

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday, February 19. to Thursday, February 22. 1665.

Bristol, Feb. 17.

THis morning about two of the clock arrived here a small Vessel, called the Susanna, from Pharo, which brings news, that upon Sunday last was a moneth, Sir Jeremy Smith pass by him, with all his Fleet in good health, and did not stop at Lisbon at all, they suppose he was in the Bay of Cadix by the Tuesday following; That a Vessel came into the Port of Pharo, that came with Sir Jeremy, who are of opinion, that he might probably light upon some of the Dutch Fleet, they having moored but few dayes before his arrival; the Fleet had very foul weather at Sea, which made his passage the more tedious.

Falmouth, Febr. 14. The eleventh instant a prize that lay at Helford was brought in by a private Man of War into this Harbor. The thirteenth here came in, from Weymouth, a Vessel bound for Wales, who met with a Dutch Caper, a double Shallop, well mann'd, with two guns, but the Vessel having four Guns, scared the Caper, and she came safe to Harbor.

Dover, Febr. 17. Here is in our Narrow, the Paul Fregat, with a Prize, as it is thought, but what her lading is, we as yet know not.

Ditto, Febr. 19. The Paul Fregat, with her Prize, are gone out of our Road this morning; in their place are come two small Vessels, viz. a Dogger-Boat, and a Fly-Boat, the one taken by Captain Talbot, Commander of the Guernsey Fregat, the other, by the Roe-Ketch; the one has onely Balast, the other Holland Cheese and Salmon, outward bound. Two small Vessels more are sent into Rye, the last night, taken by Captain Langley, Captain of the Cotchester-Ketch, one laden with Herring and Salmon, the other with Cheese.

Lyme, Febr. 17. We have here a Vessel put into this Harbor by contrary winds and foul weather, a Bourdeaux Ship laden with Wines and Prunes, the men French. On Wednesday and Thursday last, we heard from this place many Guns, South-East from hence.

Warsovia, Jan. 19. His Majesty having notice given him, that the Nobility of Great Poland, and the Confederates had a design to besiege the City of Warsovia before the meeting of the Diet, hath given order to his General in Ukrain, to come down with his Forces, and to reinforce the Army with some of those which are in the Garrisons, and to take out so many of them, as may be possible, to forme a League at Cziersse, to prevent the danger designed by the Nobility and Confederates. The meetings of the particular Provinces and Shires of the Kingdome of Poland, are already began, to prepare their resolutions against the next meeting of the Diet; from these lesser meetings depends the success of that general one, and there is no doubt but the divisions and alterations will break out in these particular meetings, and much more at the meeting of the Diet.

Rome, Feb. 6. This week brings assurance from France, of the Duke of Chaunes preparation for this place in quality of Ambassador; having to that effect returned hither 60000 Duckats, but we see little sign of joy at the news, the Pope cannot digest his eldest sons former injuries. Here are hot reports, and Letters from many parts of a League concluded between Portugal and Spain, which is joyfull news to this Court.

Don Pedro d' Arragon hath received order from Madrid to quit his Embassy the 20 of March next, and then to take possession of his Government of the Kingdome of Naples, as Viceroy.

Cardinal Patron is preparing his Court and Traine to receive the Emperors at Milan, his Pages and Foot-men are to be all clad alla Spagnuola.

Legorn, Feb. 6. On the third instant arrived here the Amity of Plymouth, with Pilchards, which are permitted to come into this Town, and after Quarantaine, the ship and Marriners will be permitted Practick. This day arrived the Rainbow, James, and Orange Tree, with Herrings; three others, their Consorts, they say, are hourly expected here. They left His Majesties Fleet under sail off of Gibraltar twelve days since, who had taken two ships near Cadix, laden with Fruit, Wine, and Lemmons, the one French, the other a Hollander. It is reported, that the Dutch at Cadix can arm onely seven ships, which are to come into these Seas to joyn with the French at Tholon. From France it is advised, that they intend to have in readines 33 ships at Tholon against the next moneth.

The French ship, Captain Petro Martine, bound for Smirna is to depart the next week. The King David, the Great Hollander, lately arrived from Puglia, the next week sets sail also for Spain.

Ditto, Feb. 8. Some English Marriners arrived this day from Marseilles and Tholon, say, That two Men of War were departing, to Convoy four St. Malo's ships out of the Streights. The Advice had her Currants landed, and she preparing to go out with the fleet.

Genova, Feb. 9. This morning the Delight Fregat with Pilchards, and the Endeavor Pink with Herrings, arrived here, having left Sir Jeremy Smith fourteen days since off of Gibraltar, bound for Malaga, understanding the Dutch fleet lay there. Seignor Gio. Augustino Durazzo, is returned hither from Constantinople, with Ratification of the Capitulations of Commerce made up with the Grand Seignor.

Venice, Feb. 12. The Welcome, Henry Mudd Captain, is arrived here laden with Pilchards and Lead; the Sanita are something rigorous with her, coming from England, because of the Plague.

Ostend, Feb. 25. Sir Mark Ogniaty, accompanied with some Deputies from this Town and Bruges, will in ten or fourteen days go hence for England, as Envoye from the Marquels of Castel Rodrigo, concerning the securing the Trade of these Countreys in this conjuncture.

Bruxels, Feb. 23. Here hath been lately erected before the Court Gate, and now almost finished, a stately piece of Architecture, after the manner of a Triumphal Arch, containing 124 foot in height, the breadth of the Front of a larger measure, all beautified and adorned with Painting, Gilding, Fanes, and Scutcheons, together with excellent Pictures of all the Dukes of Brabant, and other eminent persons. The design of this Fabrick is for the Governor, to tender to all the States of these Provinces, the Oath of Fidelity to the young King. This Ceremony is to be performed with great magnificence and splendor, to continue for three days, beginning on St. Matthias day, with Divine Service at the great Church, where the Marquels is to have his Oath administered to him by the Archbishop of Mecklen, from whence they are to make a Cavalcade up to the Court, where the States are to be treated by the Marquels at dinner; the next day the Marquels by the States, at the Stat Huis; great preparations being made for this purpose. Mourning to be laid aside, Shops to be shut for three days, Bonfires, and Fire-works to be made, and all other signs of a publick joy, and a Largeſs of 20000 Guilderd in new Coyn. to be scattered amongst the people.

Pisa, Feb. 8. The Reputation of the King of Great Britain