

Distinguished Conduct Medals—Continued.

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name.	Corps.	Action for which commended.
8614	Private ...	Whitear, A. ...	1st Battalion, West Riding Regiment (attached No. 8 British Field Ambulance, Indian Expeditionary Force)	For gallant conduct in voluntarily assisting in the removal of the wounded from the advanced dressing station at Rue des Bereaux on 17th March, 1915, whilst under fire.
10120	Private ...	Whiting, G. ...	1st Battalion, Bedfordshire Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry on 20th April, 1915, in holding by himself a crater on the hill, from which all others had been driven, and remaining in possession until supports arrived.
12133	Acting Corporal	Whittington, B. ...	3rd Battalion, Worcestershire Regiment	For gallant conduct and devotion to duty at Spanbroek Molen on 12th March, 1915, when he crawled through a gateway which was under very heavy machine gun fire, and bandaged the wounded who were lying only 30 yards from the enemy's trenches.
2528	Corporal of Horse	Wilkins, A. H. ...	2nd Life Guards	For conspicuous gallantry at Courgies on 25th August, 1914, when his troop was surprised by the enemy and a horse had fallen dead on top of one of his men, he extricated the man and brought him into safety, although subjected to continuous fire from a distance of only 50 yards. He has been brought to notice for courage, energy, and resource during the campaign.
28765	Corporal ...	Williams, E. ...	8th Signal Company, Royal Engineers	For conspicuous gallantry on 10th and 11th March, 1915, at Neuve Chapelle, when he shewed great resource and coolness in conveying messages under very severe fire. He always succeeded in achieving his object.
242	Corporal ...	Wolstenholme, J. L.	Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry	For conspicuous gallantry at St. Eloi on 15th March, 1915, when he carried messages on two occasions under dangerous circumstances whilst exposed to very heavy fire. Subsequently Corporal Wolstenholme conducted stretcher bearers in the dark to rescue the wounded.
9022	Bandsman	Woodage, A. ...	2nd Battalion, Yorkshire Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty at Neuve Chapelle on 13th March, 1915, in voluntarily leaving his trench (his battalion not being engaged at the time) under very heavy fire, and attending on the wounded regardless of danger. The gallantry of this Bandsman was very noticeable.
10351	Private ...	Woodward, R. ...	2nd Battalion, Loyal North Lancashire Regiment	For gallant conduct on 4th November, 1914, during the attack at Tanga (East Africa), and for general good work performed under a heavy fire.
894	Serjeant ...	Yates, T. ...	1/2nd Battalion, Monmouthshire Regiment (T.F.)	For conspicuous gallantry, energy, and devotion to duty near Le Toquet from 18th December, 1914, to 9th April, 1915, when engaged in working underground (continually in water) preparing a mine, which was successfully exploded on the latter date. This work was very arduous, and most hazardous, as the possibility of the German counter-mine being exploded at any moment was ever present.
8199	Lance-Corporal	Zebede, G. ...	2nd Battalion, Dorsetshire Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry, ability, and coolness near Ahwaz (Turkey in Asia) on 3rd March, 1915, when he repeatedly rallied parties of Indian Infantry who were being hard pressed by overwhelming numbers of the enemy. His fine example was largely instrumental in preventing a disaster.
