

duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 18th day of March, in the year 1915, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 5th and 6th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 108, and of the Act of the 21st and 22nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 57, which Acts are known as ‘The Ecclesiastical Leasing Acts,’ have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme relating to the Benefice of Rawmarsh, in the County of York, and in the Diocese of Sheffield:

“Whereas the annual value of the said Benefice of Rawmarsh has been improved under and by virtue of certain sales of glebe lands belonging to the said Benefice, and certain leases of minerals under such glebe lands effected, from time to time, under the authority of the said Acts, with the concurrence of us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, during the Incumbency of the Reverend Theophilus Percy Ring, the late Incumbent of the said Benefice, and of his Predecessors:

“And whereas the moneys, being the net proceeds of the said leases and sales, have been, in accordance with the provisions in that behalf contained in the said Acts, invested by us, the said Commissioners, and the investments so made include a sum of 21,360*l.* 15*s.* 8*d.* India three pounds per centum per annum Stock:

“And whereas the improvement in the annual value of the said Benefice arising from or by means of the said sales and leases largely exceeds the annual sum of 75*l.*, and, after the appropriation hereinafter recommended to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, for the benefit of our Common Fund for the purposes hereinafter mentioned, of such portion as is hereinafter mentioned of the improved value which has arisen as aforesaid to the said Benefice from the said leases, the average annual income of the said Benefice will not be left at a less sum than 600*l.*:

“And whereas the said Benefice of Rawmarsh is now vacant, the late Incumbent thereof, as aforesaid, being the said Theophilus Percy Ring, in whose favour an annual Pension of 475*l.* is payable out of the income of the Benefice:

“Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that, as from the date upon which such annual Pension of 475*l.* shall cease to be payable to the said Theophilus Percy Ring, the interest or dividends arising in respect of the sum of 2,500*l.* India Three pounds per centum per annum Stock, forming part of the aforesaid sum of 21,360*l.* 15*s.* 8*d.* India three pounds per centum per annum Stock, or in respect of any securities or investments from time to time representing the said sum of 2,500*l.* India Three pounds per centum per annum Stock, shall cease to be held or received by us for the benefit of the Rector or Incumbent of the said Benefice of Rawmarsh aforesaid, and shall be held or received by us for the benefit of our Common Fund, nevertheless to the intent that the same shall be applied by us for the benefit of the Vicar or Incumbent of the neighbouring Benefice of Saint John the Evangelist, Masbrough, in the said County of York, and in the said Diocese of Sheffield, and his Successors for ever.

“And provided always that the whole of the First Fruits and Tenths now payable to the Governors of Queen Anne’s Bounty in respect of the said Benefice of Rawmarsh shall continue to be payable by the Rector or Incumbent of that Benefice.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the notice of the foregoing Scheme, which is required by the hereinbefore mentioned Acts, has been given by the said Commissioners to the Patron of the said Benefice of Rawmarsh, and the said Patron has not made any objection to the said Scheme:

And whereas a period of more than three months has elapsed since notice of the said Scheme was given to the said Patron:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Sheffield.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Windsor Castle, the 13th day of April, 1915.

PRESENT,

The KING’s Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 8th and 9th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 70, of the Act of the 14th and 15th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 97, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 55, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Representation, bearing date the 17th day of December, in the year 1914, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 8th and 9th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 70, of the Act of the 14th and 15th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 97, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 55, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Representation as to the assignment of a Consolidated Chapelry to the consecrated Church of Saint John, Bourne End, situate within the New Parish (sometime District Chapelry) of Saint Michael and All Angels, Sunnyside, in the county of Hertford, and in the Diocese of Saint Albans:
