At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 3rd day of February, 1915.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 8th and 9th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 70, of the Act of the 14th and 15th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 97, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 55, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Representation, bearing date the 30th day of July, in the year 1914, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 8th and 9th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 70, of the Act of the 14th and 15th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 97, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 55, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Representation as to the assignment of a Consolidated Chapelry to the Consecrated Church of Saint James, Pontypool, situate within the Parish of Trevethin, in the County of Monmouth, and in the Diocese of Llandaff.

“Whereas at certain extremities of the said Parish of Trevethin, and of the Parish of Panteg, in the said County and Diocese, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several Churches of such Parishes.

“And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said Parish of Trevethin, and of the said Parish of Panteg, should be formed into a Consolidated Chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said Church of Saint James, Pontypool, situate as aforesaid.

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Joshua Pritchard, Bishop of Llandaff, as such Bishop, (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Representation), with the consent of the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Llandaff, as the Patrons of the Vicarage of the said Parish of Trevethin, (in testimony whereof they have hereunto affixed their Common or Capitular Seal), and with the consent of John Capel Hanbury, of Pontypool Park, in the said County of Monmouth, Esquire, as the Patron of the Rectory of the said Parish of Panteg, (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said Parish of Trevethin, and of the said Parish of Panteg, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one Consolidated Chapelry for the said Church of Saint James, Pontypool, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint James, Pontypool.’

“We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal Consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal Wisdom shall seem meet.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint James, Pontypool, comprising:—

“I. All that portion of the Parish of Trevethin, in the County of Monmouth, and in the Diocese of Llandaff, which is bounded upon the south by the Parish of Panteg, in the said County and Diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say upon the north-east and upon the north-west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said Parish of Panteg from the said Parish of Trevethin at the point where the stream called Avon-lwyd is joined by Trosnant Brook, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of Avon-lwyd for a distance of thirty-six chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries the road leading from Pontypool Park into Commercial Street and Crane Street across Avon-lwyd, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of such road for a distance of five chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Commercial Street and Crane Street, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of Crane Street for a distance of eleven chains or thereabouts to its junction with High Street and the road called Upper Park Terrace, and extending thence first eastward and then south-eastward along the middle of Upper Park Terrace for a distance of two chains and a half or thereabouts to a point opposite to the wall or fence forming the south-eastern boundary of the premises attached to the Pontypool Charity (Church of England) School, and extending thence first south-westward to and along the said wall or fence, and then north-westward along the wall or fence forming the south-western boundary of the same premises for a distance in all of three chains or thereabouts to the point where the last-mentioned wall or fence meets the eastern side of High Street, and extending thence first westward to, and then first south-westward and then north-westward along the middle of High Street for a distance of fifteen chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with the
