

War Office, 11th November, 1914.

His MAJESTY THE KING has approved of the grant of the Medal for Distinguished Conduct in the Field to the undermentioned Non-commissioned Officers and Men, for acts of gallantry and devotion to Duty, whilst serving with the Expeditionary Force:—

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name.	Regiment or Corps, &c.	Action for which commended.
8390	Lance-Corporal	Bowstead, J. ...	4th Hussars ...	For gallantry near Berthen, on 13th October, in bringing in a wounded officer under heavy fire.
6535	Lance-Corporal	Stanford, W. ...	Do. do. ...
25706	Battery Serjeant-Major	Morgan, W. ...	80th Battery, Royal Field Artillery	For coolness of behaviour and good example during the whole of the action at Le Cateau on 26th August; and after the guns had been withdrawn, bandaging and bringing in wounded.
29151	Serjeant ...	Shufflebottom, E. ...	80th Battery, Royal Field Artillery	For loading up ammunition wagons at Le Cateau, on 26th August, under very heavy shell fire, after one train had been destroyed.
13924	Shoering-Smith Corporal	Sanderson, W. ...	80th Battery, Royal Field Artillery	For great coolness in leading up ammunition wagons and gun limbers at Le Cateau on 26th August, under very heavy shell, machine gun, and rifle fire.
32255	Serjeant ...	Ironside, R. S. ...	120th Battery, Royal Field Artillery	Although wounded at St. Ghislain, on 23rd August, he continued to act as No. 1 of his sub-section under heavy gun and rifle fire, and for subsequent valuable work.
28282	Battery Quarter-Master-Serjeant	Morgan, H. ...	119th Battery, Royal Field Artillery	For gallant conduct at Eloges, on 24th August, in limbering up the guns of a section, and then bringing up limbers and teams for the other four guns under a heavy shell and rifle fire, thereby enabling the guns to be got away.
7941	Serjeant ...	Howard, E. ...	1st Royal Lancaster Regiment	At Meterin, on 13th October, when within 200 yards of the enemy in the open, noticing that the twelve men on the left of his platoon were not firing, though he shouted to them to carry on, he crawled along the line at very great risk to make them do so, but found that the twelve were dead.
9845	Private ...	Rowley, C. ...	1st Royal Warwickshire Regiment	At Meterin, on 13th October, volunteered to go back for ammunition from the forward firing line to the support trench, a distance of about 300 yards, under a heavy rifle fire. He succeeded in his mission, and later on took a message over the same piece of ground under the same conditions.
4111	Serjeant ...	Webb, H. ...	1st Devonshire Regiment	At Givenchy, on 25th October, carried on the defence of his trenches for two or three hours after the officers of his company had been killed or wounded. During this time he kept the men together, in spite of the fact that his right flank was exposed and that darkness was approaching.
7688	Serjeant ...	Duckers, H. ...	2nd Lancashire Fusiliers	For excellent handling of his platoon during the action at Meterin on 13th October, and for consistent good work in various engagements.
8786	Lance-Corporal	Denton, J. ...	1st Duke of Cornwall's Light Infantry.	For great gallantry at Beaupuits, on the night of the 18th October, when the enemy's fire had set alight to two ricks, in endeavouring to extinguish (when under a heavy cross fire from machine guns) the flames, which were already showing clearly to the enemy the position of the battalion's trenches.
8636	Lance-Corporal	Cox, H. ...	Do. do. ...
7984	Lance-Corporal	Stoneman, W. H. ...	Do. do. ...
