

Majesty, Chapter 97, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 55, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Representation, bearing date the 14th day of January, in the year 1915, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 8th and 9th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 70, of the Act of the 14th and 15th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 97, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 55, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Representation as to the assignment of a Consolidated Chapelry to the Consecrated Church of Saint Mark, Harlesden, situate within the New Parish (sometime District) of All Souls, Harlesden, in the County of Middlesex, and in the Diocese of London.

“ Whereas at certain extremities of the said New Parish of All Souls, Harlesden, and of the New Parish (sometime Consolidated Chapelry) of Saint John, Kensal Green, in the said County and Diocese, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several Churches of such New Parishes.

“ And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said New Parish of All Souls, Harlesden, and of the said New Parish of Saint John, Kensal Green, should be formed into a Consolidated Chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said Church of Saint Mark, Harlesden, situate as aforesaid.

“ Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Arthur Foley, Bishop of London, as such Bishop, and also as the Patron, in right of his See, of the Vicarage of the said New Parish of Saint John, Kensal Green, and with the consent of the Right Honourable Herbert Henry Asquith, First Lord of Your Majesty's Treasury, acting on behalf of Your Majesty as the Patron of the Vicarage of the said New Parish of All Souls, Harlesden (in testimony whereof they, the said consenting parties, have respectively signed and sealed this Representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said New Parish of All Souls, Harlesden, and of the said New Parish of Saint John, Kensal Green, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one Consolidated Chapelry for the said Church of Saint Mark, Harlesden, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘ The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Mark, Harlesden.’

“ We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal Consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal Wisdom, shall seem meet.

“ The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“ The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Mark, Harlesden, comprising:—

“ 1. All that portion of the New Parish (sometime District) of All Souls, Harlesden, in the County of Middlesex, and in the Diocese of London, which is bounded upon the east by the Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Laurence, Brondesbury, upon the south partly by the District Chapelry of Saint Martin, Kensal Rise, and partly by an isolated portion of the New Parish (sometime Consolidated Chapelry) of Saint John, Kensal Green, all in the said County and Diocese, and upon the remaining sides—that is to say upon the south-west, upon the north-west, and upon the north, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Saint John, Kensal Green, from the said New Parish of All Souls, Harlesden, at the junction of Scrubbs-lane with Harrow-road, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of Harrow-road for a distance of twelve chains and three-quarters or thereabouts to its junction with Furness-road, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of Furness-road for a distance of thirty-six chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road called Doyle-gardens, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of Doyle-gardens for a distance of twelve chains and three-quarters or thereabouts to its junction with the road called All Souls-avenue, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of All Souls-avenue for a distance of seven chains and a quarter or thereabouts to its junction with a proposed new road running into College-road, and extending thence first south-eastward and then eastward along the middle of the proposed new road for a distance of eight chains or thereabouts to the point where such proposed new road meets College-road at a distance of six chains and a half north of the junction of College-road and the road called Leighton-gardens, and extending thence north-eastward in a line parallel with Leighton-gardens for a distance of fifteen chains or thereabouts to a point in the middle of Chamberlayne-road distant six chains and three-quarters from the junction of that road with Leighton-gardens, and continuing thence north-eastward (in precisely the same direction, and in a straight line) for a distance of two chains and a half or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said New Parish of All Souls, Harlesden, from the said Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Laurence, Brondesbury.

“ II. And also all that isolated portion of the said New Parish of Saint John, Kensal Green, which is bounded upon all sides as follows, that is to say upon the north by the above-described portion of the said New Parish of All Souls, Harlesden, upon the west also by the said New Parish of All Souls, Harlesden, upon the south by the New Parish of Saint Michael and All Angels, Notting Hill, in the said County and Diocese, and upon the east partly by the last-named New Parish and partly by the said District Chapelry of Saint Martin, Kensal-rise.”

And whereas the said Representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased
