Registrar.

Note.—The Courts (Emergency Powers) Act, 1914, provides that during its operation certain remedies for the payment or recovery of money, or in default of the payment or recovery of money (including the remedy above mentioned), shall not be enforced except upon application to the Court, and that if on any such application the Court is of opinion that time should be given to the person liable to make the payment on the ground that he is unable immediately to make the payment of circumstances attributable by reason directly or indirectly to the present war the Court may, in its absolute discretion, after considering all the circumstances of the case and the position of all the parties, by order defer the operation of any such remedies for such time and subject to such conditions as the Court thinks fit.

If you desire to take advantage of the Act you should attend in person or by your solicitor at the time and place above mentioned and satisfy the Court that your inability to pay is due to such circumstances.

If you do not attend either in person or by your solicitor at the time and place above mentioned such order will be made and proceedings taken as the Court may think just and expedient.
