

duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 29th day of October, in the year 1914, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 37, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property in the Parish of Saint Augustine, in the City and County of the City of Bristol, now vested in us.

“Whereas under and by virtue of the two Indentures, particulars whereof are set forth in the Schedule hereunder written, the lands and hereditaments situate in the Parish of Saint Augustine, in the City of Bristol aforesaid, and particularly described in the same Indentures and Schedule, became, with their appurtenances, and are now vested in us.

“And whereas none of the said lands and hereditaments are subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant, but are now in our possession, but some portions thereof on account of their character or situation are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

“And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands and hereditaments, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

“Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands and hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid, under and by virtue of the said Indentures, or either of them, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary Stock or other Public Securities in England.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference:—

Dates of the Indentures.	Names and Descriptions of the Parties thereto.	Description of Property.	Area.
20 October, 1884	The Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the City of Bristol, of the first part, Herbert John Gladstone, Esquire, and Robert William Duff, Esquire, two of the Lords Commissioners of Her (late) Majesty's Treasury, of the second part, and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the third part.	Land, formerly part of the site of the Episcopal Palace at Bristol, together with the ruins of the Palace standing thereon, shown within the red verge on the plan drawn on the deed.	1580 square yards or thereabouts.
2 February, 1906	The Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the City of Bristol, of the one part, and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the other part.	Land coloured pink on the plan drawn on the deed.	546 square yards or thereabouts.”

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the Diocese of Bristol.
