

Council to make an Order for carrying such Scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

"I, the Right Reverend George Rodney, Lord Bishop of Wakefield, do hereby represent to Your Grace as follows:—

"That there is in the County of York, and within my Diocese of Wakefield, the New Vicarage and Parish of Coley particularly delineated on the map or plan hereto annexed, and thereon coloured Pink.

"That there is also in the same County and Diocese the New Vicarage and Parish of Lightcliffe particularly delineated on the map or plan hereto annexed, and thereon coloured Blue, Yellow and Purple.

"That the population of the said Parish of Coley is according to the last Census 2,000.

"That the population of the said Parish of Lightcliffe is according to the last Census 4,863.

"That the net annual value of the said New Vicarage of Coley is £420, and that of the said New Vicarage of Lightcliffe £290.

"That George Thomas Jowett, Clerk, Master of Arts, Doctor of Divinity, is the present Incumbent of the said New Vicarage of Coley, and Andrew Ewbank Burn, Clerk, Doctor of Divinity, Vicar of Halifax, and Prebendary of Lichfield Cathedral, is the Patron or person entitled, in right of his said Vicarage of Halifax, to present to the said New Vicarage were the same now vacant.

"That Charles Lacy Hulbert, Clerk, Master of Arts, is the present Incumbent of the said New Vicarage of Lightcliffe, and the said Vicar of Halifax is also the Patron or person entitled to present to the said New Vicarage were the same now vacant.

"That the said Patron and Incumbents have all consented to the separation and annexation hereafter proposed, and their Consents in writing are hereunto annexed.

"That that portion of the said Parish of Lightcliffe (coloured Yellow on the said map or plan hereto annexed) within which is situated part of the Village of Hipperholme is at a distance of two-thirds of a mile from the Parish Church of Lightcliffe, and at a distance of three-quarters of a mile from the Parish Church of Coley.

"That that portion of the said Parish of Lightcliffe (coloured purple on the said map or plan hereto annexed) within which is situated the Hamlet of Norwood Green is at a distance of one and a third miles or thereabouts from the Parish Church of Lightcliffe, and at a distance of one and a quarter miles or thereabouts from the Parish Church of Coley.

"That the two portions of the said Parish of Lightcliffe coloured respectively yellow and purple on the said map or plan contain populations respectively estimated at 511 and 700.

"That there is a licensed Mission Church situate within that portion of the Parish of Lightcliffe coloured purple on the said plan, viz.: at Norwood Green, sufficient for the Inhabitants there, but beyond this there is no Church or Chapel within either of the said two portions, and it would be more convenient for the Inhabitants of the said portions coloured yellow and purple to attend Divine Service at the Parish Church of Coley than at the Parish Church at Lightcliffe, and that the Incumbent of Coley could more easily work the said portions of the Parish of Lightcliffe coloured as aforesaid yellow and purple than can the Incumbent of Lightcliffe.

"That it appears to me that the said two portions of the said Parish of Lightcliffe, coloured respectively yellow and purple on the said plan, may, under the provisions of the Acts of Parliament passed in the First and Second years of the Reign of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 106, and the 2nd and 3rd years of the Reign of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 49, be advantageously separated from that Parish, and be annexed for ecclesiastical purposes to the Parish of Coley.

"That, pursuant to the directions contained in the 26th Section of the first before-mentioned Act of Parliament, I, the said George Rodney, the said Lord Bishop, have drawn up a Scheme in writing appended to this Representation describing the mode in which it seems to me that the alteration above proposed may be made with justice to all parties interested, and I do submit the same to Your Grace to the intent that Your Grace may, if on full consideration and Inquiry you shall be satisfied with the said Scheme, certify the same and such Consents as aforesaid to His Majesty in Council."

And whereas the said Scheme, drawn up by the said Bishop, and the Consents referred to in the said Representation, are as follows:—

"SCHEME.

"It is proposed to separate two portions of the Parish of Lightcliffe, in the County of York, and Diocese of Wakefield, more particularly delineated on the map or plan annexed hereto, and thereon coloured respectively yellow and purple, from the said Parish of Lightcliffe to which they belong, and to annex them to the Parish of Coley, in the same County and Diocese, to which they are contiguous, for all ecclesiastical purposes.

"That the Vicar of the said Parish of Lightcliffe shall cease to have cure of souls within the said two portions of Lightcliffe proposed to be transferred as aforesaid, and the Vicar of the said Parish of Coley shall have sole and exclusive charge of souls within the same.

"That the inhabitants of the said two portions of Lightcliffe, proposed to be transferred as aforesaid, shall be exonerated from all liability to repair the Parish Church of Lightcliffe, or any other Church or Chapel now or hereafter to be erected within that Parish, but shall be liable as other Inhabitants of the said Parish of Coley to the repairs of the said Parish Church of Coley, and the Inhabitants of the said two portions shall have the same rights as to Pews and the performance of all Offices and Services of the Church at the said Parish Church of Coley, and otherwise in relation to the same Church and the Parish belonging thereto, as the other Inhabitants of the same Parish.

"That the Fees for such Offices and Services performed for the Inhabitants of the said two portions of Lightcliffe as aforesaid, or arising within the limits of the same, and usually payable to the Incumbent of a Benefice, shall belong to the Incumbent of the Benefice of Coley.
