

Captain Horace Augustus Kirby, Royal Artillery (26th Jacob's Mountain Battery).

On 25th April, 1915, during operations in the neighbourhood of Gaba Tepe, for exceptional gallantry in continuing to conduct the withdrawal of his battery from a forward position, although wounded in the head by a shrapnel shot. This he continued to do until he fainted from loss of blood. He voluntarily returned to duty the next day.

Captain Jasper Kenneth Gordon Magee, 4th Australian Infantry Battalion (New South Wales).

On 25th April, 1915, and subsequent dates, during operations in the neighbourhood of Gaba Tepe, for gallantry in leading his men, and exhibiting sound judgment and ability on several occasions, under a constant and harassing fire.

Captain Arthur Guy Leslie Pepys, 1st Battalion, The Essex Regiment.

From 25th to 28th April, 1915, during landing operations, for conspicuous good work; and again on 1st May, during operations south of Krithia, for gallantly capturing trenches held by the enemy and retaining possession of them.

Captain Clifford Russell Richardson, 2nd Australian Infantry Battalion (New South Wales).

On 25th April, 1915, during operations near Gaba Tepe, for displaying great coolness and courage, and leading a charge against superior numbers under a heavy cross fire, resulting in the flight of the enemy in disorder.

Captain James William Albert Simpson, 13th Australian Infantry Battalion (New South Wales).

On 2nd May, 1915, during an attack in the neighbourhood of Gaba Tepe, for showing conspicuous bravery and skill in directing the battalion through unreconnoitred scrub. He was conspicuously active in consolidating the position gained under heavy fire.

Captain Jesse Alfred Wallingford, New Zealand Staff Corps.

On 25th and 26th April, 1915, during operations near Gaba Tepe, for exceptionally good services with the New Zealand Brigade machine-gun and sharpshooters, and for conspicuous coolness and resource on several critical occasions.

Lieutenant Walter Donald Bush, The Worcestershire Regiment.

On 29th April, 1915, during operations south of Krithia, showed great gallantry in leading his platoon in two charges, and gave great encouragement to the troops in the advance.

Lieutenant Alfred Plumley Derham, 5th Australian Infantry Battalion (Victoria).

On 25th April, 1915, and subsequently during operations in the neighbourhood of Gaba Tepe, for acting with great bravery and ability, and continuing to do duty until 30th April, although shot through the thigh on 25th April.

Lieutenant Charles Fortescue, 9th Australian Infantry Battalion (Queensland).

From 25th to 29th April, 1915, during operations near Gaba Tepe, for conspicuous gallantry. He twice led charges against the enemy, and rendered good service in collecting reinforcements and organising stragglers.

Lieutenant Reginald George Legge, 13th Australian Infantry Battalion (New South Wales).

On 1st and 2nd May, 1915, during operations in the neighbourhood of Gaba Tepe, for conspicuous ability and courage in the successful handling of his machine-gun section. On several occasions he inflicted severe losses on the enemy, and was himself severely wounded in the neck.

Lieutenant Lionel Bassett Lipscombe Seckham, 1st Battalion, The Lancashire Fusiliers.

On 25th April, 1915, during the first landing operations at Cape Helles, for great gallantry in leading and continuing the attack when he himself was wounded and all but ten of his men killed or wounded.

Lieutenant Alfred John Shout, 1st Australian Infantry Battalion (New South Wales).

On 27th April, 1915, during operations near Gaba Tepe, for showing conspicuous courage and ability in organising and leading his men in a thick, bushy country, under very heavy fire. He frequently had to expose himself to locate the enemy, and led a bayonet charge at a critical moment.

Second Lieutenant (temporary Lieutenant) George Geoffrey Needham, 1st Battalion, The Lancashire Fusiliers.

On 28th April, 1915, during operations south of Krithia, for acting with great dash and gallantry during the attack on Krithia.

No. 8/1048 Serjeant-Major A. W. Porteous, 10th (North Otago) Regiment, New Zealand Forces.

On 26th April, 1915, during operations in the neighbourhood of Gaba Tepe, for gallantry in action, and again on the night of 2nd-3rd May, for exceptional bravery and devotion to duty. All the officers of his company being killed or wounded, he organised and led the company, continually exposing himself for four hours, and showing fine military spirit and powers of leadership.

No. 96 Serjeant-Major D. Smith, 5th Battalion, 2nd Australian Brigade.

On 8th May, 1915, during operations south of Krithia, for conspicuous gallantry and good services in rallying and leading men forward to the attack. Although wounded in both arms, he continued to direct his men, setting a valuable example of devotion to duty.