By the King and Queen,

A PROCLAMATION,
Requiring the Attendance of the Members of both Houses of Parliament.

MARIE R.

WE being desirous that the Members of both Houses may have convenient Notice of the time when their Attendance in Parliament will be requisite, to the end they may order their Affairs so as that there may then be a full Assembly, Have (with the Advice of Our Privy Council) thought fit to Issue this Our Royal Proclamation; hereby Declaring and Publishing Our Will and Pleasure, That Our Parliament shall on the Third Day of October next (to which Day the same is now Prorogued) be further Prorogued unto Thursday the Six and Twentieth Day of October next. In Order to which Prorogation We shall Expect the Attendance only of such Members as shall be Resident in or near Our Cities of London and Westminster. And Our Purpose being that Our said Houses of Parliament shall not only Meet upon the said Six and Twentieth Day of October next, but shall Sit for the Dispatch of divers weighty and important Affairs, We do therefore hereby Charge and Require all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens and Burgeses of the House of Commons to give their Attendance at Westminster on the Six and Twentieth Day of October next accordingly.

Given at Our Court at Whitehall the Twenty Eighth Day of September, 1693. In the Fifth Year of Our Reign.

Plimouth, Sept. 26. The Weather continues very Tempestuous. There are no Ships come in these last three days.

Bristol, Sept. 27. Since my last are come in here the Mary, Joseph Ruddocke Master, from Corke; and a Ship of 120 Tuns from Nensis.

Comes in the Isle of Wight, Sept. 27.
Yesterday the Smallow Prize passed by this Road towards Southampton from Guernsey; whence she came on the 25th instant with six Vessels under her Convoy, one of which the King David of London, a Galliot Hoy, is come in here, and the Master of it tells us, That before they came from Guernsey, they heard that the new Fortifications which the French were making at la Hogue, are all ruined by the breaking in of the Sea.

Deale, Sept. 29. Their Majesties Ships the Falmouth, Mary Galley, Harp- shire, Greyhound, Dartmouth, and Swift-sure, continue still in the Downes, together with two Dutch Men of War.
This Morning came in the Hope, Captain Hinde Commander, from the Barbadoes.

London, Sept. 30. Yesterday the Common Hall Assembled to choose a Lord Mayor, and a Poll being taken, Sir William Ashurst and Sir John Hou-
