PUBLIC HEALTH ACT, 1875.

PUDSEY.

Whereas by a Provisional Order dated the 24th May, 1880, relating to the Local Government District of Pudsey, which was confirmed by the Local Government Board's Provisional Orders Confirmation (Eastbourne, etc.) Act, 1880 (hereinafter referred to as the "Confirming Act"), the Pudsey Local Board were empowered to put in force, with reference to the lands described in the Schedule to the said Order, which lands included the site of the ancient chapel and burial ground situate at the junction of Chapeltown South Parade and Carlisle Road, the powers of the Lands Clauses Acts with reference to the purchase and taking of lands otherwise than by agreement for the purpose of improving certain streets in their district:

And whereas it was provided by section 5 of the Confirming Act that in the event of the Local Board acquiring the site of the said ancient chapel and burial ground such burial ground should not, except so far as is provided in the said section, be devoted to any other than its existing purpose:

And whereas the powers, rights and liabilities of the Local Board are now vested in the Council of the borough of Pudsey:

And whereas the said Council have made application to the Local Government Board for the issue of a Provisional Order to alter and amend the Confirming Act so as to enable the said Council to appropriate for the purpose of widening adjoining streets and constructing a footpath in manner shown upon a plan which has been deposited at the Town Hall, Pudsey, a further part of the site of the said ancient chapel and burial ground:

And whereas it is proposed that the Local Government Board should issue a Provisional Order in compliance with the said application:

And whereas the said Council have also applied to the Local Government Board for sanction to borrow £708 for the purpose of defraying the cost of the said improvements:

Notice is hereby given, that Major J. Stewart, R.E., one of the Inspectors of the said Board, will attend at the Town Hall, Pudsey, on Tuesday, the nineteenth day of January, 1915, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to hold a local inquiry into the subject-matter of the applications:

And notice is hereby further given, that any person interested may attend at such inquiry and be heard with reference to the said applications.

As witness my hand this fifth day of January, 1915, at the Office of the Local Government Board, Whitehall, London.

F. J. Willis,
Assistant Secretary.

ORDER OF THE REGISTRAR-GENERAL IN ENGLAND.

(Dated 11th January, 1915.)

Whereas, by the 21st section of the Births and Deaths Registration Act, 1874, it is enacted that the Registrar-General, with the sanction of the Local Government Board, may from time to time alter Registration Sub-districts:—

1. And whereas it is expedient that Weedon Sub-district, of Daventry Registration District, should be abolished, and its constituent parishes added to the other sub-districts of the same registration district, as follows:—

(a) Brockhall, Dodford, Farthingstone, Floore, Stowe Nine Churches, and Weedon Beck Parishes to Long Buckby Sub-district; and

(b) Everdon, Fawsley, Newnham, and Preston Capes Parishes, together with the land (part of) common to Badby and Newnham Parishes, to Daventry Sub-district, in which the other part of that common land is situated.

2. Now, therefore, I, Bernard Mallet, C.B., Registrar-General of Births, Deaths and Marriages in England, in exercise of the powers given me by the above-mentioned Act, and with the sanction of the Local Government Board, do hereby order and declare that the foregoing alteration shall take effect accordingly.

3. This Order shall come into operation on the first day of February, nineteen hundred and fifteen.

Witness my hand this 11th day of January, nineteen hundred and fifteen.

Bernard Mallet,
Registrar-General.

General Register Office,
Somerset House, London.
