

us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the third part, certain land situate in the Parish of Heston aforesaid, containing Four acres three roods and thirty-six perches or thereabouts, delineated and coloured pink on the plan drawn on the said Indenture became with its appurtenances and is now vested in us.

“And whereas the said land is not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant but is now in our possession, but on account of its character or situation the said land or some part or parts thereof is unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

“And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our Common Fund it is expedient that the said land, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such land or in any part or parts thereof in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

“Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any part of the said land so vested in us as aforesaid, with its appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same and his or their heirs executors administrators or assigns or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary Stock or other public securities in England.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the Diocese of London.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 8th day of October, 1914.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 30th day of September, 1914, in the words following, viz.:—

“Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

“And whereas Your Majesty, by Your Order in Council of the 11th February, 1913, was graciously pleased to sanction two promotions to Commissioned Rank annually of Warrant Officers or Non-Commissioned Officers of the Royal Marines:

“And whereas we consider it desirable that provision should be made for the promotion to Commissioned Rank of additional selected Warrant and Non-Commissioned Officers of the Royal Marines for service in the Royal Naval Division:

“We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction the promotion of 16 Warrant Officers or Non-Commissioned Officers, Royal Marines, for such service, under the same regulations as regards rank, pay, and allowances as those applicable to Acting Royal Marine Gunners promoted under the provisions of the Order in Council before-mentioned.

“We further beg leave to recommend that Officers so promoted for service in the Royal Naval Division should be permitted to retire either after 10 years' commissioned service or on attaining the age of 55, on the same conditions as those applicable to Quartermasters, Royal Marines.

“The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals.”

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
