

Distinguished Conduct Medals—Continued.

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name.	Corps.	Action for which commended.
8024	Private ...	Boag, K. ...	1st Battalion, Cameron Highlanders	For gallantry in working his machine gun till the last possible moment, and then saving the gun and Marindin Range-finder by removing them out of action under a very heavy fire.
8559	Corporal ...	Borders, J. ...	1st Battalion, Royal Lancaster Regiment	In a partial retirement he stuck to his trench, and by his example encouraged the men under his command, thereby facilitating the taking up of another fire position by his company.
8524	Private ...	Bossom, H. F. ...	1st Battalion, Royal Berkshire Regiment	Conspicuous gallantry during the attack on German position at Paschendael-Becelaere road, which resulted in taking the enemy's trenches and 70 prisoners.
8342	Lance-Corporal	Bowdidge, J. S. ...	1st Battalion, Somerset Light Infantry	For skill and gallantry in leading men in house to house fighting at Le Gheer, on 21st October.
4943	Lance-Corporal	Brown, A. V. ...	2nd Battalion, Coldstream Guards	For gallantry, on 23th September, in assisting to remove into safety the wounded who were lying exposed in the open.
64754	Driver ...	Brown, F. S. ...	80th Battery, Royal Field Artillery	During an engagement, when guns had been withdrawn, he took tow horses to the front, waited under heavy fire while the wounded were being dressed, and helped them away to safety on the horses.
57806	Serjeant ...	Brown, T. J. ...	37th Battery, Royal Field Artillery	For gallantry at Le Cateau on 26th August, though wounded, he remained at his post, and afterwards brought up horses to the observation station.
8959	Serjeant ...	Brueton, W. ...	2nd Battalion, Lancashire Fusiliers	For gallantry in removing wounded into cover under a heavy fire.
5820	Serjeant ...	Brunton, D. ...	19th Hussars ...	For gallantry at Le Bizet in trying to rescue Major McClure who was wounded, under a heavy close range fire.
9939	Private ...	Burns, A. ...	Royal Army Medical Corps	For conspicuous gallantry in remaining in an evacuated dressing station, tending dangerously wounded men under continuous fire for 48 hours. The position was subsequently recaptured and the wounded men saved.
9816	Private ...	Burns, J. ...	1st Battalion, Cheshire Regiment	On 24th August he voluntarily assisted to remove under heavy fire wounded men to a place of safety, he himself being wounded.
10362	Private ...	Cairns, W. ...	1st Battalion, Scottish Rifles	On 22nd October, with a small section took command, and fought an especially gallant rearguard action after all the officers had been wounded.
5105	Serjeant ...	Cameron, J. ...	2nd Battalion, Seaforth Highlanders	Showed great coolness and courage leading two parties in an attack on a trench; was wounded at the commencement but rallied his men and finished the assault.
9609	Private ...	Chance, J. W. ...	1st Battalion, Lincolnshire Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry at Wychaete on 1st November in taking a message from firing line under a heavy fire and delivering it, though wounded on the way.
7574	Bandsman	Chittenden, B. ...	2nd Battalion, Royal Dublin Fusiliers	For repeatedly going out under shell fire to bring in the wounded, when employed as a stretcher bearer.
32780	Serjeant ...	Clarke, J. ...	23rd Battery, Royal Field Artillery	At Mons, on 23rd August, when the leading team was ambushed in a narrow lane, with his gunners he drove off the enemy.