FRIDAY, 27 NOVEMBER, 1914.

Privy Council Office, November 27, 1914.

Notice is hereby given, in pursuance of the University of London Act, 1898, that the following amendments of Statutes 119 and 125 of the Statutes of the University of London have been made by the Senate, and that copies can be obtained on application to the Secretary to the Senate, University of London, South Kensington, S.W.

Statute 119 of the Statutes of the University to be amended by adding thereto a Proviso, the said Statute as so amended running as follows:—

“ 119. The Senate shall make provision for holding intermediate examinations for Internal Students or External Students in such subjects and at such periods and under such conditions as may be prescribed, and the Senate may if in its discretion it think fit to do so make arrangements to hold any intermediate examination or some part thereof for the Students of any School of the University jointly with the Governing Body of such School. Provided that during the continuance of the War begun in 1914 and a period of two years after the conclusion of such War the Senate shall have power to prescribe in special cases for Students of the University and of foreign Universities and foreign Institutions of similar rank whose studies have been interrupted owing to the War special examinations in lieu of the intermediate examinations for Internal or External Students.”

November 18th, 1914.

Statute 125 of the Statutes of the University to be amended by adding thereto two Clauses numbered (3) and (4), the said Statute as so amended running as follows:—

“ 125. Except as hereinafter provided no person shall be admitted to a first degree in the University as an Internal Student unless and until he has completed an approved course of study comprising all the subjects in which he presents himself and extending over not less than three years. Such three years shall be calculated from a date not earlier than matriculation unless the Senate shall either generally by regulation or in special cases allow the same to be calculated from a date not exceeding four months before matriculation. Any person who has passed the intermediate examination before he is registered as an Internal Student may be allowed to take the final examination for the first degree before the end of a three years' course provided that subsequently to passing the intermediate examination he shall have attended for two years an approved course of study for the final examination. If he passes that examination he shall be admitted to the degree without further examination, but not until he shall have completed three years of study as an Internal Student by attending subsequently to passing the final examination a further approved course of study and not unless the Authorities of the School or Institution at which such course is held have certified that his attendance and progress have been satisfactory. Provided that

(1) A person who has presented himself for a final examination for a first degree as an Internal Student and has failed may be permitted to present himself on a subsequent occasion for such final examination as an Internal Student in subjects other than those in which he presented himself on the first occasion after such further course if any as the Senate shall generally by regulation or in special cases determine.

(2) A course of study extending over not more than one year taken in another University approved for the purpose subsequently to the passing of the intermediate examination may be accepted in lieu of an approved course of study taken in this University subject to such regulations as the Senate may from time to time prescribe.

(3) During the continuance of the War begun in 1914 and after its termination for such period as the Senate shall see fit the Senate shall have power to waive the conditions of this Statute in such a way as will prevent as far as possible any Internal Student of the University from being placed at a disadvantage through going on active service or undertaking other approved duties in connection with national defence.

(4) During the period aforesaid the Senate shall have power to waive the conditions of this Statute in such manner as they shall see fit in special cases in respect of students of foreign Universities and foreign Institutions of similar rank whose studies therein have been interrupted owing to the War begun in 1914 and who have become Internal Students of the University and have pursued a course of study therein extending over not less than one academic year.

For the purposes of this Statute the date of matriculation shall be taken to be the first day of the matriculation examination at which the candidate passed or in respect of which he was registered."

NATIONAL INSURANCE.

NATIONAL HEALTH INSURANCE.

The National Health Insurance (Deposit Contributors Benefits) Order, 1914, dated November 20, 1914, made by the Insurance Commissioners under section 78 of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (1 & 2 Geo. 5, c. 55).

Whereas by Section 78 of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (in this Order called "the Act"), it is amongst other things provided that if any difficulty arises with respect to bringing into operation Part I of the Act the Insurance Commissioners with the consent of the Treasury may by Order do anything which appears to them necessary or expedient for bringing that Part of the Act into operation, and that any such Order may modify the provisions of the Act so far as may appear necessary or expedient for carrying the Order into effect:

And whereas, by virtue of paragraph (e) of Section 42 of the Act, if the amount standing to the credit of a deposit contributor at the commencement of the year is insufficient to provide the sums payable in respect of him for the purposes of medical benefit and sanatorium benefit, and towards the expenses of administration, that contributor is not, unless the Insurance Committee consents, and except subject to such conditions as the Committee may impose, entitled to any benefits during that year:

And whereas by Section 3 of the National Insurance Act, 1913 (in this Order called "the amending Act") it is enacted that Part I of the Act shall apply to persons who at the commencement of the Act were of the age of sixty-five and upwards and under the age of seventy, provided that a person who is of the age of sixty-five or upwards at the date of entry into insurance shall not be entitled to medical benefit after he attains the age of seventy, unless the number of weekly contributions paid by or in respect of him exceeds twenty-six:

And whereas it will not in all cases be possible at the commencement of the year 1915 to ascertain whether the amount standing to the credit of a deposit contributor in the Deposit Contributors Fund will be sufficient to provide the sums aforesaid or whether the number of weekly contributions paid by or in respect of him exceeds twenty-six:

And whereas, by reason of the premises deposit contributors will, unless this Order is made, as respects the year 1915, be deprived of benefits to which they might otherwise have been entitled, and accordingly a difficulty has arisen within the meaning of the said Section 78:

Now, therefore, the Insurance Commissioners in pursuance of the powers conferred on them by the Act and all other powers enabling them in that behalf, with the consent of the Treasury, hereby order as follows:—

1. Notwithstanding anything in paragraph (e) of Section 42 of the Act—

(1) (a) A deposit contributor who on the 6th day of July, 1914, had an amount standing to his credit in the Deposit Contributors Fund sufficient to provide the proper proportion of the sums payable for the purposes specified in paragraph (e) of Section 42 of the Act in respect of the period from the 1st day of January, 1915, to the 31st day of March, 1915, and

(b) a deposit contributor by or in respect of whom any contributions were paid during the period from the 12th day of January, 1914, to the 5th day of July, 1914, shall be entitled to receive medical benefit and sanatorium benefit during the period from the 1st day of January, 1915, to the 31st day of March, 1915.

(2) A deposit contributor who entered into insurance before the 4th day of January, 1915, and by or in respect of whom no contributions were paid during the period from the 12th day of January, 1914, to the 5th day of July, 1914, and who, on the 6th day of July, 1914, had not an amount standing to his credit in the Deposit Contributors Fund sufficient to provide the proper proportion of the sums payable for the purposes specified in paragraph (e) of Section 42 of the Act in respect of the period from the 1st day of January, 1915, to the 31st day of March, 1915, shall not in any event be entitled to receive medical benefit and sanatorium benefit during that period.

(3) If the amount standing to the credit of such deposit contributor as aforesaid in the Deposit Contributors Fund on the 4th day of January, 1915, is sufficient to provide the proper proportion of the sums payable as aforesaid in respect of the period from the 1st day of April, 1915, to the 30th day of September, 1915, or of the period from the 1st day of July, 1915, to the 30th day of September, 1915, he shall be entitled to receive medical benefit and sanatorium benefit during the period for which the amount is sufficient, and if the amount standing to his credit on the 4th day of July, 1915, is sufficient to provide the proper proportion of the sums payable as aforesaid in respect of the period from the 1st day of October, 1915, to the 31st day of December, 1915, he shall be entitled to receive medical benefit and sanatorium benefit during that period.

2.—(1) A deposit contributor who attains the age of seventy after the 5th day of July, 1914, shall, notwithstanding anything in Section 3 of the amending Act, and subject to the provisions of this Order, be entitled to receive medical benefit and sanatorium benefit after he attains the age of seventy, if he entered into insurance more than twenty-six weeks before he attains that age.

(2) The provisions of paragraph (1) (b) of Article 1 of this Order shall not apply to a deposit contributor who attained the age of seventy before the 6th day of July, 1914.

3. There shall be deducted, at such times as the Insurance Commissioners may determine, from the amount standing to the credit of the deposit contributor in the Deposit Contributors Fund the proper proportion for the periods or period during which he is by virtue of the foregoing provisions of this Order entitled to benefit of the sums payable in respect of him for the purposes specified in paragraph (e) of Section 42 of the Act for the year 1915.

Provided that if it appears at any time that the amount so standing to the credit of a deposit contributor who becomes entitled to benefit as aforesaid was not sufficient to provide for that deduction, the Insurance Commissioners may, if they think fit, deduct from any contributions paid by or in respect of him in respect of the year 1915, such sum as together with any sum so standing to his credit as aforesaid, will be equal to the proper proportion of the sums so payable in respect of him.

4.—(1) The Insurance Commissioners may, if they think fit, continue the right to benefit of any deposit contributor to whom the provisions of Article 1 of this Order apply for a succeeding or any subsequent period up to and including the 31st day of December, 1915, if there is standing to the credit of the deposit contributor in the Deposit Contributors Fund before the beginning of each such further period or periods, an amount equal to the proper proportion for such further period or periods of the sums payable in respect of him under paragraph (e) of Section 42 of the Act for the year 1915, and there shall be deducted at such times as the Insurance Commissioners may determine from the amount so standing to his credit a sum equal to the proper proportion for such period or periods of the sums so payable as aforesaid.

(2) When a deposit contributor who is entitled to receive medical benefit and sanatorium benefit before he attains the age of seventy entered into insurance within twenty-six weeks of his attaining that age, there shall be deducted from the amount standing to his credit in the Deposit Contributors Fund the proper proportion of the sums payable in respect of him under paragraph (e) of Section 42 of the Act for the period or periods commencing on the 1st day of January, the 1st day of April, the 1st day of July, and the 1st day of October, 1915, as the case may be, during which he is entitled to receive medical and sanatorium benefit.

5. Where a deposit contributor is entitled to receive medical benefit and sanatorium benefit, but, at the date when he becomes so entitled, arrangements have not been made for providing those benefits, there shall, as soon as may be after those arrangements have been made, be deducted from the amount standing to his credit in the Deposit Contributors Fund, a sum equal to the proper proportion payable in respect of him, so, however, that the period or periods for which any such deduction is made, shall be a period or periods commencing on the 1st day of January, the 1st day of April, the 1st day of July, or the 1st day of October, whichever of the said dates is next before the date when the said arrangements were made.

6. During the period from the date of this Order to the 31st day of December, 1914, no payment on account of sickness benefit or maternity benefit shall, unless the Insurance Commissioners otherwise determine, be made to a deposit contributor of an amount greater than the excess (if any) of the amount then standing to his credit in the Deposit Contributors Fund over the sums properly payable under paragraph (e) of Section 42 of the Act for the year 1915, but if the amount standing to his credit on the 4th day of January, 1915, is in excess of the sums properly payable as aforesaid for the year 1915, any benefit withheld under the foregoing provision shall, so far as may be, be paid forthwith out of the excess.

7. In the case of an insured person who, being a deposit contributor, becomes insured under the provisions of Section 46 of the Act, or ceases to be insured under the provisions of that Section, and again becomes a deposit contributor, such adjustment shall be made in the amounts to be deducted in respect of the years 1914 and 1915 as, having regard to the dates at which the insured person becomes, or ceases to be, insured under the provisions of the said Section, appear to the Commissioners to be just and necessary.

8.—(1) Save as otherwise expressly provided, the expression "Deposit Contributor" means, for the purposes of Articles 1, 3 and 4 of this Order, a deposit contributor who, if the amount standing to his credit in the Deposit Contributors Fund were not insufficient for the purposes specified in paragraph (e) of Section 42 of the Act, would be entitled to medical benefit and sanatorium benefit.

(2) In this Order, for the purpose of calculating the proper proportion of the sums payable for the purposes specified in paragraph (e) of Section 42 of the Act in respect of a deposit contributor to whom this Order applies, no account shall be taken of such part of those sums as is payable out of moneys provided by Parliament.

(3) In this Order a period of time from a named day to a named day includes both those days.

9.—(1) This Order may be cited as the National Health Insurance (Deposit Contributors Benefits) Order, 1914.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Insurance Commissioners, this 20th day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and fourteen.
