FRIDAY, 13 NOVEMBER, 1914.

BY THE KING.

A PROCLAMATION

PROHIBITING UNDER SECTION 8 OF "THE CUSTOMS AND INLAND REVENUE ACT, 1879," AND SECTION 1 OF "THE EXPORTATION OF ARMS ACT, 1900," AND SECTION 1 OF "THE CUSTOMS (EXPORTATION PROHIBITION) ACT, 1914," THE EXPORTATION FROM THE UNITED KINGDOM OF WARLIKE STORES.

GEORGE R.I.

WHEREAS by Section 8 of "The Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1879," it is enacted that the exportation of arms, ammunition, and gunpowder, military and naval stores, and any articles which We shall judge capable of being converted into or made useful in increasing the quantity of military or naval stores, provisions, or any sort of victual which may be used as food for man may be prohibited by Proclamation:

And whereas by Section 1 of "The Exportation of Arms Act, 1900," it is enacted that We may by proclamation prohibit the exportation of all or any of the following articles, namely, arms, ammunition, military and naval stores, and any article which We shall judge capable of being converted into or made useful in increasing the quantity of arms, ammunition, or military or naval stores, to any country or place therein named whenever We shall judge such prohibition to be expedient in order to prevent such arms, ammunition, military or naval stores, being used against Our subjects or forces or against any forces engaged or which may be engaged in military or naval operations in co-operation with Our forces:

And whereas by Section 1 of "The Customs (Exportation Prohibition) Act, 1914," it is enacted that Section 8 of the aforesaid Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1879, shall have effect whilst a state of war in which We are engaged exists as if in addition to the articles therein mentioned there were included all other articles of every description

And whereas it is further enacted by Section 2 of "The Customs (Exportation Prohibition) Act, 1914," that any Proclamation or Order in Council made under Section 8, as so amended, of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1879, may whilst a state of war exists be varied or added to by an Order made by the Lords of the Council on the recommendation of the Board of Trade:

And whereas various Proclamations and Orders dated respectively the 3rd, 5th, 10th, 20th, and 28th August, the 1st, 8th, 11th, and 25th September, and the 6th and 19th October, prohibiting the exportation of certain articles therein referred to from the United Kingdom to certain or all destinations, have been issued in pursuance of the aforesaid powers:

And whereas it is expedient that these various Proclamations and Orders should be consolidated, with amendments and additions, and that such Proclamations and Orders should be revoked:

And whereas the articles, other than arms, ammunition, or military or naval stores hereinafter enumerated are articles which We judge capable of being converted into or made useful in increasing the quantity of arms, ammunition, or military or naval stores:

And whereas in order to prevent such arms, ammunition, or military or naval stores being used against Our subjects or forces or against any forces engaged or which may be engaged in military or naval operations in co-operation with Our forces, We have deemed it expedient to prohibit the exportation of the articles hereinafter enumerated:

Now, therefore, We have thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, declaring, and it is hereby declared, that the above-mentioned Proclamations and Orders be and the same are hereby revoked:

GOD SAVE THE KING

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of November, 1914.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.

Viscount Allendale

Lord Chamberlain

Mr. Samuel.

WHEREAS by the Aliens Restriction (Isle of Man) Order, 1914 (herein after referred to as the "Principal Order"), His Majesty has been pleased to impose restrictions on aliens resident in the Isle of Man, and to make various provisions for carrying those restrictions into effect

And whereas it is desirable to extend and amend the said Order in manner hereinafter provided:

NOW, THEREFORE, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. The following Article shall be inserted after Article 10 of the Principal Order.—

"10A. An alien enemy shall not, after the 12th day of November, 1914, for any purpose assume or use, or purport to assume or use, or continue the assumption or use of any name other than that by which he was ordinarily known at the date of the commencement of the War.

"Where an alien enemy carries on, or purports or continues to carry on, or is a member of a partnership or firm which carries on, or purports or continues to carry on, any trade or business under any name other than that under which the trade or business was carried on at the date of the commencement of the War, he shall, for the purposes of this Order, be deemed to be using, or purporting or continuing to use, a name other than that by which he was ordinarily known at the date of the commencement of the War.

"Nothing in this Article shall affect the right of a woman who, after the commencement of the War, marries an alien enemy to use the name which she acquires on her marriage.

"A Secretary of State may, if it appears desirable, in any particular case, grant an exemption from the provisions of this Article."

2. This Order may be cited as "The Aliens Restriction (Change of Name) Isle of Man Order, 1914."

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of November, 1914.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 113, and of the Act of the 17th and 18th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 84, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 14th day of May, in the year 1914, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 113, and of the Act of the 17th and 18th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 84, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for apportioning the income of the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Saint Giles, Cripplegate, in the City of London, in the County of Middlesex, and in the Diocese of London, between that Benefice and four other Benefices, namely, the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Saint Clement, City Road, the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Saint Mary, Edmonton, the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Saint Pancras, all of which Benefices are also situate in the said County of Middlesex, and in the said Diocese of London, and the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Tillingham, which said last-named Benefice is situate in the County of Essex, and in the Diocese of Chelmsford.

"Whereas the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul in London (hereinafter called 'the said Dean and Chapter of Saint Paul's') are the Patrons of the said Benefice of Saint Giles, Cripplegate, and also of the four other Benefices aforesaid.

"And whereas the present endowments of the said Benefice of Saint Giles, Cripplegate, comprise amongst other things a sum of £16,549 7s. 11d. India three pounds per centum per annum Stock held by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, in trust for, and for the benefit of, the Vicar or Incumbent of the said Benefice of Saint Giles, Cripplegate, and as part of the endowments of the said Benefice.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the said Benefices of Saint Clement, City Road, Saint Mary, Edmonton, Saint Pancras, and Tillingham, are at present insufficiently endowed, and that after the transfer to, or for the benefit of, the Vicars or Incumbents of the said Benefices of such sums of Stock as are hereinafter mentioned, the said Benefice of Saint Giles, Cripplegate, will still be sufficiently endowed.

"And whereas it has been represented to us, and we are of opinion, that it is desirable that additional provision should be made for the Cure of Souls within the Cures attached to the said Benefices of Saint Clement, City Road, Saint Mary, Edmonton, Saint Pancras, and Tillingham, by means of that apportionment of the income of the said Benefice of Saint Giles, Cripplegate, which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas the said Benefice of Saint Giles, Cripplegate, is now full of a Clerk, the Vicar or Incumbent thereof being the Reverend Nigel Mackenzie Morgan-Brown.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Arthur Foley, Bishop of London, acting as such Bishop, and with the consent of the Right Reverend John Edwin, Bishop of Chelmsford, acting as such Bishop (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed this Scheme, and sealed the same with their several Episcopal Seals), and with the consent of the said Dean and Chapter of Saint Paul's (in testimony whereof they have caused their Common or Capitular Seal to be affixed to this Scheme) and also with the consent of the said Nigel Mackenzie Morgan-Brown, acting as the Incumbent of the said Benefice of Saint Giles, Cripplegate, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this Scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and as from the 25th day of December, in the year 1916, all those separate sums of Stock (together constituting all that the said sum of £16,549 7s. 11d. India three pounds per centum per annum Stock) which are specified in Column II. of the Schedule to this Scheme appended, and which at present are held by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, in trust for, and for the benefit of, the Vicar or Incumbent of the said Benefice of Saint Giles, Cripplegate, shall be transferred from such Benefice to the Benefices mentioned in Column I. of the said Schedule, and set opposite to the respective sums of Stock specified in Column II. as aforesaid, and shall be annexed to such Benefices respectively and form part of the endowments thereof.

"And provided always that the whole of the First Fruits and Tenths, now payable to the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty in respect of the said Benefice of Saint Giles, Cripplegate, shall continue to be payable by the vicar or Incumbent of the said benefice

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

Column I. Name of Benefice to be augmented.	Column II. Apportionment out of India £3 per Centum per Annum Stock held by Ecclesiastical Commissioners.
City Road, Saint Clement	6,666 13 4
Edmonton, Saint Mary...	3,333 6 8
Saint Pancras	3,333 6 8
Tillingham	3,216 1 3"

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrars of the said Dioceses of London and Chelmsford respectively

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of November, 1914.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 37, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 29th day of October, in the year 1914, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 37, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property in the Parish of Saint Augustine, in the City and County of the City of Bristol, now vested in us.

“Whereas under and by virtue of the two Indentures, particulars whereof are set forth in the Schedule hereunder written, the lands and hereditaments situate in the Parish of Saint Augustine, in the City of Bristol aforesaid, and particularly described in the same Indentures and Schedule, became, with their appurtenances, and are now vested in us.

“And whereas none of the said lands and hereditaments are subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant, but are now in our possession, but some portions thereof on account of their character or situation are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

“And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands and hereditaments, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

“Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands and hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid, under and by virtue of the said Indentures, or either of them, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary Stock or other Public Securities in England.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference:—

Dates of the Indentures.	Names and Descriptions of the Parties thereto.	Description of Property.	Area.
20 October, 1884	The Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the City of Bristol, of the first part, Herbert John Gladstone, Esquire, and Robert William Duff, Esquire, two of the Lords Commissioners of Her (late) Majesty's Treasury, of the second part, and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the third part.	Land, formerly part of the site of the Episcopal Palace at Bristol, together with the ruins of the Palace standing thereon, shown within the red verge on the plan drawn on the deed.	1580 square yards or thereabouts.
2 February, 1906	The Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the City of Bristol, of the one part, and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the other part.	Land coloured pink on the plan drawn on the deed.	546 square yards or thereabouts.”

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the Diocese of Bristol.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of November, 1914.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 113, and of the Act of the 17th and 18th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 84, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 15th day of October, in the year 1914, in the words and figures following, that is to say.—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 113, and of the Act of the 17th and 18th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 84, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for apportioning the income of the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Saint Martin in the Fields in the City of Westminster, and in the Diocese of London, between that Benefice and a certain other Benefice, namely, the Benefice (being a Rectory) of Stepney, which said last-named Benefice is situate in the County of Middlesex, and in the said Diocese of London.

“Whereas the Bishop of the said Diocese of London is the Patron in right of his See of the said Benefice of Saint Martin in the Fields, and also of the said Benefice of Stepney.

“And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the said Benefice of Stepney is at present insufficiently endowed, and that the said Benefice of Saint Martin in the Fields has endowments of such an amount that, after the charge hereinafter recommended and proposed to be made shall have been placed upon the same endowments, the said Benefice of Saint Martin in the Fields will still be sufficiently endowed.

“And whereas the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Arthur Foley, now Bishop of the said Diocese of London, has represented to us, and we are of opinion, that it is desirable that additional provision should be made for the Cure of Souls within the Parish of Stepney aforesaid, by means of that apportionment of the income of the said Benefice of Saint Martin in the Fields which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

“And whereas the said Benefice of Saint Martin in the Fields is now vacant.

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Randall Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury, acting as Archbishop of the Province within which each of the said two Benefices is situate, (in testimony of which consent he has signed this Scheme, and sealed the same with his Archiepiscopal Seal), and with the consent of the said Arthur Foley, Bishop of the said Diocese of London, acting as such Bishop, and also as the Patron in right of his See of each of the said two Benefices as aforesaid (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme, and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal) We, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this Scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and as from the day of the date on which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette, all the tithe-rent-charges, glebe lands, and all (if any) other the endowments which now belong to the said Benefice of Saint Martin in the Fields, or which may hereafter belong to the same Benefice, shall be charged and for ever thereafter chargeable in favour of the Incumbent for the time being of the said Benefice of Stepney with the annual sum or yearly charge hereinafter mentioned, that is to say a clear annual sum or yearly charge of £250, the same annual sum or yearly charge of £250 to be as from the day aforesaid due and payable to the Incumbent of the said Benefice of Stepney, and the same annual sum or yearly charge to be apportionable between any outgoing Incumbent of the Benefice of Stepney or his representatives on the one hand, and his successors in the same incumbency on the other hand; and to be receivable by the Incumbent in whose favour it is charged as aforesaid by equal quarterly payments on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in every year.

“Provided always that if at any time the Incumbent for the time being of the said Benefice of Saint Martin in the Fields shall, by any deed duly executed by him under his hand and seal in accordance with the provisions of any Statute in that behalf enabling him, grant convey and annex to the said Benefice of Stepney any part or parts of the rectorial endowments belonging to the said Benefice of Saint Martin in the Fields which shall, in the opinion of the Bishop of London for the time being, be a just and fair equivalent, or not less than an equivalent for the said yearly charge of £250, hereby proposed to be created as aforesaid, then the same annual sum or yearly charge of £250 shall thereupon and thenceforth cease and determine, and be no longer payable as hereinbefore recommended and proposed.

“And provided always that the whole of the First Fruits and Tenths now payable to the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty in respect of the said Benefice of Saint Martin in the Fields shall continue to be payable by the Vicar or Incumbent of the said Benefice.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of London.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of November, 1914.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 15th day of October, in the year 1914, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson, or perpetual right of patronage of, and presentation to, the Church and Cure (hereinafter called ‘the said Benefice’) of Penistone, in the County of York, and in the Diocese of Wakefield.

“Whereas the advowson, or perpetual right of patronage of, and presentation to, the said Benefice of Penistone is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession free from incumbrances in Sir Alexander Wentworth Macdonald-Bosville Macdonald of the Isles, Baronet.

“And whereas the said Alexander Wentworth Macdonald-Bosville Macdonald of the Isles is desirous that the whole advowson, or perpetual right of patronage of, and presentation to, the said Benefice of Penistone, now vested in him as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Reverend George Rodney, now Bishop of Wakefield, and his successors in the same Bishoprick.

“And whereas the said George Rodney, Bishop of Wakefield, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness, and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the Diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited, or by some or one of them, is made necessary, he, the said George Rodney, Bishop of Wakefield, has executed this Scheme as hereinafter-mentioned.

“And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have agreed and undertaken, as from the date upon which the transfer of the patronage of the said Benefice of Penistone which is hereinbefore mentioned, and hereinafter recommended and proposed, shall take effect, to make a grant of a yearly sum of 100*l.* in augmentation of the said Benefice out of the Common Fund created by the said Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, and in these circumstances the said transfer of patronage will, in our opinion, tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the Parish or District in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say in the Parish of Penistone.

“And whereas the said grant of the said yearly sum of 100*l.* will, after the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme, be made and secured by an Instrument to be executed by us under our Common Seal, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the 29th and 30th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 111

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Alexander Wentworth Macdonald-Bosville Macdonald of the Isles (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme), and with the consent of the said George Rodney, Bishop of Wakefield, (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme, and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Penistone, now vested in him the said Alexander Wentworth Macdonald-Bosville Macdonald of the Isles as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said George Rodney, Bishop of Wakefield, and his successors in the same Bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said George Rodney, Bishop of Wakefield, and his successors in the same Bishoprick for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Wakefield.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 15th day of October, in the year 1914, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson, or perpetual right of patronage of, and presentation to, the Church and Cure (hereinafter called ‘the said Benefice’) of Saint Alban, Coopersale, in the County of Essex, and in the Diocese of Chelmsford.

“Whereas the advowson, or perpetual right of patronage of, and presentation to, the said Benefice of Saint Alban, Coopersale, is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession free from incumbrances in Henry Lindsay Archer Houblon, of Welford Park, in the County of Berks, late a Captain in Your Majesty's Army.

“And whereas the said Henry Lindsay Archer Houblon is desirous that the whole advowson, or perpetual right of patronage of, and presentation to, the said Benefice of Saint Alban, Coopersale, now vested in him as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Reverend John Edwin, now Bishop of Chelmsford, and his successors in the same Bishoprick.

“And whereas the said John Edwin, Bishop of Chelmsford, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness, and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the Diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore-mentioned Act recited, or by some or one of them, is made necessary, he, the said John Edwin, Bishop of Chelmsford, has executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

“And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said Benefice of Saint Alban, Coopersale, which is hereinbefore mentioned, and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will, in our opinion, tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the Parish or District in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say in the New Parish of Saint Alban, Coopersale.

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Henry Lindsay Archer Houblon (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme) and with the consent of the said John Edwin, Bishop of Chelmsford, (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal), We, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Saint Alban, Coopersale, now vested in him the said Henry Lindsay Archer Houblon as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said John Edwin, Bishop of Chelmsford, and his successors in the same Bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said John Edwin, Bishop of Chelmsford, and his successors in the same Bishoprick for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, of or any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Chelmsford.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section 16 of the Pluralities Act, 1838, as amended by the Pluralities Act, 1850, it is, amongst other things, enacted, “That whenever it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, with respect to his own Diocese, and whenever it shall be represented to him by the Bishop of any Diocese, or by the Bishops of any two Dioceses, that two or more Benefices, or that one or more Benefice or Benefices, and one or more Spiritual Sinecure Rectory or Rectories, Vicarage or Vicarages, in his or their Diocese or Dioceses, being either in the same Parish or contiguous to each other, and of which the aggregate population shall not exceed 1,500 persons, may, with advantage to the interests of religion, be united into one Benefice, the said Archbishop of the Province shall inquire into the circumstances of the case; and if on such Inquiry it shall appear to him that such union may be usefully made, and will not be of inconvenient extent, and that the Patron or Patrons of the said Benefices, Sinecure Rectory or Rectories, Vicarage or Vicarages respectively, is or are consenting thereto, such Consent being signified in writing under the hands of such Patron or Patrons, the said Archbishop shall, six weeks before certifying such Inquiry and Consent to His Majesty as hereinafter directed, cause, with respect to his own Diocese, a statement in writing of the facts, and in other cases a copy in writing of the aforesaid Representation, to be affixed on or near the principal outer door of the Church, or in some public and conspicuous place in each of such Benefices, Sinecure Rectories or Vicarages, with notice to any person or persons interested that he, she, or they may, within such six weeks, show cause in writing under his, her, or their hand or hands, to the said Archbishop against such union; and if no sufficient cause be shown within such time, the said Archbishop shall certify the Inquiry and Consent aforesaid to His Majesty in Council; and thereupon it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council to make and issue an Order or Orders for uniting such Benefices, Sinecure Rectory or Rectories, Vicarage or Vicarages, into one Benefice, with cure of souls, for ecclesiastical purposes only."

And whereas the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Randall Thomas, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, hath, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Certificate in writing, bearing date the 29th day of June, 1914, in the words following:—

"We, Randall Thomas, Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, Primate of all England and Metropolitan, do hereby certify to Your Majesty in Council.

"That the Right Reverend John Edwin, Lord Bishop of Chelmsford, as Bishop of the Diocese within which are situate the Vicarage of Great Maplestead and the Perpetual Curacy of Little Maplestead, both in the County of Essex, having represented unto Us that the said Benefices are contiguous to each other, and of which the aggregate population does not exceed 1,500 persons, might with advantage to the interests of religion be united into one Benefice, We inquired into the circumstances of the case.

"That on such Inquiry it appeared to Us that such union might be usefully made, and would not be of inconvenient extent, and that the Grand Priory of the Order of the Hospital of Saint John of Jerusalem in England, being the Patrons entitled to present to the Vicarage of Great Maplestead and also to the Perpetual Curacy of Little Maplestead, have consented to the proposed union.

"That six weeks and upwards before certifying such Inquiry and Consent to Your Majesty in Council We caused a copy in writing of the aforesaid Representation of the said Lord Bishop to be affixed to the principal outer door of the Parish Church of each of the said Benefices with notice to any person or persons interested that he she or they might, within such six weeks, show cause in writing under his her or their hand or hands to us the said Archbishop against such union, and no such cause has been shown.

"The Representation of the said Lord Bishop of Chelmsford, Our Inquiry into the circumstances of the case, the Statement of Circumstances in reply thereto, the Consent in writing of the said Patrons, and the copies of the Representation and Notices before-mentioned, are hereunto annexed.

"And We do hereby certify the Inquiry and Consent aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may, in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do, make and issue an Order for uniting the said Benefices into one Benefice with Cure of Souls for Ecclesiastical purposes only.

"RANDALL CANTUAR."

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the Vicarage of Great Maplestead, situate in the County of Essex, and Diocese of Chelmsford, and the Perpetual Curacy of Little Maplestead, situate in the same County and Diocese, shall be united into one Benefice with Cure of Souls for ecclesiastical purposes only.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 30th day of October, 1914, in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas we are of opinion that the duties and responsibilities of Non-Commissioned Officers and Men belonging to the Royal Marine Garrison at Cromarty in certain cases warrant the grant of additional remuneration:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction the Rates of Allowances and Extra Pay shown in the annexed Schedule, with retrospective effect so as to cover payment in respect of any of those duties which have actually been carried out since the Garrison has been in occupation.

"We would further submit that such Allowances and Extra Pay may be payable, at our discretion, to any additional men whose employment on the duties specified may become necessary.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of November, 1914

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by the Burial Act, 1900, it is provided that, in case it appear to His Majesty in Council, upon the representation of the Local Government Board, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial grounds, or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that no new burial ground shall be opened in such city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial grounds, or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require: Provided always that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please His Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered: Provided also that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and the Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such Parish:

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the Parish of West Tarring, in the County of West Sussex (Civil Parish of Worthing), and the Parish of St. Paul, Cullercoats, in the County of Northumberland (Civil Parish of Whitley and Monkseaton), respectively, ten days' previous notice of their intention in that behalf, have made representations to His Majesty in Council that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in the Civil Parishes of Worthing and Whitley and Monkseaton, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, and that burials should be discontinued therein as hereinafter directed:

And whereas His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the 17th day of September, 1914, to give notice of such representations, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council, on the 29th day of October, 1914, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that no new burial grounds shall be opened in the said Civil Parishes save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, and that burials therein shall be discontinued as follows, viz.:—

WORTHING.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Saint Andrew, West Tarring, in the County of West Sussex (Civil Parish of Worthing), and in the Churchyard, with the following exceptions, that is to say.—

(a) In any vault or walled grave now existing in the said Churchyard burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b) In any earthen grave now existing in the said Churchyard the burial may be allowed of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons heretofore buried in such grave, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

(c) In the said Churchyard in grave spaces in which no interment has heretofore taken place, the burial may be allowed of the bodies of Charles Botting, Elizabeth Botting, Jesse Clupper, Sarah Ann Clupper, Fanny Clupper, Luke Clupper, Charlotte Foster, Joseph Gardner, Mary Gardner, John Kentish Harvey, Rebekah Harvey, George Goldring, Ruth Goldring, James

Long, Jane Long, George Lord, William Marsh, Harriet Marsh, Edwin Potten, James Sayers and Alan Tyrrell, at their decease, subject to the condition that no part of the coffins containing the bodies shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

WHITLEY AND MONKSEATON.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of St. Paul, Cullercoats, in the County of Northumberland (Civil Parish of Whitley and Monkseaton), and in the Churchyard, with the following exceptions, that is to say —

(a) In any vault or walled grave now existing in the said Churchyard burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b) In any earthen grave now existing in the said Churchyard the burial may be allowed of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons heretofore buried in such grave, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of November, 1914.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by the Burial Act, 1900, it is provided that, in case it appears to His Majesty in Council, upon the representation of the Local Government Board, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require: Provided always that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please His Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered: Provided also that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and the Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such Parish.

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the Parish of Llanferras, in the county of Denbigh, ten days' previous notice of their intention in that behalf, have made a representation to His Majesty in Council that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in the Civil Parish of Llanferras aforesaid, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, and that the burials should be discontinued therein as hereinafter directed.

And whereas, by an Order in Council dated the 21st day of September, 1914, notice of such representation was given, and it was ordered that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council, on the 2nd day of November, 1914, and that the said Order in Council be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such representation one month before the said 2nd day of November, 1914.

And whereas the said Order in Council of the 21st day of September, 1914, has been duly published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed in the manner directed by the said Order.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the opening of any new burial-ground in the said Civil Parish of Llanferras, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, be and the same is hereby prohibited, and that burials in the said Parish be discontinued as follows, viz. —

Llanferras.—Forthwith and entirely in the Church of Saint Berres, Parish of Llanferras, county of Denbigh; and in the old portion of the churchyard, with the following exceptions, that is to say —

In the undermentioned earthen graves now existing in the said portion of the Churchyard, the burial may be allowed of the bodies of the following persons at their decease, viz. :—

(1) Robert Edwards, of Pentre Carrig, in the said Parish, in the grave of his wife,

(2) John Hughes, of Maeshafn, in the said Parish, in the grave of his wife, subject in each case to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

Whereas the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Stafford (hereinafter called the Corporation), being the Urban District Council for the said borough, have made application to the Local Government Board for the issue of a Provisional Order under Sections 297 and 303 of the Public Health Act, 1875, to partially repeal, alter, or amend the Stafford Corporation Act, 1876, so as—

(1) To empower the Corporation to use for the manufacture and storage of gas and residual products certain lands which have been or are proposed to be acquired by them, namely—

(a) A piece or pieces of land containing 7,383 square yards or thereabouts situate in the said borough, and bounded on the north-west by Chell Road, on the north-east by Balk passage, on the south-east by Broad Street, and on the south-west by cottages fronting on Broad Eye; and

(b) A piece of land containing 1,322 square yards or thereabouts, and bounded on the north by the existing gasworks of the Corporation, on the west by the River Sow, on or towards the south by land belonging to William Francis Fowke, and on the south-east partly by St. Mary's Broad Eye Mission Church and partly by Chell Road,

(2) To increase the pressure at which gas is required by the said local Act to be supplied by the Corporation;

(3) To provide that the standard for illuminating power of the gas supplied by the Corporation be abolished and that a calorific standard be substituted therefor; and

(4) For the several purposes of the Application or for purposes connected with, incidental to, or consequent on those purposes to make any such alteration or amendment of the said Local Act, or of any other Local Act, or of any Act confirming a Provisional Order made in pursuance of any of the Sanitary Acts or of the Public Health Act, 1875, in force in the said borough as may be necessary or desirable,

And whereas it is proposed that a Provisional Order should be issued in compliance with the said Application,

And whereas the Corporation have also made application for sanction to borrow the sum of £20,000 for the provision of vertical retorts in connection with their gas undertaking;

Notice is hereby given, that H. R. Hooper, Esquire, M.Inst.C.E., one of the Inspectors of the said Board, will attend at the Guild Hall, Stafford, on Tuesday the twenty-fourth day of November, 1914, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, to hold a Local Inquiry into the subject-matter of the said Applications and the Proposed Provisional Order

And notice is hereby further given, that any person interested may attend at such Inquiry and be heard with reference to the said Applications and the proposed Provisional Order

As witness my hand this eleventh day of November, 1914, at the Office of the Local Government Board, Whitehall, London.

F. J. Walls,
Assistant Secretary.

ORDER OF THE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES.

(DATED 11TH NOVEMBER 1914.)

ANIMALS (LANDING FROM IRELAND)
CONSOLIDATION AND AMENDMENT
ORDER OF 1914.

The Board of Agriculture and Fisheries, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in them under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1914, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows

PART I.

LANDING REGULATIONS.

Regulation of Landing of Irish Animals in Great Britain.

1.—(1) Cattle, sheep, goats or swine brought from Ireland shall not be landed in Great Britain unless—

(a) the animals have been put on board at a port specified in the First Schedule to this Order; and

(b) the landing is at a Landing Place defined by Order of the Board as a Landing Place for Irish animals.

(2) The animals shall be landed in such manner and at such times as the Superintendent of the Landing Place shall direct

(3) When landed they shall be under the supervision and control of an Inspector of the Board; and, until his arrival, they shall be under the supervision and control of the Superintendent of the Landing Place.

Restrictions on Use of Landing Places.

2. Subject to the provisions of the Order defining a Landing Place for Irish animals, no cattle, sheep, goats or swine other than such as are landed under this Order shall be landed at or be moved into the Landing Place.

Examination of Animals.

3.—(1) Each cargo of animals landed at a Landing Place under this Order shall on landing be driven to a reception lair or reception lairs approved by an Inspector of the Board for reception of the cargo, and the animals shall be there detained until their movement from the Landing Place is permitted by an Inspector of the Board, which permission shall not be granted unless and until the whole cargo has been examined by a Veterinary Inspector of the Board, and until the expiration of ten hours after the landing of the last animal of the cargo.

(2) If two or more cargoes or parts of cargoes are permitted to be in a reception lair at the same time, they shall for the purposes of this Order be treated as one cargo.

(3) Until permission has been given for the removal of an animal from the Landing Place it shall not be allowed to come in contact with any animal which does not form, or is not treated as, part of the same cargo.

(4.) If an animal forming part of a cargo dies or is slaughtered on board or before its examination the carcase shall not be removed from the Landing Place where the animal or carcase is landed without the permission of a Veterinary Inspector of the Board.

(5.) The occupier of a Landing Place shall afford such assistance to the Veterinary Inspector as he may require to enable him to examine the animals.

Removal of Animals from Landing Place.

4. All animals landed at a Landing Place shall, subject to permission being given under this Order, be removed by the owner or person in charge thereof from the Landing Place forthwith if such removal is directed by the Superintendent of the Landing Place, and if an animal is not so removed by the owner or person in charge thereof, the occupier of the Landing Place, or the Superintendent thereof acting on behalf of the occupier, shall have power to remove the animal from the Landing Place, and to recover from the owner of the animal at the time of default the costs of and incidental to the removal.

Restrictions on Access to Landing Place.

5. No person, except the officers of Customs and Excise, lairage-men, the Superintendent of the Landing Place, Inspectors of the Board, and such other persons as may be specially authorised in writing by an Inspector of the Board, shall during the time of the landing of the animals be admitted to the landing-stage, pier, quay, or other part of the Landing Place at which the animals are landed, and no person except as aforesaid shall at any time be admitted to any part of the Landing Place which is being used as a reception-lair.

Landing Place Charges.

6. Charges made by the occupier of a Landing Place in respect of animals landed under this Order shall be sanctioned by the Board where the charges relate to the following matters, i.e., landing, lairage, slaughter, or dipping.

Provisions for Movement through District in which a Landing Place is Situate.

7 Regulations made by a Local Authority of the District in which a Landing Place is situate as to movement into or within the District of that Local Authority shall not apply to the landing of animals at the Landing Place, or to their removal therefrom if the animals are consigned from Ireland or from the Landing Place to a place of destination outside the District of such Local Authority, and are moved from a railway loading bank in or adjoining the Landing Place forthwith by railway out of the District of the Local Authority.

Special Provisions Applicable to Landing of Swine.

8. Nothing in this Order shall be deemed to authorise landing in Great Britain of swine brought from Ireland otherwise than in accordance with the Swine-Fever (Movement from Ireland) Orders of 1904 and 1906, but such landing, and the movement of the swine out of the Landing Place, shall be subject to the regulations imposed by this Order.

Restriction on Movement of Store Sheep.

9. Sheep shall not be permitted by an Inspector of the Board to be moved out of the Landing Place unless and until they have been caused to be dipped in the Landing Place, to the satisfaction of the Inspector, by a thorough immersion in a sheep-dip approved by the Board for sheep-scab or purporting to be so approved. Provided that this Article shall not apply to sheep which, in the opinion of the Inspector, are fit and intended for immediate slaughter or are declared in writing by the owner or person in charge thereof to be intended for immediate slaughter. Every such declaration shall be given to the Inspector and retained by him.

Prohibition of Movement of Diseased Animals.

10. An animal which, in the opinion of a Veterinary Inspector of the Board, is affected with, or suspected of, disease as defined in this Order, shall not be moved out of a Landing Place.

PART II.

PROCEDURE IN CASES OF DISEASE OR CALVING.

Procedure in Case of Cattle-Plague, Pleuro-Pneumonia, Foot-and-Mouth Disease, or Sheep-Pox.

11.—(1.) If a Veterinary Inspector of the Board is of opinion that an animal in a Landing Place is affected with or suspected of cattle-plague, pleuro-pneumonia, foot-and-mouth disease, or sheep-pox, he shall so certify and forthwith direct the Landing Place to be closed, and the Inspector shall give notice of such closing to such persons and in such manner as he may think expedient for the purposes of carrying into effect the provisions of this Article.

(2.) Where a certificate has been so made the following Rules shall apply to the Landing Place until the Board by Order otherwise direct:—

Rule 1. Animals shall not be landed at, or moved into or out of, the Landing Place except with, and subject to the conditions imposed by, a Licence of an Inspector of the Board.

Rule 2. Carcases shall not be removed from the Landing Place except with the permission in writing of an Inspector of the Board.

Rule 3. Fodder, litter, dung, utensils, pens, hurdles, or other things shall not be removed from the Landing Place except with the permission in writing of an Inspector of the Board, which permission shall not be granted until such things have been thoroughly disinfected to the satisfaction of the Inspector.

Rule 4. No person shall, unless authorised in writing by an Inspector of the Board, enter any shed or other place, being part of the Landing Place, in which the diseased or suspected animal is or recently has been.

Rule 5. Every person upon leaving any such shed or other place shall thoroughly wash his hands with soap and water and disinfect his boots and clothes.

Rule 6. A person tending a diseased or suspected animal shall not tend any animal not so diseased or suspected except with the permission in writing of an Inspector of the Board.

Rule 7. Where the disease is sheep-pox, Rules 1, 2, and 6 shall apply only to sheep and the carcases of sheep.

Provision as to Disinfection where Foot-and-Mouth Disease exists.

12.—(1.) If an animal brought from Ireland for the purpose of being landed in Great Britain is affected with or suspected of foot-and-mouth disease, the following provisions shall apply whether the animal is so landed or not.

(2.) The animal or its carcase and all animals carried in the same vessel shall only be landed at such place and at such time and in such manner as an Inspector of the Board may direct.

(3.) The parts of the vessel in which the animals have been carried shall be cleansed and disinfected by the owner or charterer of the vessel to the satisfaction of an Inspector of the Board as soon as practicable, and, if so required by a notice given by an Inspector of the Board to the master of the vessel, before any cargo, other than the animals or their carcases, is removed from the vessel.

(4.) All dung of animals, and all partly consumed fodder that has been supplied to the animals, and all litter that has been used for or about the animals, shall be landed and disposed of by destruction or otherwise by the owner or charterer of the vessel in such manner as an Inspector of the Board shall direct.

(5.) Every person who has tended the animals or who shall land from the vessel shall, if so required by an Inspector of the Board, thoroughly wash his hands with soap and water and disinfect his boots and clothes in such manner as the Inspector may direct.

(6.) If any person acts in contravention of this Article, or fails to comply with the provisions thereof, he shall, according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

Procedure in case of Sheep-scab.

13.—(1.) A sheep shall not be moved out of a Landing Place if and so long as it is, in the opinion of a Veterinary Inspector of the Board, affected with or suspected of sheep-scab.

(2.) If a Veterinary Inspector of the Board is of opinion that a sheep in a Landing Place is affected with or suspected of sheep-scab, any other sheep which were brought in the same vessel with the diseased or suspected animal, or which, in the opinion of the Inspector, have been exposed to infection by contact with the diseased or suspected animal or otherwise, shall not be moved out of the Landing Place unless they are accompanied by a licence authorising such movement granted by an Inspector of the Board.

(3.) Sheep authorised by a licence so granted to be moved to a slaughterhouse shall before movement out of the Landing Place be caused to be marked by and at the expense of the owner by the painting or stamping with an indelible composition of red colour of a broad line down the back, and another broad line across the loins of each sheep thus +, each line being not less than nine inches long, and on arrival at the slaughterhouse shall be there detained and be slaughtered by the owner within four days after their arrival at the slaughterhouse.

(4.) Sheep authorised by a licence so granted to be moved to any premises other than a slaughterhouse shall not be moved out of the Landing Place unless and until they have been caused to be dipped in the Landing Place, to the satisfaction of an Inspector of the Board, by a thorough immersion in a sheep-dip approved by the Board for sheep-scab or purporting to be so approved; and sheep moved under the authority of any such licence shall after their arrival at the place of destination specified in the licence, be there detained and isolated from other sheep until an Inspector of the Local Authority is satisfied that they have been dipped, between the seventh and fourteenth days after the date of their previous dipping in the Landing Place, by a thorough immersion in a sheep-dip approved by the Board for sheep-scab or purporting to be so approved, and the movement licence is endorsed by the Inspector with the word "Released" Provided that sheep required to be detained and dipped under this provision may before the expiration of the period within which their dipping is required at the place of destination be moved, without having been so dipped in the place of destination, to a slaughterhouse for immediate slaughter, if such movement is authorised by a licence granted by an Inspector of the Local Authority of the District in which the premises from which the sheep are to be moved are situate Sheep so moved shall be detained at the slaughterhouse and there slaughtered by the owner within four days after their arrival at the slaughterhouse

(5.) Sheep moved with a licence under this Article shall be moved by the nearest available route and without avoidable delay to the place of destination specified in the licence, and not elsewhere, and during the movement the sheep shall, as far as practicable, be kept separate from sheep which are not being moved with a similar licence.

(6.) Every licence under this Article shall forthwith after completion of the movement be delivered up at, or sent by post to, the nearest police station of the District by the person in charge of the sheep at the time of completing the movement.

(7.) A copy of every licence granted under this Article shall be sent by the Inspector granting the same to the Local Authority of the District in which the place of destination is situate

(8.) Where under any Order relating to sheep-scab, or any regulation made thereunder, sheep are required to be dipped under prescribed conditions, the dipping of any sheep under this Order shall, for the purposes of such Order or regulation, be treated as a dipping of the sheep under the prescribed conditions.

(9.) An Isolation Notice under Article 5 of the Sheep-Scab Order of 1905 shall not be served on sheep to which this Article relates in respect of their exposure to the infection of sheep-scab in the Landing Place or previously.

Provision where Sheep-scab is found on Examination before Shipment.

14—(1.) Where in the opinion of a Veterinary Inspector of the Department of Agriculture and Technical Instruction for Ireland an animal intended for conveyance to Great Britain is affected with or suspected of sheep-scab, it shall be unlawful to land the animal in Great Britain, and the provisions of Article 13 of this Order shall apply to sheep which have been exposed to infection by contact with the diseased or suspected animal intended for conveyance to Great Britain.

(2.) For the purposes of this Article a certificate by an Inspector of the said Department that an animal is affected with, or suspected of, sheep-scab, or that an animal has been exposed to infection by contact with an animal so affected or suspected, shall be conclusive evidence of those facts.

Procedure in Case of Anthrax.

15.—(1) If a Veterinary Inspector of the Board is of opinion that an animal in a Landing Place is affected with, or suspected of, anthrax, he shall so inform the Local Authority and the Medical Officer of Health of the Sanitary District.

(2.) Article 10 (Disposal of Carcasses) and Article 11 (Precautions to be adopted with respect to Milk) of the Anthrax Order of 1910 shall apply, but otherwise that Order shall not apply.

Procedure in Case of Calving Cows

16. A cow which has calved during the voyage from Ireland or in the Landing Place or port of landing shall not be moved from the Landing Place until such movement is permitted by an Inspector of the Board, which permission shall in no case be granted until the Inspector is satisfied that twenty-four hours have expired since the time of calving

Exemption of Landing Places from certain Provisions in Orders of the Board.

17.—(1.) A Landing Place shall not be declared to be an Infected Place under any Order of the Board, and any provision in any such Order which relates to Infected Places shall not apply to a Landing Place.

(2.) A Detention Notice or Isolation Notice under the Sheep-Scab Order of 1905, or any Order amending that Order, shall not be served in relation to any sheep in a Landing Place

PART III.

GENERAL.

Exemption from Regulations of Sheep and Swine Moved for Immediate Slaughter.

18. Sheep which are being moved from a Landing Place for immediate slaughter under a licence granted by an Inspector of the Board, and swine which are being so moved to a bacon factory or slaughterhouse under a licence granted under the Swine-Fever (Movement from Ireland) Order of 1904, shall not be subject to any restriction on movement imposed by regulations made by the Local Authority of any District.

Provision of Overall Clothes.

19. The occupier of a Landing Place shall at all times provide to the satisfaction of the Board proper and suitable suits of overall clothes for the use of lairage-men and other persons entering the Landing Place, to be worn at such times as an Inspector of the Board may direct.

Food and Water.

20—(1) Animals landed under this Order at a Landing Place shall, until they are taken charge of by the owners or consignees, be supplied by the occupier of the Landing Place, or the Superintendent thereof acting on behalf of the occupier, with a proper and sufficient supply of food and water, and the expenses incurred by them in respect thereof shall be defrayed by the owners or consignees of the animals, and may be recovered by such occupier from the owners or consignees in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(2.) The animals shall, after they have been taken charge of by the owners or consignees, be supplied by the owners or consignees with a proper and sufficient supply of food and water.

(3.) If an animal remains without a proper and sufficient supply of food or water in contravention of the provisions of this Article, the occupier of the Landing Place and the Superintendent thereof, and the owner and the consignee and the person in charge of the animal, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts or omissions, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894; and it shall lie on the person liable to supply food and water to the animal when charged to prove the proper and sufficient supply of food or water or both, and the time when the same was so supplied.

(4.) An Inspector of the Board may in any such case require the detention of the animal in the Landing Place until it has received a proper and sufficient supply of food and water; and, until the Inspector is satisfied that the animal has received it, the animal shall not be moved from the Landing Place.

Disinfection of Landing Place, &c.

21. An Inspector of the Board may give notice to the occupier or Superintendent of a Landing Place requiring the cleansing and disinfection by such occupier of any portion of the Landing Place, or any fittings, pens, hurdles or other things that have been used in connection with the landing of animals brought from Ireland, and when such notice shall have been given, that portion of the Landing Place, or those things, as the case may be, shall not be used for animals unless and until the same shall have been cleansed and disinfected to the satisfaction of an Inspector of the Board.

Power to exclude Persons.

22.—(1.) An Inspector of the Board or the Superintendent of a Landing Place is hereby empowered to affix at or near the entrance thereof or of any building therein a notice forbidding persons to enter therein without the permission mentioned in the notice, and thereupon any person who enters or goes into, on, or over such premises without that permission shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(2) An Inspector of the Board or the Superintendent of a Landing Place is hereby empowered to direct any person to quit such Landing Place, or any particular building, lair, landing-stage, pier, quay, or other portion thereof, and thereupon any person who fails to quit such premises on direction as aforesaid shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

Disinfection of Persons and Clothes.

23. An Inspector of the Board or the Superintendent of a Landing Place is hereby empowered to affix at or near the entrance thereof or of any building therein a notice to the effect that persons before leaving such Landing Place or building will be required to disinfect themselves and their clothes in the manner specified in such notice, and thereupon every person shall disinfect himself and his clothes accordingly.

General Power of Detention

24. If it appears to an Inspector of the Board with respect to any carcass, fodder, litter, dung, or other thing brought in the same vessel with animals brought from Ireland, that disease may be thereby introduced, he may seize and detain the same; and he shall forthwith report the facts to the Board, who may give such directions as they think fit, either for the destruction, disinfection or further detention thereof or for the delivery thereof to the owner on such conditions, if any (including payment by the owner of expenses incurred by them in respect of detention thereof), as they think fit.

Conditional Permits.

25 An Inspector of the Board may impose conditions on the removal of anything from a Landing Place for which a permission granted by an Inspector is required, and if any person fails to comply with any such condition, which is specified in the permission, and which he is thereby required to observe, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

Movement within a Landing Place.

26. Notwithstanding any provision in this Order, an animal may, with the permission of an Inspector of the Board, and shall forthwith, if so directed by any such Inspector, be moved from a reception lair or other part of the Landing Place to any other reception lair or part of the Landing Place authorised or directed by the Inspector.

Injured Animals.

27. If a Veterinary Inspector of the Board is of opinion that an animal in a Landing Place is mortally injured, or so severely injured, or so diseased, or in such physical condition that it is cruel to keep it alive, he may require the person in charge of the animal to slaughter it forthwith with such instruments or appliances and with such precautions and in such manner as to inflict as little suffering as practicable, and if the person so required shall refuse or neglect to do so, or if there is no person in charge present in the Landing Place, the Inspector may cause the animal to be slaughtered.

Duties of Local Authority and Police.

28. The Local Authority and all constables and police officers shall assist the Inspectors of the Board to carry into effect and enforce this Order, and shall do or cause to be done all things necessary for the effectual execution of the same.

Power of Local Authorities to make Regulations as to Landing and Removal of Dung, Fodder, &c.

29.—(1.) A Local Authority may for the purpose of preventing the spreading of disease make Regulations for:—

(a) regulating the landing in the District of the Local Authority of dung of cattle, sheep, goats, or swine brought from Ireland, or of partly consumed or broken fodder that has been supplied to such animals, or of litter that has been used for or about such animals; or

(b) regulating the removal of dung, fodder, or litter out of a Landing Place for Irish animals in the District.

(2.) A Local Authority shall forthwith send to the Board two copies of every Regulation made by them under this Article.

(3.) If the Board are satisfied on inquiry, with respect to any Regulation made by a Local Authority under this Article, that the same is for any reason objectionable, and direct the revocation thereof, the same shall thereupon cease to operate.

Revocation of Orders.

30. The Orders specified in the Second Schedule to this Order are hereby revoked, and this Order shall apply to animals landed under any Order hereby revoked as if they had been landed under this Order.

Offences.

31.—(1.) If any animal or thing shall be landed or moved in contravention of this Order, or any Regulation made under this Order, or a licence thereunder, the owner thereof, and the occupier of the place of landing or other place where or from which such animal or thing is landed or moved, and the person causing, directing or permitting the landing or movement, and also in the case of the landing thereof, the owner and the charterer and the master of the vessel from which the same is landed, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts or defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(2.) If any person, with a view unlawfully to evade or defeat the operation of this Order, by clipping, or washing, or in any other manner, takes out, effaces, or obliterates or attempts to take out, efface, or obliterate, any mark painted or stamped on any animal, as required by this Order, or by a licence thereunder, the person doing the same, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the same to be done, and the owner of the animal, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts or defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(3.) If an animal is not isolated or is not slaughtered as required by this Order, or by a licence thereunder, the owner of the animal, and the person in charge thereof, and the occupier of the place where the animal is detained, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts or defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

Interpretation.

32. In this Order, unless the context otherwise requires—

“The Board” means the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries;

“The Act of 1894” means the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894;

“Landing Place” means a part of a port defined by Order of the Board as a Landing Place for Irish animals;

“Superintendent of a Landing Place” includes a foreman or wharfinger or other person for the time being in charge of a Landing Place,

“Lairage-men” means men specially appointed by the occupier of a Landing Place for the purpose of landing animals at a Landing Place and feeding and watering and tending them in a reception lair;

INSTRUMENT substituting the new church of Saint Mary, situate within the parish of Woodchester, in the county of Gloucester and in the diocese of Gloucester, for the old church formerly situate within and being the parish church of the same parish, but now pulled down.

To all to whom these presents shall come, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England send Greeting.

WHEREAS a new church has been built within the parish of Woodchester, in the county of Gloucester and in the diocese of Gloucester, and has been consecrated and dedicated to Saint Mary.

And whereas the Right Reverend Edgar Charles Sumner, Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester, as such Bishop, the Reverend Ernest Augustus Eardley-Wilmot, of Saint Jude's Vicarage, South Kensington, S.W., Clerk in Holy Orders, and a Prebendary of the cathedral church of Wells, acting on behalf of himself and of the Reverend Robert Baker Girdlestone, of Saxholme, Wimbledon, in the county of Surrey, Clerk in Holy Orders, and an Honorary Canon of the cathedral church of Christ, in Oxford, the Reverend Arthur Evelyn Barnes-Lawrence, of Number 6, Church Terrace, Blackheath, in the county of Kent, Clerk in Holy Orders, and an Honorary Canon of the cathedral church of Southwark, the Reverend Edward Alexander Stuart, of The Precincts, Canterbury, in the said county of Kent, Clerk in Holy Orders, and a Canon of the cathedral and metropolitical church of Christ, in Canterbury, and the Right Reverend James Denton, Bishop of Sodor and Man, the patrons of the rectory of the said parish of Woodchester, and the Reverend George Edward Watton, Clerk in Holy Orders, as the rector or Incumbent of the said rectory of Woodchester, have by an Instrument under their hands, bearing date on or about the twenty-sixth day of August, in the year one thousand nine hundred and fourteen, certified to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, that it would be for the convenience of the said parish of Woodchester that the said new church of Saint Mary, situate within such parish, should be substituted for the old parish church of the same parish.

Now therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in exercise and execution of the power or authority in that behalf contained in the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, and in the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of all other powers or authorities in anywise enabling us in the same behalf, do by this Instrument under our common seal, with the consent (testified as hereinafter mentioned) of the said Edgar Charles Sumner, Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester, and of the said Ernest Augustus Eardley-Wilmot, Robert Baker Girdlestone, Arthur Evelyn Barnes-Lawrence, Edward Alexander Stuart, James Denton, Bishop of Sodor and Man, and George Edward Watton, hereby declare that the said new Church of Saint Mary, situate within the said parish of Woodchester, and duly consecrated as aforesaid, shall be and the same is hereby substituted for the said old parish church of the same parish, and that such new church shall henceforth be the parish church of the said parish of Woodchester in lieu of the said old parish church as fully in all respects as if the said new Church of Saint Mary, so hereby substituted, had been originally the parish church of the same parish, and we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities aforesaid, and with such consents as aforesaid (testified as hereinafter mentioned), do hereby transfer all the endowments, emoluments, and rights of or belonging to the said old parish church of the said parish of Woodchester, or of or belonging to the rector or Incumbent thereof, to the said new Church of Saint Mary (now being by virtue of these presents the parish church of the said parish of Woodchester) and to the rector or Incumbent thereof and to his successors for ever.

In witness whereof to these presents we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have set our Common Seal, and the said Edgar Charles Sumner, Bishop of the said Diocese of Gloucester, has set his hand and affixed his Episcopal Seal, and the said Ernest Augustus Eardley-Wilmot, Robert Baker Girdlestone, Arthur Evelyn Barnes-Lawrence, Edward Alexander Stuart, James Denton, Bishop of Sodor and Man, and George Edward Watton have respectively set their hands and affixed their seals this fifteenth day of October, in the year One Thousand nine hundred and fourteen.

3. To empower the Company to make and maintain in the said rural district of Thirsk the works hereinafter mentioned or some part or parts thereof respectively (which works are hereinafter referred to as "the new waterworks") (that is to say) —

(1) A receiving chamber in the township or parish of Kepwick, at a point on Kepwick Moor 126 yards or thereabouts westwards from the westernmost corner of the plantation known as Dunsforth's Hill.

(2) An aqueduct (consisting of a line of pipes) commencing at or in the intended receiving chamber hereinbefore described, and passing through the townships or parishes of Kepwick, Cowesby, and Kirby Knowle into and terminating in the township or parish of Felixkirk by a junction with the existing aqueduct of the Company in the road leading from Boltby village to Felixkirk village at a point 123 yards or thereabouts north-eastwards from the junction of the before-mentioned road with the road leading from Felixkirk village to Kirby Knowle village.

and also all such cuts, channels, pipes, culverts, drains, sluices, valves, bye-washes, shafts, overflows, waste water channels, gauges, filters, filter beds, tanks, banks, walls, approaches, telegraphs, telephones, engines, machinery, appliances, and buildings as may be necessary or convenient in connection with or subsidiary to the new waterworks.

4. To authorize the Company—

(a) To deviate from the lines and levels of the new waterworks as shown upon the plans and sections hereinafter mentioned.

(b) To make and maintain in the said township of Kepwick all such tunnels, adits, drifts, conduits, chambers, and other works in connection with the intended receiving chamber hereinbefore described as may be necessary or convenient for the purpose of augmenting or improving the supply of water obtained thereby.

(c) To execute and do on any lands for the time being held by them all or some of the works, matters, and things mentioned or referred to in section 12 of the Waterworks Clauses Act, 1847.

(d) To collect, divert, take, impound, convey, use and appropriate all such springs and waters as may be taken or intercepted by any works to be authorized by the intended Order.

(e) To purchase, take on lease or otherwise acquire by agreement and to hold and use for the purposes of the intended Order and the general purposes of their undertaking lands, tenements, hereditaments, easements, and rights in the aforesaid townships and elsewhere, and to purchase, lease, erect, fit up, and maintain houses, offices, and other buildings.

(f) To sell, lease, exchange or otherwise dispose of any lands, tenements, hereditaments, easements, rights or privileges now belonging to or hereafter to be acquired by the Company with or without reservation of any water or water rights or other easements belonging thereto, and to hold any lands for the purpose of protecting, securing and preserving their waterworks and water supply, and to exempt any such lands, tenements, hereditaments and easements and the Company in regard thereto from all or any of the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts with respect to the sale of superfluous lands.

5. To increase the capital and borrowing powers of the Company for the purposes of their undertaking, to define and regulate the dividends (including back dividends) payable on any class or classes of share or loan capital of the Company, to continue and maintain or alter the respective rights of the holders of any such class or classes of capital in the profits of the Company and otherwise, and to empower the Company to apply all or any of their capital, funds and revenues to all or any of the purposes of the intended Order.

6. To make provision with regard to the rates and charges leviable by the Company for the supply of water, and to alter all or any of the existing rates and charges authorized by the Order of 1879, to impose and authorize the Company to demand and levy additional or substituted rates and charges, to define the expression "domestic purposes," and to limit the user of water supplied at the rates for domestic purposes specified in the Order of 1879, or which may be specified in the intended Order, to empower the Company to require that water supplied for farming purposes and to buildings partly used for trade or manufacturing purposes shall be taken by meter, and to prescribe the charges leviable by the Company for water supplied by measure or for building purposes.

7. To make special provision with respect to the following matters: The prevention of waste and contamination of the Company's water, the recovery of rates in respect of houses let on short tenancies and houses supplied by a common pipe, the provision of separate pipes for each house supplied; the alteration, repairing, connecting and disconnecting of meters; the repairing and maintenance of communication pipes and the conferring of special powers on the Company and on consumers with reference thereto, the exemption of fittings from liability to distress or to be taken in execution; the recovery of demands and penalties, the notices to be given by consumers in certain cases.

8. To authorize the Company to make bye-laws and regulations in connection with any of the provisions of the intended Order and to provide for the enforcement of such bye-laws and regulations by means of penalties and otherwise.

9. To empower the Company for the purpose of preventing or detecting waste to lay down, affix and maintain meters, stopcocks, covers and other apparatus in, under or on any mains or pipes of the Company or their consumers or any streets, roads or other places.

10. To extend to streets and roads not dedicated to public use all or any of the provisions and to authorize the Company to exercise in regard to such streets and roads all or any of the powers of the Waterworks Clauses Acts relating to public streets and roads.

11. To amend section 27 of the Order of 1879 and to alter or extend the powers of the Company with regard to the supply of water in bulk or otherwise within and beyond their limits of supply.

12. To authorize the Company to enter into and carry into effect contracts and agreements with the owners, lessees and occupiers of any lands or property which will be affected by any of the works to be authorized by the intended Order or with the authorities for any roads so affected or any other authorities, bodies or persons with reference to the execution of such works and the abstraction of water thereby, the exercise of any of the powers of the intended Order and the supply of water along the route or in the neighbourhood of such works, and, if thought fit, to sanction, confirm and give effect to any such contracts or agreements which may have been or may hereafter be entered into by the Company.

13. To alter, extend or repeal the provisions of the Orders of 1879 and 1884 with reference to all or any of the matters aforesaid and in other respects and to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges inconsistent with or which would interfere with the purposes of the Order, and to confer other rights and privileges.

Notice is hereby further given, that on or before the 30th day of November, 1914, plans and sections of the new waterworks, together with a copy of this Notice as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited at the Office of the Board of Trade, Whitehall, London, and also for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the North Riding of the County of York at his office at Northallerton.

The draft Provisional Order will be deposited at the Office of the Board of Trade on or before the 23rd day of December next, and printed copies thereof when deposited and of the Provisional Order when made by the Board of Trade may be obtained at the offices of the undermentioned Solicitors or Parliamentary Agents at the price of one shilling for each copy.

Every company, corporation or person desirous of making any representation to the Board of Trade or of bringing before them any objection respecting the application may do so by letter addressed to the Assistant Secretary of the Railway Department of the Board of Trade, Whitehall Gardens, London, on or before the 15th day of January, 1915, and a copy of such representation or objection must at the same time be sent to the Company addressed to the undermentioned Solicitors or Parliamentary Agents.

In forwarding to the Board of Trade such representation or objection the objectors or their Agents should state that a copy of the same has been sent to the Company's Solicitors or Agents.

Board of Trade.—Session 1915.

THIRSK GAS.

(Provisional Order.)

(New Gasworks, Additional Lands; Dwelling-houses for Employees, &c.; Additional Capital and Borrowing Powers, Application of Funds; Alteration, Regulation and Payment of Dividends, Back Dividends, Meetings, Powers of Directors and Officers, Issue of Certificates, &c., Quality Testing and Pressure of Gas, Pipes for Ancillary Purposes; Breaking up, &c., of Public and Private Streets, &c.; Prepayment Meters; Specification, Inspection and Removal of Pipes, Fittings, &c.; Antifluatuators, Entry on Consumers' Premises; Terms and Conditions of Supply, Defective Meters; Bulk Supply within and beyond Limits; Notices, Exemption of Fittings from Distress, &c.; Repeal and Amendment of Acts, &c.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to the Board of Trade, on or before the 23rd day of December next, by or on behalf of the Thirsk Gas Company (hereinafter referred to as "the Company"), in pursuance of the Gas and Water Works Facilities Act, 1870, as amended by the Gas and Water Works Facilities Act, 1870, Amendment Act, 1873, for a Provisional Order for all or some of the following purposes (that is to say) —

1. To authorize the Company, upon the lands hereinafter mentioned or some part or parts thereof, to erect, maintain, alter, extend, improve and renew or discontinue gasworks with all necessary machinery and apparatus and works for the manufacture, conversion and utilization of residual products and other materials used in or resulting from the manufacture of gas, and to do all such acts as may be proper for making, storing and supplying gas and manufacturing and converting such residual products and materials as aforesaid.

The lands above referred to are situate in the township or parish of Thirsk, in the rural district of Thirsk, in the North Riding of the county of York, and adjoin the existing gasworks of the Company, which lands belong, or are reputed to belong, to the Company, and contain by admeasurement 3 roods and 36 perches or thereabouts, and are bounded on the south partly by the existing gasworks of the Company and partly by lands belonging to William Barker, on the north-east partly by lands belonging to the said William Barker and partly by lands belonging to John Smith and Company, Limited, on the north partly by lands belonging to John Smith and Company, Limited, and partly by lands belonging to John Atkinson, and on the west by Long Street, Thirsk.

2. To empower the Company to purchase by agreement, take on lease, and hold additional lands and hereditaments for the purposes of their undertaking, and to purchase, take on lease, erect, fit up, maintain, and let houses and cottages for persons in their employ, offices, show rooms and other buildings.

3. To empower the Company, for the purposes of their undertaking, to raise additional capital by the creation and issue of new shares or stock, and by borrowing upon mortgage or by the creation and issue of debentures or debenture stock, or by any of such means, and to attach to such new shares, stock, mortgages, debentures or debenture stock, or some part thereof, any preference or priority of principal dividends or interest and such other rights and privileges as may be defined in the intended Order, and to empower the Company to apply to any of the purposes of the intended Order any moneys which they have raised or are authorized to raise under the Thirsk Gas Act, 1871 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act of 1871").

4. To alter, regulate and define the dividends payable on any class or classes of shares or stock in the capital of the Company, whether issued or to be issued under the Act of 1871 or the intended Order, and to amend or define the powers of the Company in regard to the payment of back dividends.

5. To make provision for and with respect to the following matters, that is to say:—

The meetings of the Company; the payment of interim dividends, the closing of the registers of transfers of shares, stock and debenture stock; the issuing of one certificate only in respect of several shares held by the same proprietor, and the calling in or delivery up of existing certificates; the remuneration of officers of the Company; and the notices of candidature for the office of directors, and to confer all necessary or expedient powers on the Company, their directors and officers or any of them in relation to the matters aforesaid.

6. To make new provision with reference to the testing, quality and pressure of gas supplied by the Company and the burner and other instruments to be used for such testing.

7. To enable the Company to lay down, repair, take up, alter, relay and renew mains, pipes and culverts within their limits for the supply of gas for the purpose of procuring, conducting or disposing of any oil and other materials and residual products, or for any purpose connected with their business, and to apply to such purposes the provisions or some of the provisions of the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to the breaking up of streets for the purpose of laying pipes, and for the protection of pipes when laid, and to confer upon the Company the same powers of laying down and maintaining pipes and apparatus in roads and streets not dedicated to the public as are conferred by the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1847, in respect to public streets and roads.

8. To make provision with reference to the following matters, that is to say —

The charges to be made for prepayment meters and fittings and gas supplied through such meters, the specification, construction, placing and inspection of pipes and other apparatus and appliances on consumers' premises; the use, repair, testing and inspection of anti-fluctuators in the case of gas engines; the rights of the Company of entry and removal of fittings; the service of notices by or on the Company on or by consumers, and the authentication of such notices; the terms and conditions upon which a supply is to be given by the Company to persons or premises having a separate supply of gas or electricity and to persons in debt to the Company; the allowance or surcharge to be made in cases of meters registering erroneously and meters failing to register; and the recovery of penalties and demands.

9. To enable the Company to supply gas in bulk to local authorities, companies and persons within or beyond the Company's limits for the supply of gas, and to make contracts for that purpose.

10. To provide that fittings let by the Company on hire shall remain their property and be exempt from distress and other legal process, whether the same be fixtures or otherwise.

11. To repeal, vary or amend all or any of the provisions of the Act of 1871 relating to any of the aforesaid matters or which are inconsistent with or superseded by the provisions of general legislation or have become obsolete, and to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which would interfere with any of the objects of the intended Order, and to confer other rights and privileges.

Notice is hereby further given, that on or before the 30th day of November, 1914, a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, and a map showing the lands to be used for the manufacture of gas and residual products, and a plan of the works proposed to be constructed thereon will be deposited at the office of the Board of Trade, and also for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the North Riding of the county of York at his office at Northallerton.

And that on or before the 23rd day of December next the draft Provisional Order will be deposited at the offices of the Board of Trade, and printed copies thereof as so deposited and of the Provisional Order when made by the Board of Trade may be obtained at the offices of the under-mentioned Solicitors and Parliamentary Agents at the price of one shilling for each copy.

Every company, corporation or person desirous of making any representation to the Board of Trade or of bringing before them any objection respecting the application may do so by letter addressed to the Assistant Secretary, Railway Department, Board of Trade, Whitehall Gardens, London, on or before the 15th day of January next ensuing, and a copy of such representation or objection must at the same time be sent to the under-mentioned Solicitors or Parliamentary Agents

In forwarding to the Board of Trade such representation or objection, the objectors or their agents should state that a copy of the same has been sent to the Company's Solicitors or Agents

NORTH STAFFORDSHIRE RAILWAY (TRENTHAM, NEWCASTLE-UNDER-
LYME, AND SILVERDALE LIGHT RAILWAYS) (POWER TO ADVANCE)
ORDER.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Application is intended to be made in the present month of November by the North Staffordshire Railway Company (hereinafter called "the Company"), to the Light Railway Commissioners for an Order under the above named

Acts, for all or any of the following purposes (that is to say).—

1. To authorize the County Council of the county of Stafford (hereinafter called "the County Council") to advance to the Company by way of loan such sum or sums as shall not in the aggregate exceed the sum of fifty thousand pounds, as and when the said sum or sums shall be received by the County Council from the Lords Commissioners for executing the office of Treasurer of Great Britain as an advance under Part I. of the Development and Road Improvement Funds Act, 1909.

2. To make provisions for the terms of any such advance and the repayment thereof to the County Council by equal annual instalments of principal and interest, or otherwise, and to authorize the Company and the County Council to enter into agreements for carrying into effect the provisions of the said intended Order.

3. To provide for the repayment by the County Council to the Lords Commissioners for executing the Office of Treasurer of Great Britain of all sums of money received by the County Council from the Company on account of the said advance, and all necessary ancillary provisions in relation to such repayments.

4. To make provisions for the Application by the Company of moneys advanced to them under the provisions of the said intended Order.

5. The said intended Order will, or may, alter, vary, amend, or extend all or some of the provisions of the North Staffordshire Railway (Trentham, Newcastle-under-Lyme, and Silverdale Light Railways) Order, 1914.

6. And notice is hereby further given that copies of the proposed Order can be obtained on and after the 30th day of November instant on application to the Company's Solicitors, Messrs. Marshall, Ashwell and Co., Brook street, Stoke-on-Trent, and Messrs. Burchell, 5, The Sanctuary, Westminster, at the price of 1s. each.

7. And notice is also given, that copies of the notice as published in the London Gazette, with copies of the said intended Order, will be deposited for public inspection, on or before the 30th day of November instant, with the Clerk of the County Council of Stafford, at his office at Stafford, and with the Clerk of the Council of each County Borough, Borough, Urban District, Rural District and Parish in which the railway authorized by the said North Staffordshire Railway (Trentham, Newcastle-under-Lyme and Silverdale Light Railways) Order, 1914, is situate, at his office, or, if there be no Clerk of any such Parish Council, the deposit will be made with the Chairman of the Council at his residence.

8. Objections to the application should be made in writing, and addressed to the Secretary of the Light Railway Commissioners, at No. 49, Wellington-street, Strand, London, W.C., and a copy thereof sent to the undersigned.

Dated this 6th day of November, 1914.
