with the road called Woodside Avenue, and extending thence southward along the middle of Woodside Avenue for a distance of five chains and three-quarters or thereabouts to a point opposite to the wall or fence forming the boundary between the
