

Distinguished Conduct Medals—Continued.

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name.	Corps.	Action for which commended.
9419	Corporal ...	Hodges, J. W. ...	2nd Battalion, Oxfordshire and Buckinghamshire Light Infantry	For gallant conduct and very good work during the attack on 21st October.
6672	Private ...	Hoggard, W. ...	1st Battalion, Royal Lancaster Regiment	For gallantry. During a temporary retirement he remained in his trench, and, by example, encouraged his comrades, thereby enabling his company to take up another fire position.
43029	Bombardier	Holmes, T. H. ...	106th Battery, Royal Field Artillery.	For conspicuous gallantry in assisting to serve a single gun, until and after all but one of the sub-section had been killed or wounded.
64895	Bombardier	Holton, F. ...	121st Battery, R.F.A.	For gallantry at Ciry on 16th September, under a very heavy shrapnel and high-explosive shell fire, went out and helped to carry into safety Gunner Davies, telephone operator, who had been wounded and was unable to move.
8309	Private ...	Hunter, J. ...	2nd Battalion, Coldstream Guards	For conspicuously good work on patrol duty on 26th October, by penetrating the enemy's lines and furnishing a good report. On that occasion, meeting six of the enemy, he helped (with one other man), to kill three and wound one.
3682	Serjeant-Major	Hyson, G. E. ...	1st Battalion, East Surrey Regiment	On 9th September, during the attack on Pisseloup, he showed great bravery and persistence in removing wounded under a heavy fire.
10530	Lance-Corporal	Ivens, C. ...	2nd Battalion, Connaught Rangers	Conspicuous gallantry in charge of advanced post of nine men, 2nd November. He held his position and kept enemy in check all day. Of his party three were killed, himself and six men were wounded.
56651	Gunner ...	Jackson, F....	45th Battery, Royal Field Artillery	For gallantry during the night of 27th October when engaged in repairing telephone wire close to infantry firing line, discovered and killed two German snipers. Has performed good work subsequently.
2510	Private ...	James, W. J. ...	1st Battalion, Royal Warwickshire Regiment	For gallantry on 13th October. Volunteered to go forward to a place where the greatest danger was to be expected and helped to bring in Major Christie who was dangerously wounded.
5936	Private ...	Jerome, W. A. ...	19th Hussars ...	For gallantry in trying to rescue Major McClure who was wounded, under heavy close range fire at Le Bizet.
29659	Serjeant ...	Johnson, J. ...	7th (Field) Company, Royal Engineers	For constant gallantry and excellent services rendered in the front line of trenches.
23159	Pioneer ...	Jupp, T. ...	6th (Divisional) Signal Company, Royal Engineers	For gallantry on two occasions, repairing telephone wires under shrapnel and maxim fire.
27701	Gunner ...	Kemp, T. H. ...	45th Battery, Royal Field Artillery	For gallantry in setting a fine example to his comrades, on 24th October, during an emergency.
55037	Bombardier	King, G. ...	126th Battery, Royal Field Artillery	Conspicuous enterprise in swimming the river Lys on 18th October and adjusting a telephone wire, thus enabling his battery to support the 10th Infantry Brigade.
55409	Driver ...	King, H. J....	6th Battery, Royal Field Artillery	At Audencourt, on 26th August, when the limber was upset, helped to hook into another limber and brought a gun away under heavy fire.
74418	Serjeant ...	Lang, J. ...	108th Battery, Royal Field Artillery	For gallantry in assisting Lieutenant Anderson while working a gun in the infantry firing line, bringing it out of its emplacement to meet enemy's infantry attack. The gun was struck by a shell, and he was wounded.